New Orleans L.A. December 9th 1862

Dear Brother Russell,

I am in the city of New Orleans today as you will see by the beading of this letter I come down after my pay & have just received it. I was paid fifty two Dollars. I am writing this in Adams & Co. Express Office & have just let the Agent have thirty five to send home to you ($35.00). You may expect it soon after you receive this I am now well and expect to go up & join the regiment tomorrow morning. I hope that these few lines will find you & the family in the enjoyment of good health. Please write soon without fail. Please give my love to all Good by for the present this is from your affectionate brother, Henry LN. Lord

J.R. Lord Eng.,

P.S. I would write more if I had time but I have not as I have to get back to camp this afternoon & the mail leaves here tomorrow on board the steamship Trade Wind for New York. L. H. L.
