DEDICATION

The students of the Presbyterian School for Mexican girls wish to dedicate their first annual to Miss Berta Murray, who has helped, encouraged, and inspired us all with her fine leadership and friendliness.

A BIRTHDAY "THANK YOU"

There are many, many nice things,
That we your friends could say,
To wish you, dear Miss Murray
A very happy day.

We could forever thank you
For your love of growing folks;
For your genuine understanding,
Of their laughter and their jokes.

We would gladly thank you often
For the counsel that you give,
For the times when girlish mischief
You've been ready to forgive.

We could thank you for your interest
In the people whom we claim,
For the good that you have done them
Giving glory to His name.

We could say that we admire you
Working with a pen or tool,
For no task is ever lowly
For the one who runs this school.

Though we are so very grateful
For your ways of showing love,
We are asking God to thank you
With His blessings from above.

We have chosen only one thing
For which, "thank you, very much",
Loving smiles you share so freely
In the midst of daily rush.

For these smiles are often reasons
Why you see us smiling too,
Why sometimes we make you happy
Bringing home an "A" or two.

ALMA MATER

Hail to thee our noble school
Here we drink fresh waters cool
And feed upon the bread of life
That teaches love in place of strife
Oh keep us living close to truth
That in our hearts eternal youth,
We'll yet proclaim that God is good
To grant us all this sisterhood.
Build us strong and good and pure
That thy dear name may e're endure.

Hail Pres-Mex we sing thy praise
Thankful for the gift of days
Within these sacred, pleasant walls
Where lurking danger never calls
Oh give us joyful hearts to sing
And cheerful lives that ever ring
As peeling bells across the plain
The richness of thy name retain
Praise and honor ever be
Our Alma Mater unto Thee.

To Pauline.- I love to sing "Temptation" in the laundry as I wash; I will to you this loving fashion, please don't throw it in the trash. Helen

To Cynthia.- Lucille will go to far away places and what will her Irish boy do? Why, it's obvious that with her sense, Charles to Cynthia's care will go. Lucille

To Elia.- To graduate you need algebra, but first of all how to add; there fore, I will to you, dear roommate, this which I consider my trade. Olga

To Ruth.- Lady, my dear old roommate, to you I will all my talents--- dancing, drawing, acting, primping---but I think that you'll continue "Begin the Beguine" all the same. Sonia

To Pauline.- Oh, gee! What will do with not a thing to will? Of course, I know, giving speeches is such a fine thrill'. So hear, Pauline, hear ye my will: My eloquence I give you with a chill.

Mary Gee

To Cynthia.- And who, oh, who will entertain the senior class next year? Rose Mary is going with all her jokes, but her hilarity she will to Cynthia from up the hills.

Rose Mary

To this, our last will and testament, we the able, most noble and illustrious Seniors of Pres-Mex, on this day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine-hundred and forty-nine, do hereby set our seals on the legal document.

Senior Class

We the Senior Class of the Presbyterian School, do hereby will and dequeath to the Senior Class 1950, these things herewith enumerated by the parties of the first part.

To Ruth.- Lady, Lady, I will will to you my pep, that it may seal your first artistic step. Enriqueta

To Elia.- If you have never planted a garden, and you do not have a love for them, I will to you this, my darlin', a great love for nature. Amen! Minerva

To Ruth.- My blooms of youth, (my rosy cheeks) I will to my roommate, that all may see the joy that brings the love for friendliness. Noemi

To Pauline.- To you, Pauline, my tender friend, my mother title here I send; a good mother you will make. Please love my children,,,,,for my sake. Gloria

To Cynthia.- Though you want to be an old maid, I'm opposed to such a thing; so to you, Cynthia, I will the envied art of catching men. Beatriz

To Elia.- You never missed my theft, so much tallness I have left; nothing lacking from your grace, all your shortness waits in place. Elida

To Ruth.- Ruth, to you belongs all my will-Sonny Wright, his jeep, and trumpet still. Selia

SENIOR PROPHECY

Looking into the future through a mirror of dreams, the Junior Class solemnly predicts, announces, foretells, prognosticates, forecasts, soothsays, divines, augurates, presages, ominates, and even affirms that by 1959:

Lucila Graillet will be a pharmacist and shall be employed in one of Dallas's big, modern and beautiful drug stores. She will still be wearing the same hair-do and will still be using her sweet smile and her eyes that kill.

Mary Garcia will be a nurse in the Rio Grands Valley where she will probably suffer a nervous shock every week.

Christina Elizondo will be a stenographer who will take time each evening to listen to "Los Panchos" Radio program.

Gloria Yanez will be a famous scientist and will have discovered a cure for cancer.

Rose Mary Wilburn will be head of the Commerce department in Brooklyn High School, New York City. (Moises will still be her beau).

Selia Marruffo will be working as librarian at Tex-Mex where she will sing "Tres Pollos" while filing cards.

Beatriz Ortega will be advertizing a new brand of toothpaste which her dentist husband will have originated.

Enriqueta Leal will be the wife of Dario, her new postman boy friend. They will be blessed with twelve children all having inherited their mother's quiet personality.

Sonia Martinea will be the "Great Soniada", Ballerina and her name will be famous in the show business.

Olga Lopez will be working as church secretary with her preacher brother-in-law in Matamoros. She will still be known as "Pollo".

Cuca Rodriguez will be living in her hometown, Taft, married happily to the man of her dreams, the garage man.

Elida Martinez will be a famous lawyer and will be at this time defending a case in the supreme court.

Helen Perez will have married "La Guera" (her Tex-Mex partner) and will be living in a cute little white cottage in Dallas.

Minerva Guajardo will be on furlough from China. She will be a missionary to that country.

Noemi Ramirez and James Alty will be making their home by the oceanside in Tampico, Mexico.

Carmen Lopez will be a Wave sailing the wide blue sea in search of her sailor boy.

If the Mirror of Dreams varies in any way from the above predictions, the Junior Class wishes the Seniors the very best of the best in whatever the future years do bring.
