EDITOR'S NOTE . . .

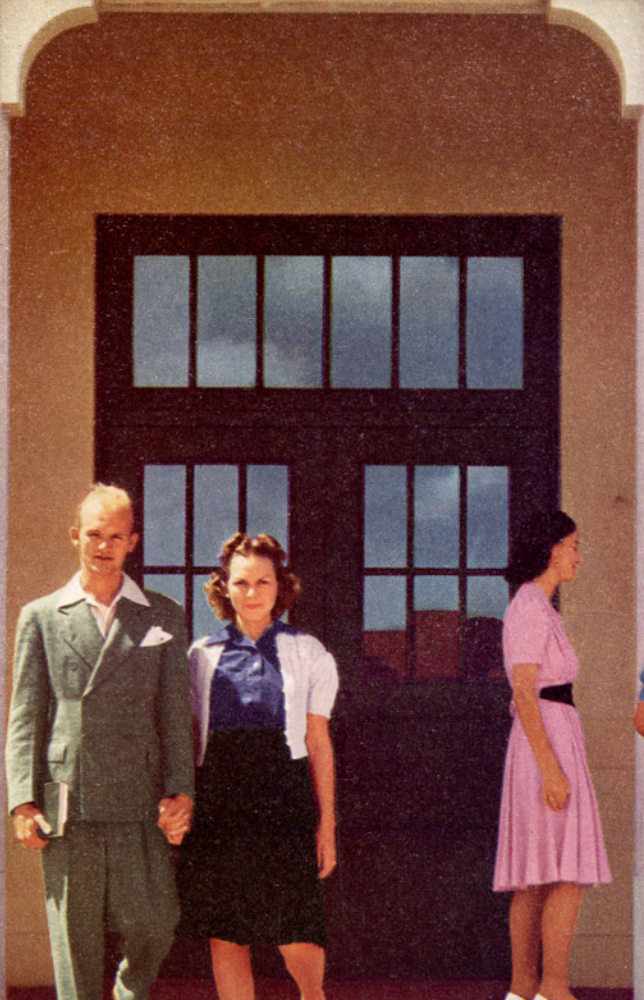

The editor and the staff of El Rancho have attempted to produce a picturesque and informal record of the '40-'41 session of school life and related incidents.

At all times the staff has tried to keep the attitude that El Rancho is the student's book. It is a record of events that have taken place and should live long in the memory of all who have taken part in the school activities. An annual should be, and we have tried to make it, a thing of beauty and a lasting source of enjoyment to all who have it.

It is with much regret on our part that we have to admit that there are a few things that had to be left out of the book. We would like to have been able to have every member of the faculty in the book, but because of deadlines that had to be met, some of the new members do not have their pictures herein presented. To those members: Mrs. Agnes Halland Oftedal, Mr. W. E. Williams, Mrs. Charles A. Walker, Miss Betty Love Rugeley and Mr. Maurice Dossey, we extend a very hearty welcome, not only from the staff, but from the entire student body.

El Rancho has been in the hands of the editor and staff since June, 1940. It is now in your hands. Our greatest hope and desire will be realized if you get part of the pleasure in seeing it that we did in producing it.

MISS LILA BAUGH

Magnanimous in every fiber of her being, rich in knowledge, in experience, and in understanding, Miss Baugh exemplified her belief that there is no substitute for a good teacher. The inner drive of her life seemed a burning faith in the potentialities of human beings. As Dean of Women and as teacher her untiring efforts were to unlock and make fruitful the latent powers of our student body, "to save the good that man has done, and to make sure its increase." Our college has lost a superior teacher and rare personality.

The Students
Texas College of Arts and Industries
Kingsville, Texas

Dear friends:

This yearbook, so beautifully prepared and edited by its staff officers, should always be preserved to remind the students of the Texas College of Arts and Industries of the serious but happy days experienced on the college campus.

History will record this year as unique in the annals of time. For the first time a national president has been elected for the third term. The national expenditures have out-run the income of each year for the past seven. Four dictator governments have so effectively regimented their peoples as to constantly threaten the strongholds of democracies. Peace-time draft for military service has federal authorization. The status of the National Guard has changed from an emergency local protection to a federal arm of defense.

The road to war, hard-beaten by reluctant feet of centuries, threatens us with a repetition of other frightful experiences.

May it be God's will to establish on this earth the "Parliament of Man--A Federation of the World", and may the training and association of college students on A. and I. campus constitute a potent influence for peace on earth and good will toward all men.

Sincerely yours,

J. O. Loftin, President

Dear Staff and Students:

The Annual is the one activity of the year in which all students may be included, the one product which all can possess and about which all can become enthusiastic. It is great good fortune for us all that these things are true, for we need training in cooperation, we need to engage in enterprises that are all-inclusive, and we need to cultivate enthusiasm.

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever."
El Rancho this year challenges all former issues in beauty. Congratulations to the staff, and congratulations to the students.

Sincerely,

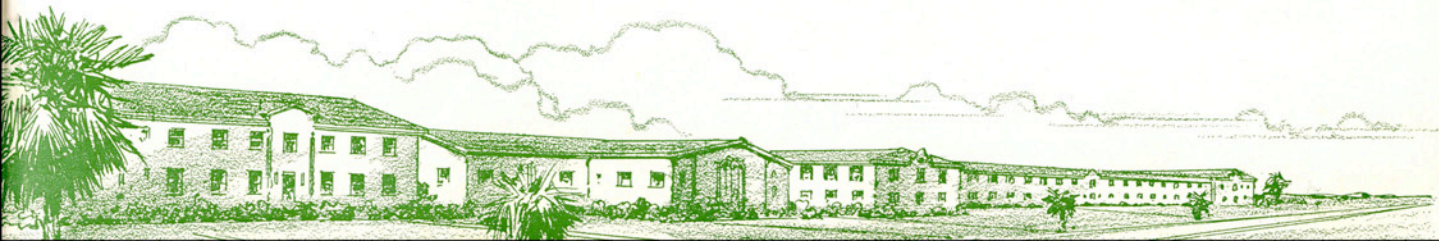

J. E. Conner

Student Council . . .

MURRELL STIEGLER
President

The Student Council was organized for the purpose of promoting a closer union of the organizations and to promote loyalty to the college.

One of the most important steps that the Council took this year was to definitely take a student vote for a Union Building. Construction on the building should be started before the next semester begins. The building will be paid for by students.

INEZ STERLING	Freshman Representative First Semester
JOHN CADENHEAD	Freshman Representative Second Semester
JIM SEAY	Athletic Representative
WARREN ARNOLD	Athletic Representative

On April 1, the nucleus of the Student Council for 1941-1942 were elected. These members are Max Amann, President; Roscoe Maris, Vice-President; C. A. Davis, Jr., Secretary-Treasurer; Myrtle Wolfshohl, Editor of The South Texan; and Dora Hager, Editor of El Rancho.

Remember This Occasion ?

There's a long, long trail a-windin' . . . that all good frosh must travel!

Shirt-tail parade — or, "Life's Embarrassing Moments."

Time—Night time.

Place — In front of the Rialto.

Title — Freshman Boys Get Theirs.

Mobscene—

Mobbers—Upper Classmen.

Mobees — Lower Classmen, but definitely.

A dash of egg and an old toothbrush—freshman girl torture.

"Sweet Adeline" never sounded sweeter. UH UH!

What the well-dressed freshman boy will wear when informally dressed, for one night of the year.

Must have been a "mighty" interesting sight. "Mighty" funny, too.

College Life

Joyce Hobrecht seems to be anxious over the package held by Jeanie Arbuthnot. Perhaps it contains food. Margaret Hansard, unconcerned, turns on her best photogenic smile.

The Alpha Sigma study hall finds Pledges Taylor, Hobrecht, Gates and Kidder looking intent anyway.

Louene Sorenson and Eldon Savage hold hands on Sunday afternoon. Eldon is the boy with the beautiful baritone voice.

Seale Hall special, this replica of a car has long since gone to its reward. The Science building makes a good picture anyway.

Exes Smokey Jester and Louis Taylor walk along the east sidewalk.

Rissa Malone checks out another book from Buster Moore, bookroom manager.

F.F.A. Sweetheart Janis Riggs coming toward the Administration building, arms loaded with student teaching materials as usual.

Charlotte Ilfrey, former Kappa Sigma Nu sweetheart and student of A&I, on one of her visits to the campus.

College Life

Charlie Moyer, A&I graduate, and Leefe Brown enjoy the solitude of steps hidden by cedar trees.

Betsy Kidder and Inez Simmons returning to Cousins Hall after lunch.

The Te-Jac overrun with band students and football enthusiasts after some game.

The girls don't believe you anyway, Johnnie. Muselle seems to enjoy it more than George or Effie, though.

Two scenes of the Te-Jac with all faces turned toward the camera. Who said they didn't know the picture was being made!

Aggie profs and Aggie students enjoying one of the eating parts of "We Never Meet But What We Eat."

Anita Gonzales, elementary school student teachers prexy, seen walking beside the administration building.

Short Course Parade

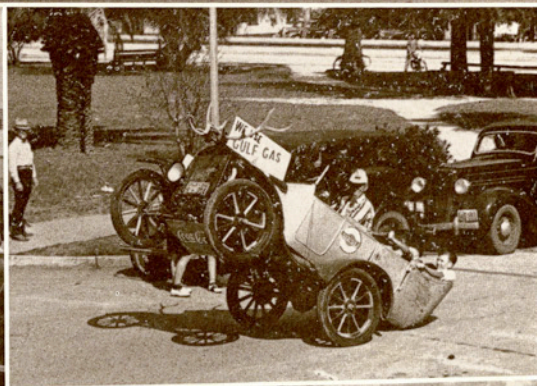

The procession led by notables on horseback from many counties march up the main street of Kingsville in the annual Rodeo parade.

The A&I student organizations float with club presidents, Student Council members, Lantana Queens Anna Lynn Porter and Elizabeth Jester, and yell leaders, pass behind the A&I stadium.

The South Texan staff crowd into "Red" Pryor's little wagon and are part of the parade.

Whoa there podner!— must be a bucking broom stick in the back there. Delta Sig pledges add their bit to the slapstick part of the parade.

The National Guard trucks pass by in review.

Do those legs belong to the car? Good Gulf gets a demonstration by this contraction.

One of the wagons depicting the era of pre-car days in South Texas.

The inevitable bicycle brigade of every parade brings up the rear. Look at the two-seater.

November 11, 1940

The Kingsville Brahma Band led by cocky drum major and majorettes add music to the parade — and it must be pretty good music at that because . . .

This donkey seems to be moving right along in step, or maybe this donkey is a prodigy.

Weldon Vorpahl, George Jean, "Red" Pryor, South Texan workers, smile for the photographer in their newspaper-covered car.

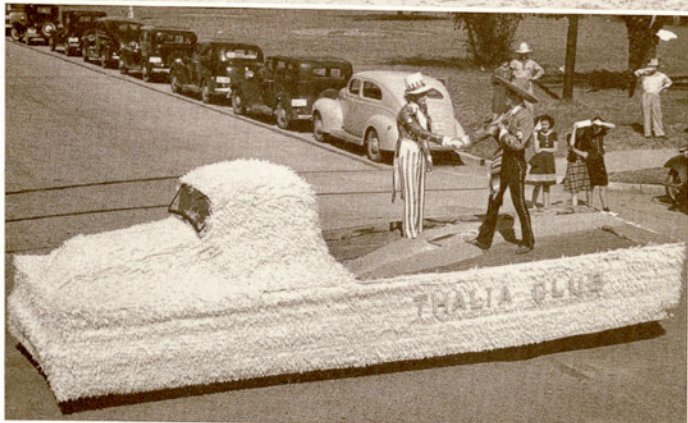

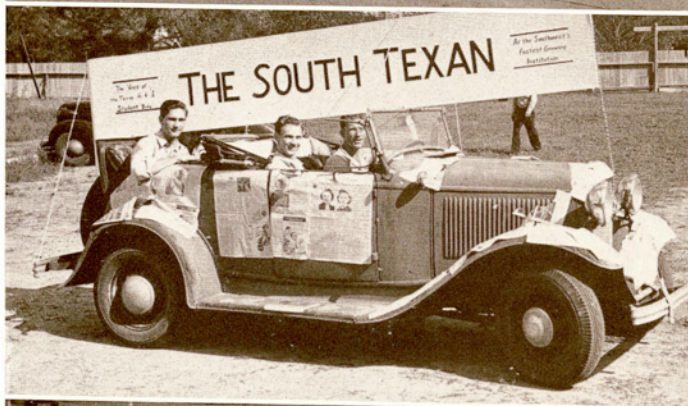

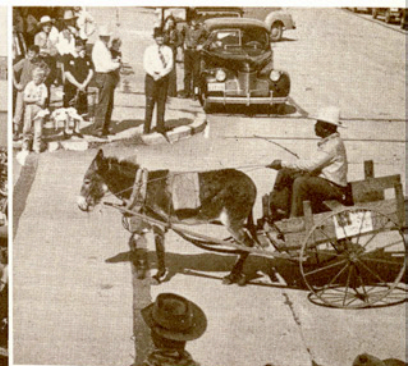

This is the trained cow, on the left, and trainer who performed for the rodeo spectators.

The Thalia Club float with Uncle Sam and Mexico joining hands in friendship over the Rio Grande.

Wonder what that coon is whispering in the donkey's ear? It must be sweet, but not entertaining. Look at the placid look on the donkey's face!

A front view of the A&I float with T Association sweetheart, Betty Jane McCallum, enjoying the company of A&I notables.

The Pioneer Store stage in peaceful times—no guns to be seen within easy reach.

Rodeo Notables and Visitors . . .

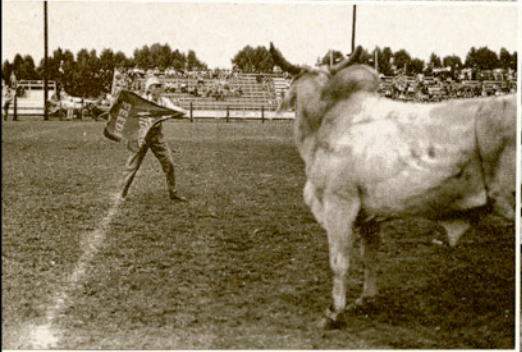

Agriculture profs and rodeo sponsors pose for a group picture on the A&I campus.

Dressed in chaps, ten-gallon hats and all, Professors Cook and Parker pose with the riders for the rodeo. What are you waving in there, Jimmy Cook?

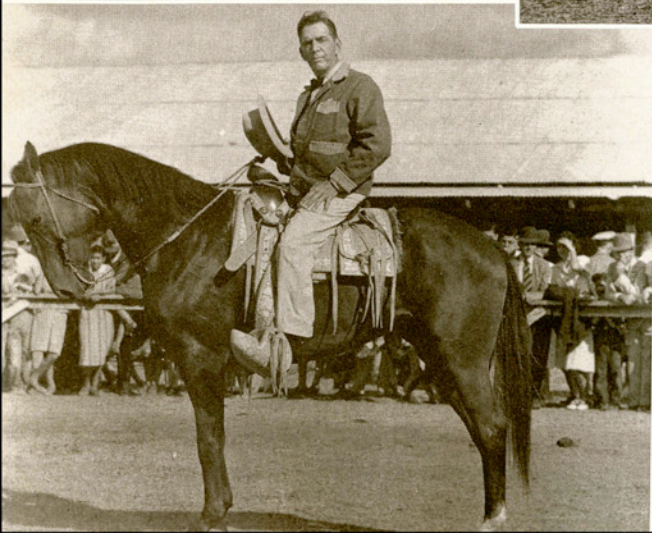

This bull looks calm enough now, but you should have seen them giving the riders fits in the ring.

This Brahma is just getting ready to make a tear into the antagonizer. He seems to be thinking "why in the heck are you waving that feed sack at me!"

"Sis" Reagan, one of the girl rodeo performers, and Congressman Kleberg pose before the gates and judges stand.

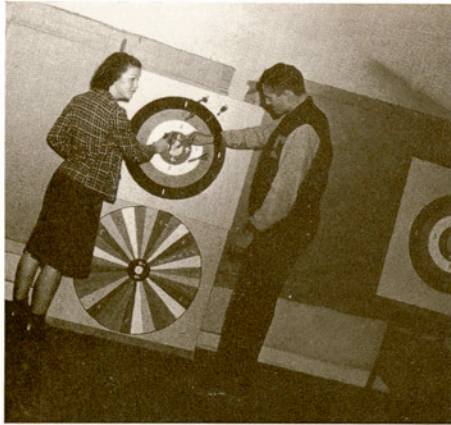

Congressman Kleberg again on one of the many famous horses of the King Ranch.

And a little child shall lead them—she must have been out of focus though.

Play Night - - - Much Fun for Everyone

Curtis and Frances deciding who hit the bull's eye.

Just "piples" such as Dorothy Ruth, Louise and Alicia. The man with the grin is Bud Rucker.

Nothing like a good fast shuffleboard game.

That's "Liz" and "Big Dog" in the foreground.

Just a bunch of card sharps. Glenn and Evidna with a couple of cute fellas.

Can't quite decide who those people are.

Between Peggy and Mat—Red might not make it.

Volleyball — that game that calls for so much stretching.

Effie and Jack seem to be very happy about the whole thing.

St. Mary's Here We Are . . .

Going to St. Mary's and everybody's happy including Billye Ruth Thompson and John Woodard, everybody but members of the band, Butcher and Spencer.
C'mon and smile.

A&I takes over San Antonio—marching up Houston street with "Red" Pryor's car leading the procession.

Lantana Queen Anna Lynn seems to be enjoying the jam session played by band members. Holley agrees with a smile.

Still marching up Houston Street is Preston Wood carrying the banner.

The Jam session still going on full blast with more students listening or watching the antics of the performers.

The cornet section and members of the student body and just stander-bys listening to the Javelina fight song.

How did this get in here? It couldn't have been taken on the special. Who ever heard of such things going on in the box car!

Drum Majorettes Helen Meyer and Anna Lynn Porter twirling as the band plays on.

Not Only Did We Go - - We Conquered . .

The Javelina band playing a jam session in the lobby of the Gunter Hotel before the St. Mary's game.

Marching up Houston Street from the special.

Another view of the drum section of the band with Drummer Boy Hickman taking a breakdown during Tiger Rag.

The A&I victory over St. Mary's on the St. Mary's scoreboard.

Putting the signs on the special train is Pryor.

Flight Review

Brains of the outfit . . . "Fuzzy" Hall, Rod More, Mrs. More, Fred Halbert, George Guy, and Bill Powell up for "line inspection."

All four wheels on the ground, Bob Sweet tries his acrobatics in the Ford V-8. Careful, Bob, you'll spin in.

The one flying suit for ten student fliers in action for the first time.

Just the advanced students . . . Sweet, Korges, Clark, Millikin, Vaughn, Hurt, May, and Cook . . . and not a flier in the bunch!

Little "Contact" Powell admiring Daddy's flying from the ground floor . . . Yes, he's studying to be an instructor, too!

Millikin ducks his camera fright while Powell throws out his chest with anything but pride for his gang of fledglings.

Hand-picked advanced students (Clark at the controls) test-hopping the new multi-motored ship just constructed from orange crates. Think it'll fly? You are right, it hasn't yet!

Sixty minutes of acrobatics and "Powell language" . . . feel beaten down, Charlie?

Air Minded ? Yes Sir ! . . .

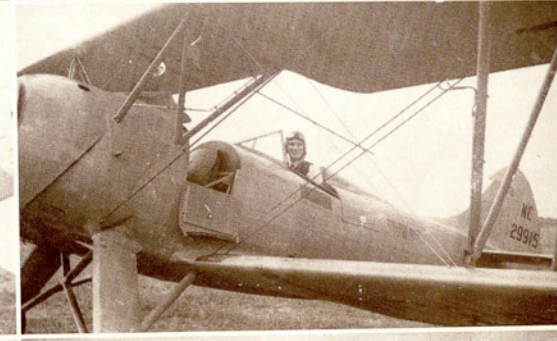

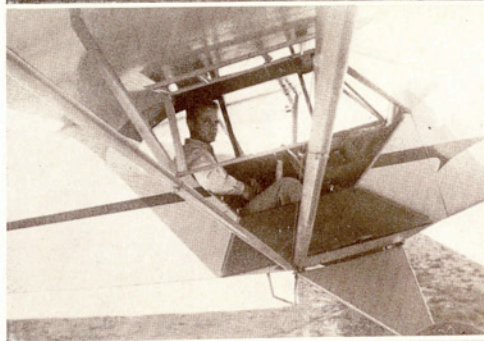

Warming up the Waco's 220 horses . . . Master Powell looks on.

The thrill that comes once in a lifetime . . . Jacobs and his first solo flight.

Waiting for the empty ship to take itself off.

At ease . . . the Cub and Waco pitch in for a bit of noon rest.

"Southeast, 15 miles an hour" . . . old faithful wind-sock and beacon tower.

Sammy Fugate pulling a lurking sneak play.

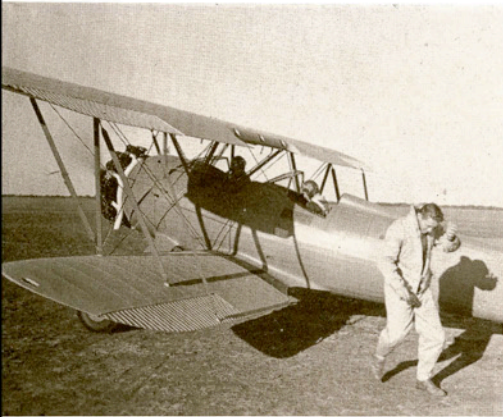

The "old airport gang" that national defense bells are breaking up.

Korges in the process of building up for a takeoff in the Waco.

Action - - - You Bet - - - All Kinds . . .

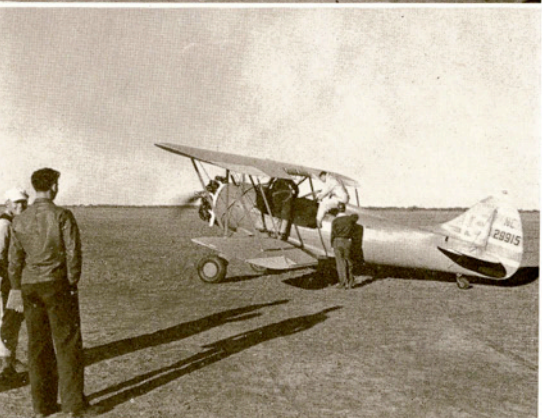

Hurt running away from the scene of the crime.

Even the best of fliers must have their fun . . . Clark playing with the battery cart . . . Fitzgerald waiting for his turn.

"Contact" Powell breaks into Joseph Demic's big news with Daddy and "Uncle" Rod standing by.

Caller - Times ace photographer Demic figuring on the best method of "shooting" Instructor Hall's ten students.

Jackson Clark giving Raymond May a bit of "dual" in protest of child labor.

Powell, Hurt, and Company getting set for the contact.

Instructor Guy and his "understudies."

We three . . . Powell, Millikin, and the Waco.

Amado Nervo Members and Friends . . .

No soap — Nori, Jo, Mario, Andrea, Carmen, and Carolina jes' won't listen to Anita.

The girls take a period off to rest and chatter a while.

It must be a procession or a "follow the leader" game with Nori Rodriguez leading and Red trailing hind.

Minerva! What has surprised you so much at this Homecoming event? Students and visitors gather around the Spanish Club registration table.

Hector Mario Pena forgot his gentlemanly ways and let Lady Carolina Cantu carry her books.

Another Homecoming episode, with Vicky pinning a souvenir on Noe Garcia's tie, and Gene trying to obstruct the view with his hat.

Engineer Noe Garcia and Elizabeth Gutierrez "hoof" it to the college on a sunny morning.

Amado Nervo Members and Friends . . .

Give us the lowdown, girl—or is it just a little gossip?

Felix and the kids enjoy the sunshine during the noon hour.

A crowd decides to wait outside for the bell to ring.

. . . Part of the crowd at the Homecoming Reception at Cavazos'.

Elida, Anita, and Eva get a "breezy" inspiration just before a Spanish final.

Watch it — six is too many for one sidewalk . . . The Club Sweetheart, Anita, looks at the birdie.

It must be the spring that affects Mateo and Elida so romantically.

Amado Nervo Members and Friends . . .

The inseparable pals — Willie Mediete and Felix Solis.

Red and Ella give an outlet to their energy by playing ball.

What'cha trying to do, hold the tree up?

Pretty little dog, isn't it, Selina?

An Engineer, Julio Garcia, and an Aggie, Alfonso Garza, share their "leisure time."

Who are you trying to shoot, Sinky?

Memories of Other Years . . .

Wonderful memories! Mr. Snowman is provided headgear by thoughtful A&I students.

Nope, stalled motor. "Jonah" just wouldn't jump in such unlike-South-Texas weather.

Mob scene during snow scene on white carpeted campus near Ad. Building. Just A&I students at play!

Lucky guy! Miss Troy mugs the snowman who seems unusually icy to her affectionate attention.

What's a little snow among friends—"especially if you're on top," says Chaudoin.

More snow and still more, making A&I an attractive scene, but defying all weather reports.

George seems to know the old chap, well! Anyway, it's a friendly gang who admires Mr. Snowman.

No, couldn't be another! But it is, with Francis considering the cameraman as he pats out a layer of padding for the would-be creature.

Memories of Other Years . . .

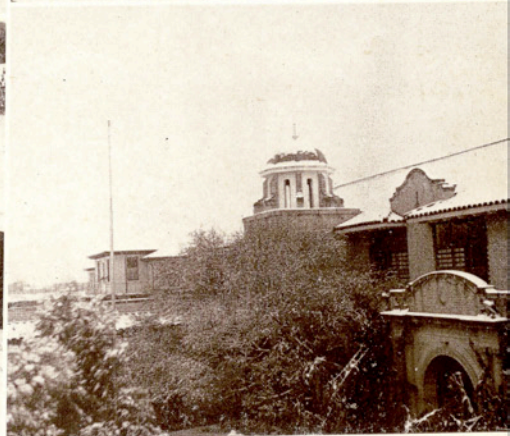

Why fight for it, the campus was covered with the stuff.

Loftin Hall provides another battleground during the unusual weather.

Ready, aim, fire, Holley! Did you hit the right one?

Roof tops and more snow. Seems almost commonplace!

What, another blitzkrieg! Just a lot of snow mixed with a lot of fun.

"Oh, what fun it is to slide in the slush." Must be in front of Engineer's building.

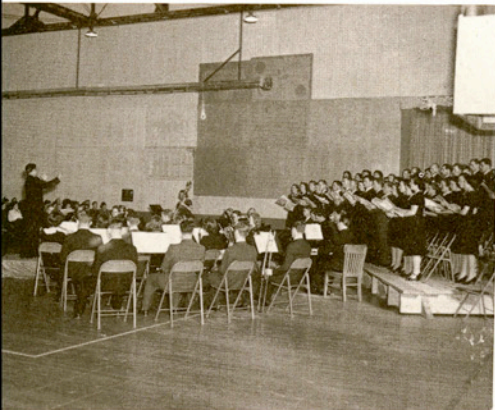

Unusual sight . . . palm trees against a background of snow.

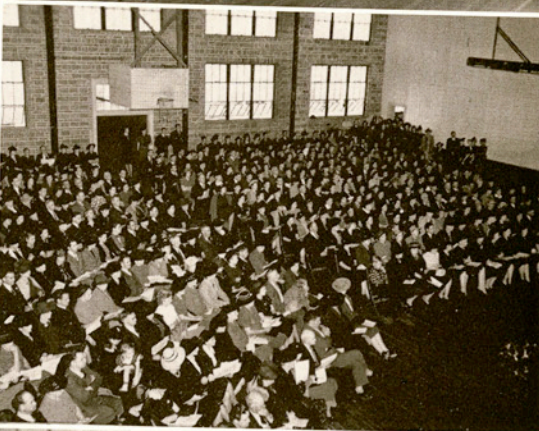

Ad Building feels its weight of the snow blanket.

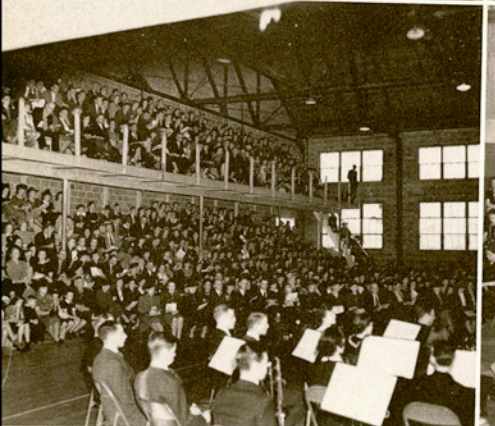

"The Messiah" - - - Annual Presentation

An annual affair, looked forward to by every student on the campus, with the A&I A Cappella Choir holding the center of attention. It's "The Messiah," a story of Christ sung with solos and choruses composed of biblical verses set to Handel's immortal music.

Choir members, singing solo parts, were "Supe" Martin, soprano; "Mil" McDaniels, contralto; Brower Shipp, Jr., tenor; Eldon Savage, baritone; and Miss Vanderwicken, of the A & I Music Department, soprano.

More than 80 voices under the direction of "Pop" Riley presented the oratorio in the college gym on Sunday afternoon, December 8.

"The Messiah," widely associated with the Christmas season, has become a traditional part of the holidays for college students.

This year's production had an orchestra accompaniment under the direction of Erwin Ernst, member of the Music Department. Professors Robert Scanland and Theophil Voeks were at the pianos in accompaniment.

People Well Liked and Remembered . . .

Storm Bull, noted Norwegian pianist, bows gracefully as he shakes hands with President Loftin at the reception in Loftin Hall following his performance before the A&I student body.

Bull, just before he gave the recital that delighted the audience so very much.

A pair of broad shoulders monopolize this picture belonging to one "Sacks" Mattingly, football player. What was he doing there?

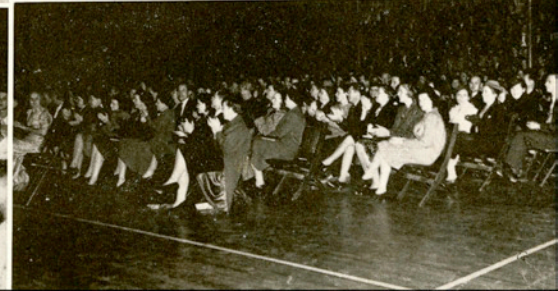

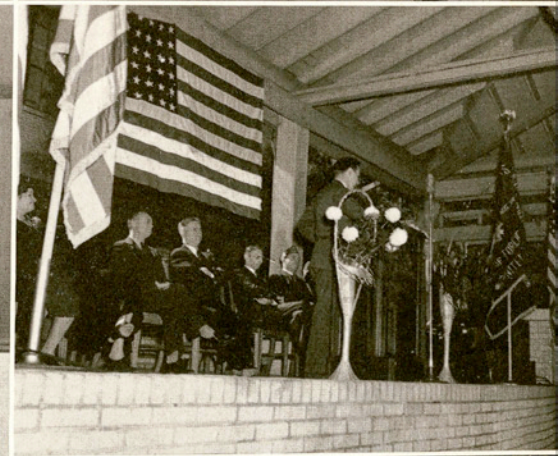

John Percival, baritone, came all the way from New York to entertain A&I's students. Anne Pittman of Corpus Christi accompanied him.

Appearing on A&I campus four times this year, Mrs. Sherwood Avery of San Antonio, famous reviewer, relates an interesting highlight to her captivated audience.

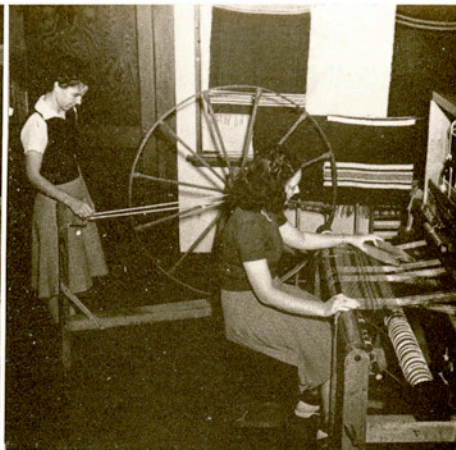

Rep. John Lyle of Corpus Christi addresses the A&I student body in an Armistice Day assembly program.

All eyes toward little "Smokey" Jester as she gives off song at the Aggie Barn Dance—one of the special features of the affair.

An enthusiastic A&I audience welcomes John Percival at the beginning of his performance.

Class Room Scenes . . .

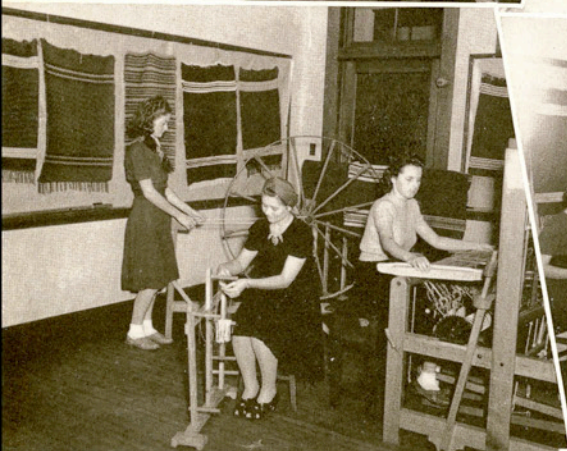

Home Economics majors Janis and Lela Ruth Riggs, and Babe de Mauri whipping up something on the cooking lab.

Weaving room scene with the loom working for Willie Bess Sims with Jewel Margaret Simons doing something or other.

The dining room of the Home Ec. department as set by students preparing a formal dinner.

Janis Riggs showing Hazel Glasscock, Betty Sue Rosemond, and Joyce Hafer just how to dish jello up.

Some more weavers with samples of the rugs on the walls.

Sunset comes and forms a silhouette of a student gazing out the window of the Home Economics practice cottage.

"Jivein'" With the Engineers . . .

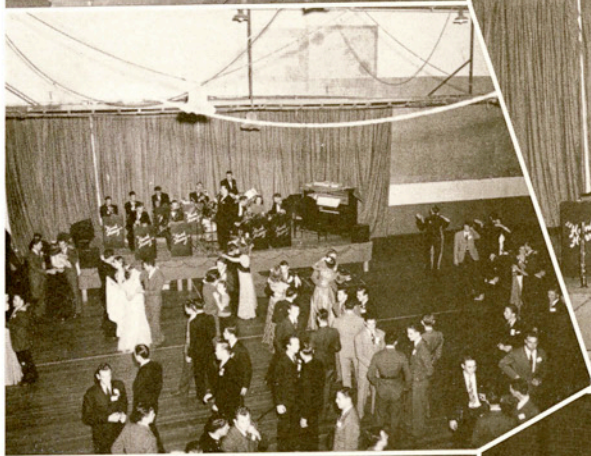

Engineer Sweetheart and Queen of A&I College, Elizabeth Jester receives the triangle and compass, symbol of the engineering school. President Hal St. John seems pleased with their choice . . . and who wouldn't be?

Former Engineer Sweetheart Hi Kidder trips the light fantastic with Freshman Robert Mitchell at the same dance.

Christmas decorations and a bird's eye view of Hank Henry and the student body dancing.

Hank swings out on a saxophone solo. See two members of the A&I band in his orchestra?

Homecoming dance with shy Rosemary Blackstock and Vernon Savage occupying the biggest portion of the picture.

Hank Henry and the boys swing out with Sweet Sue on coke bottles.

"Liz" Brown and "Dutchy" Roewe seem to be enjoying the music.

"Truckin' on Down" With the FFA . . .

F. F. A. Prexy Melvin Rees, Sweetheart Janis Riggs, Aggie Sweetheart Betty Jo Lyons and Prexy Robert Schutte, share the limelight at the Aggie barn dance. Notice the stage of bales of hay.

A chicken's view of the dance floor and band. See me up there in the left-hand corner?

Rees and Riggs lead the grand march past Burks and Beasley.

Faculty members of the female sex rate a bench. What do you think about the whole thing, President Loftin?

The prize winners! Does the dog go with the costume too?

Pictures of the Kappa Sigma dance of '40 with Maestro Del Courtney and his Candid Camera Shots in Music orchestra.

Kappa Sig Sweetheart Charlotte Ilfrey and President Deck Huley just after the presentation.

Havin' Fun at the Dormitory Party . . .

The Dormitory Christmas party in Loftin Hall with Cousins Hall President Judy Wahler and Mrs. Littlejohn among the leaders.

A view of the dancing with steadies Babette Rhinehart and Edwin Simpson being laughed at by Lillian Marie Hicks and Eldon Savage.

The Christmas tree serves as a background for Faye Smith and Johnnie Barkley.

Cadenhead and Holly are the main interests of this picture. Notice the haircut(?)!

El Rancho Editor and Alpha Sigma Prexy Mil McDaniels enjoying a dreamy dance at the same formal.

Cousins and Seale Hallers Sandy Hadley, Bob Mitchell, Betty Jo Lyons and Richard Rowe practically hide the decorations.

The confetti adds a note of gaiety to the party, but who likes confetti or anything else in their hair, when concentrating on a game of bridge!

"Jammin' at the Gym" With the Aggies . . .

An aerial view of the Aggie dance with wagon wheel, lanterns, etc.

Aggie Sweetheart, Betty Jo Lyon, receives her bouquet. Student president for 1941, Max Amann, serves as master of ceremonies.

F.F.A. Sweetheart, Janis Riggs, poses for her picture just after presentation to the A&I student body.

The Aggies dance some more with Professor Burks watching the orchestra.

Dick Melton, Ann Dunn, A&I Ex Rufus Brown are the main interests in this shot of the Aggie dance.

The winners! Robert Schutte and Mary Carver win the ironing board and farm tools for being the most typically dressed for a barn dance. Isn't Schutte former Aggie president? Max Amann hanging on the microphone provides a background.

Givin' Out at the Valentine Dance . . .

Nope, this page isn't a picture of the regular procession before Cousins Hall, but snaps taken of the forfeit paid by the girls(?) at the annual Press Club Valentine dance.

Jerry Bloxom and Ben Peek furnish us with the first fond embrace.

Bess Hal Yakey, Press Club sweetheart, and Richard Rowe, Press Club president, following Bess Hal's presentation to the dancers.

Here the sweetheart is again with Rufus Landers. Is that Dub Willis in the background? I wonder who's with him?

Betsy Kidder and Preston Wood were snapped a second too soon, or perhaps she paid the dime? Lantana Queen Elizabeth Jester grins in the background.

Leefe Brown and Wendell Drefke seems to be enjoying their forfeit

As do Tillie and C. A. I wonder just how many dimes were paid that night? Not many, betcha.

How did this picture get in here? It is of the T Association dance. Notice the boy stags along the edges, there weren't any of those at the Press Club stomp.

Siddie Hoepfner and Tony Kunitz oblige the camera man, but Tony seems to be indifferent!

Unforgettable Dance Highlights

What's this! Maestro George Jean seems to be taking the limelight away from Jake Stephens — but not for long.

The Homecoming dance and Jake Stephens orchestra again.

The T Association informal at Loftin Hall with petite Claire Louise Johnson and Herbie Johnson swinging out.

Homecoming dance again. See Exes Camille Terrell, Jack Pate, and Charlotte Ilfrey.

Another shot of the T Association dance with Mulcahy and date sharing the spotlight with Melton and Bell.

The Alpha Sigma presentation dance in Loftin Hall with President Mildred McDaniel formally announcing Betsy Kidder as a pledge and little sister.

A view of the Delta Theta sorority presentation dance in the gym. Ruth McRoberts presenting Inez Sterling to the A&I student body.

Engineer Sweetheart and Lantana Queen Elizabeth Jester on the evening of her presentation by Engineer President Hal St. John.

"Yea Man," It's Homecoming

The famous A&I A Cappella Choir hold their annual reunion breakfast and songfest Sunday morning of homecoming. The administration building makes a picturesque background.

President Loftin entertains the exes at a tea on Saturday afternoon in his home. Freshman officers Inez Sterling and Norman Thomas help receive.

Homecoming game and the bleachers are full.

See exes Dottie Byfield, Bob Evans and others in this picture as Mr. Ernst directs the Javelina band.

Coach "Bud" McCallum gives a pep talk and victory threat to the student assembly.

Exes Harriett Kidder, Thelmarie Shellenberger, and Hudson Matlock. Hi and Hudson, former editors of the annual, have a pow-wow at the east entrance of Cousins Hall.

Henry Javelina and guards make an appearance at the bonfire preceding the game.

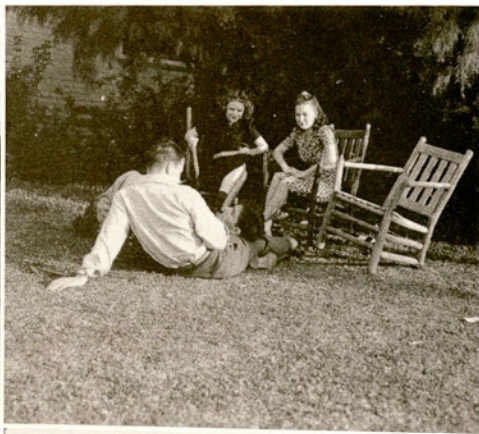

The Homecoming assembly with the Beta Gamma exes occupying the first two rows and singing the Javelina Victory March. Is that someone reading a magazine? Throw her out!

The flashy majorette of the San Marcos Bobcat band as they march up the main street of Kingsville from the special train.

Re - Lax - In'

"The Unholy Seven" hold their regular meeting on the lawn back of Cousins Hall. They are Yakey, Heisermann, Gipe, Gates, Taylor, Barnhart, and Simmons.

Freshmen Wimbish and Harper seem interested in a coupla members of the male sex, namely V. Savage and DeLay.

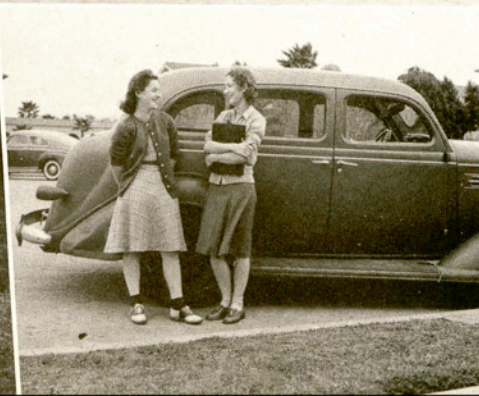

Tennis player Bruce Kellam, "Siddie" Hoepfner, Lobby Dietz and Queen "Liz" Jester enjoy the spring air in front of the Ad building.

Lantana Lady Betty Jo Lyon flanked with two admirers, Bobby Wood and Tony Kunitz, taking an after-dinner walk around the girls' dormitory.

The noon rush crossing the street by the Te-Jac. Bobby Davis, Govie Waller included.

Next year's associate editor of The South Texan, Kathryn Roberts, and class vice-president Curtis Reagan snapped talking by the shrubbery in front of the main entrance.

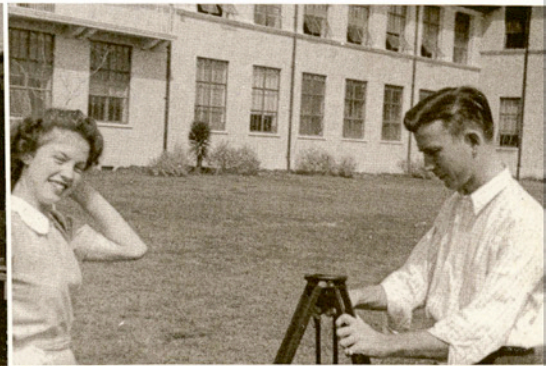

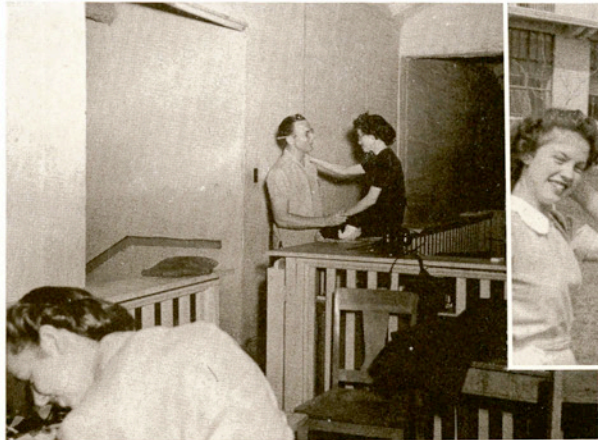

What do you have to say for yourself, Ben? Did you have to tickle Jean's foot to get her to smile? Jerry seems to be enjoying it, too.

Lantana Lady Margaret Williams and that gal Sid-d'e again posing for a snapshot by the editor.

Work and Play Thru the Day

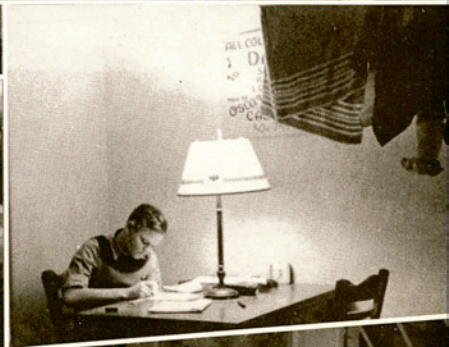

What's going on here!
Is this the publications office?
Casanova Dub at it again.
My, My!

Vivacious Betty Platt poses for Simpson and is snapped before Simp even gets the camera set up by some camera fiend.

The Te-Jac again and Footballers Taylor, Arnold, Hall, and Cousins Hallers McKinney and Holley caught between classes.

This must have been posed. Who ever heard of a Seale Hall resident studying!

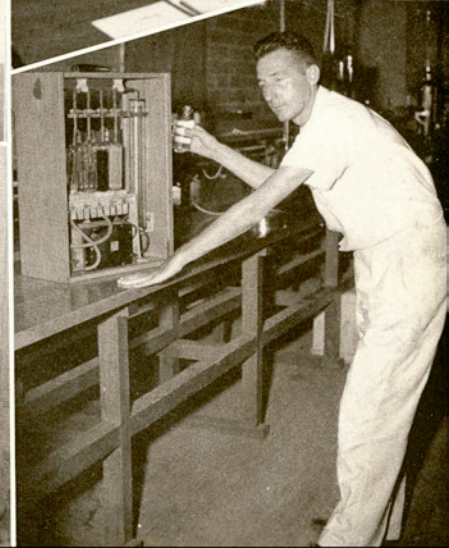

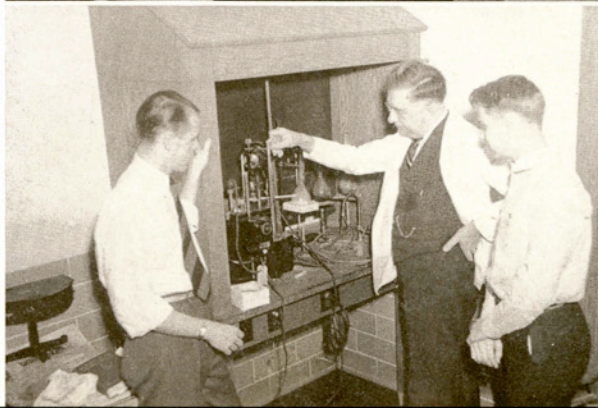

O. D. Walraven and colleague messing around in the Chemistry laboratory.

Keith Anderson snapped in the business office busily checking over the reports.

Dr. Nierman demonstrates the workings of this apparatus to Bill DuBose and Vernon Freiley.

Dr. Dotterweich looks unusually happy in this picture. Perhaps he is thinking of ending it all by drinking the contents of that little bottle, or perhaps he already has tasted it.

Memories that Never Fade . . .

The Sea Hag in person, or is it Hell Week victim Kathryn Jean? She looks so vicious to be a Freshman, doesn't she?

The Kappa Sig pledges pray for rain and it looks like they got it out of Florence Spears' corner room in Cousins Hall and it wasn't even Saturday. They got a bath free.

Here the Kappa Sigs are again singing at the dormitory Hallowe'en party. That's Ellic Melton playing the piano and it was the only musical part.

The Kappa Sigs are still getting a bath and can be seen making a bee line for the boys' dorm after their prayers were answered.

No, they didn't make it to the dorm because here they are sitting on the lawn in front of Loftin Hall, bedraggled, drenched and all.

Are you calling hogs or praying for rain, Frank? We thought it was supposed to be the latter.

Neither Will These

The Delta Sig pledges entertain the crowd at a basketball game with their backward antics.

Alpha Sigma pledges Jan Gregg, Eloise Taylor, and Helen Gates gleefully smile for the photographer in their best attire.

The Delta Sigs hobo party with Delta Sig D. C. Cryer giving a dirty look to someone. Is that supposed to be a fire they're starting there?

Sam McBurnett digging for sand crabs at another fraternity party, or perhaps he is just washing his hands.

Freshman and Delta Sig pledges V. Savage and class President Norman Thomas proudly displaying their cereal-bowl haircuts to the A&I student body.

Wonder who the subjects are in this picture. Anyway it's rather romantic. Wonder where this place is?

The Delta Sig beach picnic with all members practically hidden by the trees. What was the photographer doing up in the tree anyhow?

They listen to a guitar entranced by the inspiring music.

Khakis Are the Rage

The National Guard unit that was stationed here during the first part of the year occupies this page. Little did most of these boys realize when they joined the National Guard that they would be changed into the Regular Army of the U. S., but they don't seem to mind.

The camp was held on the race track of the college and the boys from college and from surrounding territory came.

What a thrill for the girls on the A&I campus when these extra boys came into town, some with pretty new cars.

Just what a'l this apparatus is on this page, go to your nearest recruiting station and find out. We don't know!

Hurry! Hurry! It's the Engineer's Carnival! . . .

Shots of the engineers' carnival with Professors Peurifoy and Richtman playing bingo. Look at the prizes on the table in the center.

Wonder what the result was? The crowd is tense and the wheel of fortune spins round and round, and where she stops, I hope it's my number.

The penny-throwing game at the same carnival and money was lost by all.

The Gas House gang at the Engineers' Carnival? Methought it haunted the football games only.

The bingo table again with Engineer Mulcahy selling boards to anyone interested.

Sterling Rhea watches as the weight guesser misses again on the young lady's weight so she gets a cane, for ladies only.

What's this? Surely it isn't pink elephants floating around over the crowd at the Te-Jac. Mr. Porter might be trying to scare them off as the crowd gathers around the interesting marble tables.

Here's that wheel again with Bill Dubose working the controls.

From All the Campus

Daisy Mae and Li'l Abner pose in a cotton patch, or is that the flower garden behind the dormitory? Don't tell me that Pat is praying for rain.

The True Twins, Bishop's addition to the campus, are snapped walking out of the administration building. Can you tell them apart? The names are Alene and Irene.

Alpha Sig president, Mary Ellen Osborn, just about to mount for an afternoon canter.

Coming from the Te-Jac up the east sidewalk are seen Dorothy Steinberg and Herbie Johnson.

Dayle Chaudoin hangs on as Mary Martin takes him for a spin on roller skates—such energy Mary.

Dub seems to be interested in some article in that magazine. Too bad we can't read the name. Wonder where his usual bunch of girls friends are.

Tita Bryan and Vernon Savage seem to be ignoring the couple on the left. My, those are pretty socks you have on, Savage.

Dorothy Ruth Landrum and Herbie Johnson having a heart-to-heart talk about something or other, we didn't get close enough to hear.

All Kinds O' Sessions

Norman Thomas presides over the Freshman Council meeting at Miss Edith Cousins' home.

This is the Girls' Council and they all seem to be interested in something that Kathryn Roberts is writing on that notebook.

Sunday afternoon and Cousins Hallers enjoy the music of Ellic Melton until time for quiet hour. Hansard, Davis, Wahler, Rhinehart, Simpson and Ellic's head are seen.

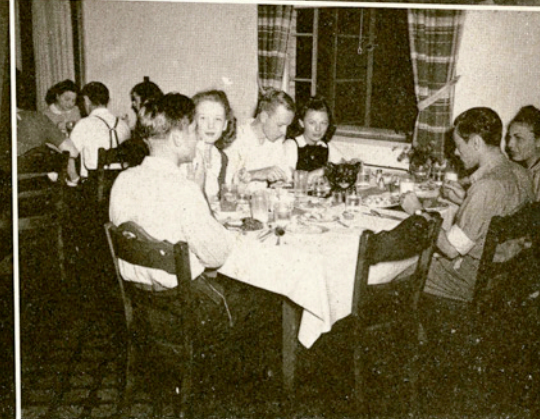

The governing board of Cousins Hall, the House Council at tea in Mrs. Littlejohn's reception room.

After the ball is over the clean-up crew takes over. Is that Jimmie Wheeler we see there in uniform? There's something about a soldier I've heard.

The dormitory Halloween party and Pinky Schliska could hardly resist turning his head all the way around to get a face in the picture. Porcher seems unconcerned.

This must have been posed, why the desk is so clean that it is actually shiny. Maybe Millican and Tally thought it could inspire someone.

A true study scene. One guy looking over your shoulder as you work the next day's problem no one but you knows how to do. Simpson it's a good thing the photographer didn't come in a little later.

What a Variety

A bit of in-between-class relaxing on the front steps of the administration building.

The Houston Business and Professional women make a tour of the college and the girls' dormitory. Judy Wahler, president of the dorm, is on the right, and—

Mrs. Annie Lee Littlejohn is the director of the dorm. She was snapped unawares, but a good subject, what say?

The newly inaugurated Freshman-transfer tea given to enable the students to know their teachers from a more personal point of view. Student President Stiegler, and Seale Hall Sponsor Charlie Simmons smile.

This is a camera fiend and just who it is nobody around here seems to know.

Another snapshot of the get-acquainted tea which proved to be quite a success.

A view of the radio shops newly inaugurated at A&I.

Dr. Manning and Jean Andrews seem to be amused at something, but Richard Rowe is indifferent.

It might have been the wallpaper in the other snapshot or something because Richard can smile. Perhaps the charming personality of Myrtle Wolfshohl had something to do with it.

Yes . . . and You Too

Professor of Art, Captain Bailey, was called to duty early in the year. Bill how'd you get in there?

The National Guard on duty, or off duty. The Simons girls seem to be the attraction this time.

Casanova Dub and Sid-die. Was this posed or not—it's really quite a common occurrence.

This attractive couple is from Corpus, Kathryn Bluntzer and Robert Porcher. She's pinned to him.

Queen Anna Lynn Porter faces the sun for a snapshot.

The usual combination of Jerry Bloxom and Ben Peek on the lawn of Loftin Hall.

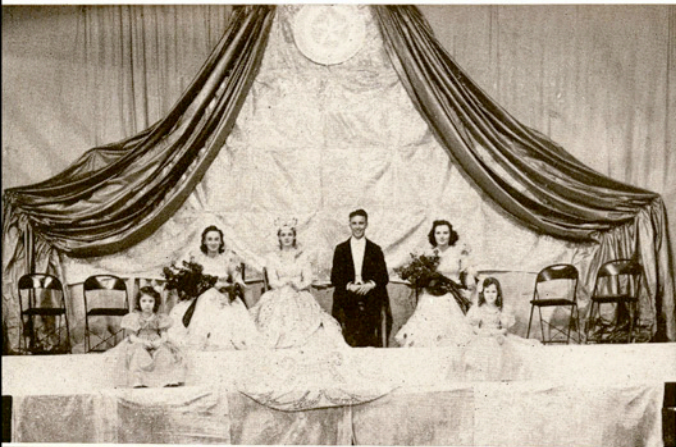

Looks like we got there a bit too late or a bit too early. Go on C. A.

Three members of the "Dirty Seven" and Mrs. Littlejohn in front of the dormitory.

Queen Elizabeth Reigns

All Hail the new court to reign over Texas A&I.

Queen Elizabeth and King Murrel are the center of attraction and are given a great ovation.

Former Queen Anna Lynn gives up the crown to the new ruler, Queen Elizabeth.

Ladies-in-waiting to the queen Billie Young and Ruth McRoberts in identical dresses precede the entrance of her majesty.

The old and new courts of the Lantana — truly a royal party.

Former Queen and King, Anna Lynn and Kenneth, smile as they reign for the last few minutes over the student body.

Spanish dancers and Alicia Krug, soloist, in a dashing Spanish number for her royal highness and court.

Smiling ladies-in-waiting to Queen Anna Lynn were Mary Martin and Muselle Stein.

Entertainment for the Court

Luncheon at Loftin Hall started the day off formally for the visiting college representatives Saturday of the coronation.

Dorothy Ruth Landrum spinning around in the Spanish dance she gave in honor of the new Queen.

Alicia Krug snapped at the close of her dance offering to the new Queen, a classic and then a jazz version of "Getting Sentimental Over You."

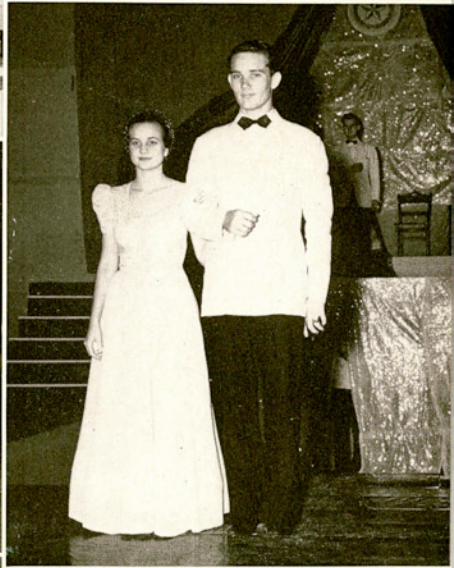

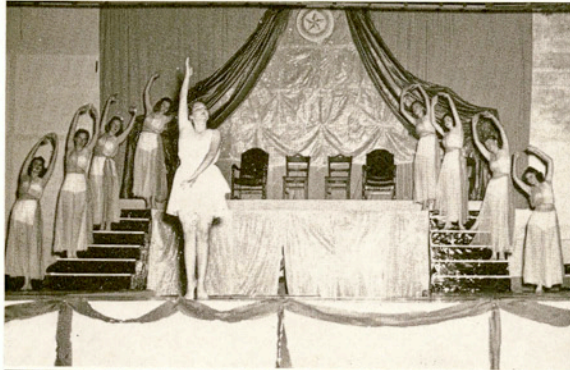

Delta Sig sweetheart and prexy pose for the photographer while they are being announced to the audience witnessing the coronation.

Members of the Spanish dance, notice the perky way Inez Simmons is holding her head.

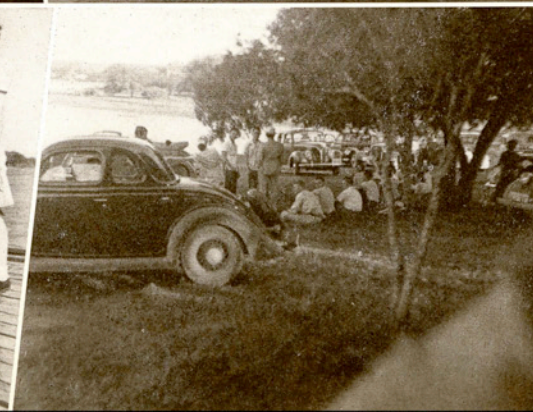

The two editors, Dub with Gipe, and Red with some other girl at the dance. Gipe looks as though she has only one leg. Just where is the other one?

An aerial view of the dance with the orchestra accompanying their soloist, Drew Reed Handley.

Methinks this picture was taken from the wrong angle, look at the tall masterful Mr. McCord made short and stumpy.

Pik-nik-ing With the Engineers . . .

On this page are scenes that will long be remembered in the hearts and thoughts of all engineers. Each year the club holds a picnic at Mathis Lake. The pictures on this page help to bring back memories of that day and other days similar to it. There isn't a better place for a picnic of this size. The picnic this year started Sunday morning and lasted till eleven that night. Nearly everyone went swimming and boat riding throughout the day. Dancing was the main attraction from dusk till closing time. To those engineers of next year and the future—don't miss the picnic. From the few pictures on this page you should be able to get some idea of the good time that you could have. Pik-necking, boat riding, swimming, relaxing, dancing, eating, and having a swell time; what more could you ask for? Because of the deadline that had to be met we could not run pictures of this year's picnic. Look for them in next year's annual.

Casual campus conversation, huh Vernon?

Why Porcher—tsk tsk—is that any way to treat li’l ol’ Doc?

Things are calm now, but wait 'til they get on the stadium. Stienke and Hillard.

Newton seems to be getting real humor out of the situation.

Time's a wastin', but who are we to care. Hey Bluntzer?

Jean and "Doc," talking things over in the sunshine.

Clinton's on his way to class. See the book?

Coming at you, that's Stienke.

Mrs. Jester is fun to talk to, isn't she, John?

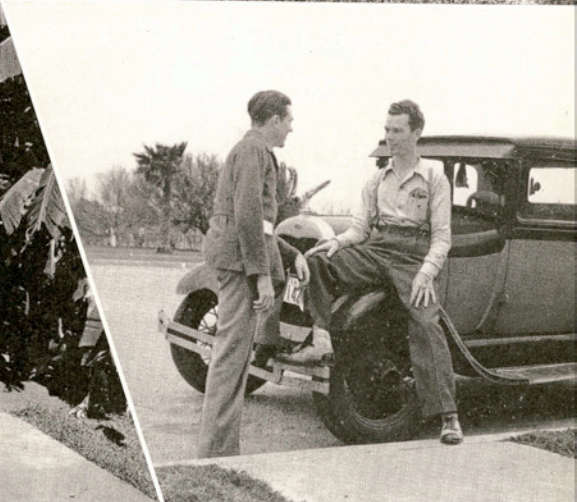

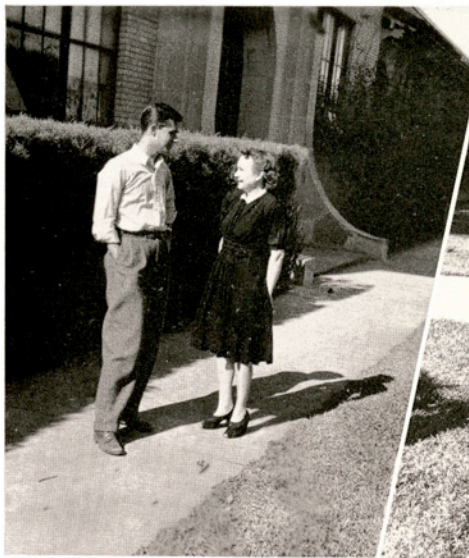

Between them, J. A. and Bill will get things settled.

Season's Honors to . . .

Don't look on these pages for an appropriate tribute to Bud McCallum. Mere written words cannot convey an accurate picture of the esteem he is held in by his friends.

Instead, ask one of his football players, or ask anyone who has frequent contacts with him. They'll tell you he is honest, fair . . . and much more.

This fall will be McCallum's 13th season since first coming to A&I in 1929 from Wichita Falls High School. In the 12 preceding seasons, his teams have captured or shared six titles—Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association or Alamo Conference. For four years the only defeats handed his teams were administered by Southwest Conference teams.

McCallum has never shied away from an opponent just a little tougher than the preceding one and he has imparted his fearlessness to his teams.

A. Y. (Bud) McCALLUM

STUART CLARKSON

Clarkson Named Little All-American Center

Climaxing a brilliant football season, Stuart Clarkson received the highest honor that can come to a "minor college" player—a position on Associated Press' Little All-American eleven.

Other honors won included being named best center in the Southwest and second best in the United States by Liberty Magazine and third in the nation by Harry Grayson of National Editorial Association.

For an unbiased, accurate description of Stuart's ability, listen to these opponents of the Javelinas:

"Best center I ever saw."—Glenn "Pop" Warner, coach of San Jose State.

"What a guy, that Clarkson."—John Kimbrough, Aggies fullback.

"Just remember this: when we scored, Clarkson wasn't in."—Rice Coach Jess Neely.

And something else to remember: Stuart returns this fall.

SEASON REVIEW

Winning six games and losing three, the Javelinas captured for themselves the title "toughest little team in the nation," and second place in the Alamo Conference.

They won from Coach McCallum the praise, "one of the best teams I ever had." Only a conference championship was lacking to prevent the Hogs from turning in one of the most glorious seasons in A&I football history.

Besides Stuart Clarkson, who made first string, five other Hogs received honorable mention for the Little All-America. They were Russ Jensen, Warren "Bubba" Arnold, J. P. Hilliard, Morris "Dick" Reese, and Francis "Sacks" Mattingly.

Four Javelinas were named first string All-Alamo Conference, and seven took second string honors. Ends Art Lang and Jensen, Center Clarkson, and Quarterback Johnny Vargo were elected to first string positions. On the second team were End Maurice Taylor, Tackles Cecil Evans and Dick Brannon, Halfbacks J. P. Hilliard and Gilbert Steinke, and Fullback Jack Rucker.

A&I Upsets San Jose, 10-0

San Jose State's Spartans were national scoring champions two years in a row; they had not been beaten since 1938; but A&I's giant-killing Javelinas evidently had been too busy to read the papers.

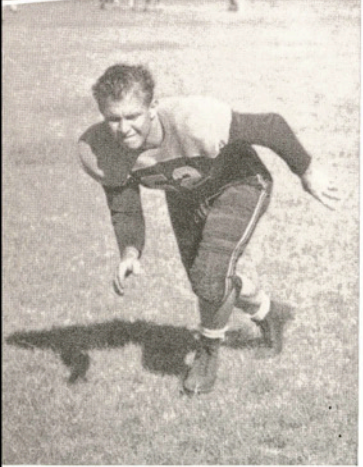

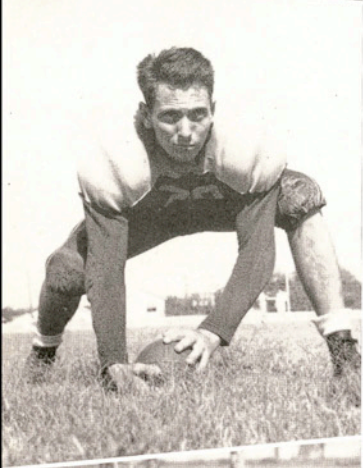

They went out to California to play the nation's first inter-sectional game of 1940 and in a driving rain handed the high-flying Spartans their first shutout since 1937, 10-0. San Jose went through the rest of the season without a loss.

Only once did the Spartans come near scoring. That was in the fourth period when they recovered a fumble in Javelina territory. The rest of the time the A&I forward wall was tackling Spartan ball carriers back of the line of scrimmage, so that San Jose's net gain of the game was eight yards.

To Johnny Vargo went the honor of scoring the first touchdown of the 1940 season. After Mattingly and Steinke had worked the ball down to the 6-yard line in the second period, he went across on a sneak that the Californians are still trying to figure out. J. P. Hilliard added the extra point and later, in the fourth period, place kicked a field goal.

Despite A&I's advantage in the net gain department—136 to 8—first downs were four apiece.

A&M Downs Hogs, 26-0

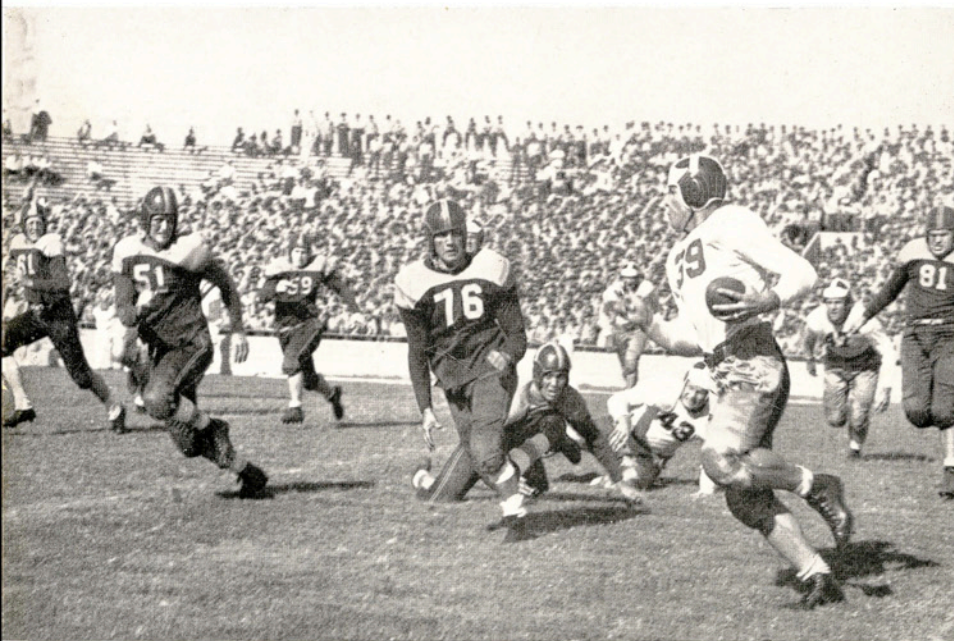

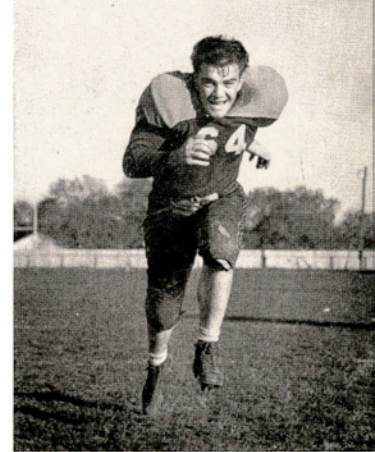

A&I battled gallantly against the A&M Aggies Sept. 26, but the Aggies turned on the power that made them national champions the year before to chalk up a 26-0 triumph before 11,000 at Kyle Field.

Jarrin' Jawn Kimbrough scored on a short run in the first quarter after a Hog punt was blocked and Bill Connatser crossed a few minutes later, Kimbrough's 57-yard runback of a punt setting up the score. In the second quarter an interception gave Kimbrough the chance to plunge over from the Hog 8-yard line to make the score 19-0.

The Javelinas fought the Aggies to a standstill most of the last two quarters, only to have a quick-kick push them deep in their own territory. Twice the Hogs punted from behind their goal and twice they held the Aggies. But finally Thomason took a pass from Marion Pugh and traveled 46 yards with the final score.

A&I's defense performed well and had the Blue and Gold attack functioned better the score would have been closer. The Hog offense was crippled early in the game when Gilbert Steinke went out with a twisted ankle.

First downs favored A&M 11 to 2.

Hogs Nose Out Kats, 7-6

The Javelinas next went to Huntsville, Oct. 12, where the previously unbeaten Sam Houston Bearkats gave them several scares before succumbing 7 to 6.

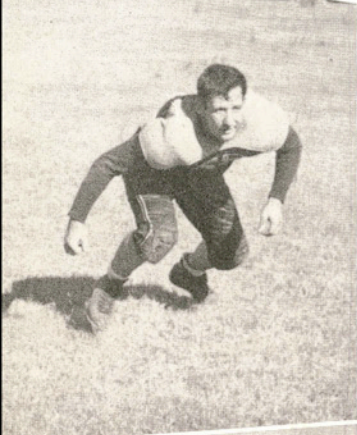

A&I's touchdown came in the second quarter. After Jack (Red) Rucker's coffin corner punts had put the Bearkats in a hole, Tuger Hall took a Kat punt on the 47 and raced 37 yards to the Houston 10, where he was tackled. Just before hitting the ground he lateraled to Russ Jensen, who scooped up the ball and trotted across. J. P. Hilliard added the vital point.

A long pass and a roughness penalty in the third period gave the Kats a first down inside the Hog 5-yard line, from where Jimmy Hair slipped across. The kick for point was wide.

Late in the game the Kats blocked a punt and advanced to the Hog 11, where a field goal attempt went wide.

First downs favored Sam Houston 11 to 6, but the Hogs were on the long end in net gains, 131 to 98.

SWTTC Goes Down, 19-12

A&I's game against Southwest Texas Teachers (San Marcos) proved to be a double homecoming celebration—for the ex-students, who helped swell the crowd to over 5,000 and for the Javelinas, who were playing their first game of the season on their own gridiron.

The Hogs felt so good about it that the Bobcats were sent back to San Marcos with a 19-12 loss, their first of the season.

A&I scored in the second quarter, when Mattingly climaxed a 41-yard drive by bucking over the right side of the line from two yards out. In the third period Steinke raced 23 yards around left end for the second Hog touchdown and Hilliard ran across from the 7-yard line for another.

Late in the game the Javelina line held the Bobcats for four downs within the A&I one-yard line, and began to work the ball upfield. Then the fireworks began. Ted Haese, San Marcos back, recovered Mattingly's fumble in mid-air and raced 44 yards for a score. After repulsing another drive the Hogs fumbled in their own territory and Laxon connected with Haese for another touchdown on a play good for 35 yards.

Sighs of relief were heard when the game ended a few plays later.

A&I outgained the Bobcats on land, 171 yards to 76, but the visitors had supremacy in the air, 118 to 20.

Watch Out! Gilbert Steinke's on his way.

Hogs Swamp Hillbillies, 38-6

Clearly the favorites for the first time, the Javelinas awakened from a drowsy first half to swamp Daniel Baker 38 to 6 here October 19.

Steinke's 30-yard punt return and Elmo Hilburn's run of 10 yards gave the Hogs a six-point lead in the second quarter, but the Hillbillies tied it up on a freak play. A punt bounced off the back of a Hog blocker and across the goal, where Melvin Storm, Baker tackle, fell on it for a touchdown.

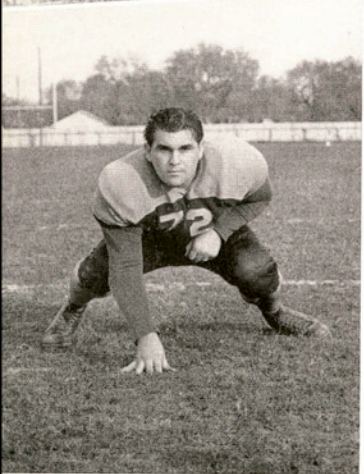

For most of the first half it looked as if the Javelinas were going to let the pre-game newspaper stories do their playing.

But Coach McCallum woke them up during the intermission and they came back strong. Maurice Taylor recovered a fumble on the kickoff on the Billy 19 and Mattingly slanted off tackle for the tie-breaking score.

Mattingly plunged over for another, and Steinke raced 65 yards to give the Hogs their fourth touchdown. Hilburn circled end again to make the score 26-6. Late in the game Leonard Hasenstab tossed to Jensen for the final score.

Baker never went past their 35 in the final period. A&I made 14 first downs to the visitors' one, outgained the Hillbillies 293 yards to 36.

Another Hog Score. This almost became monotonous.

Hogs Play Rice, Lose, 9-6

Had the timekeeper's gun gone off two seconds before it did, the Javelinas would have stunned sports experts by tying the Rice Owls 6 to 6; however, in that space of time Bob Brumley kicked a field goal to give the Southwest Conference team a 9-6 victory in Houston.

Hilliard sent A&I fans into hysterics early in the third quarter when he turned in a dazzling 72-yard run for a touchdown, giving the Hogs a 6-0 lead. He feinted a right tackle, then swept wide around end and straight down the sideline untouched.

But Rice came back immediately with a devastating ground attack. Featuring line-ramming by Whitlock Zander they marched back following the kickoff from their own 29 to the A&I 15. Then Zander broke through the line, lateraled to Ted Weems, who went wide, and the score was tied.

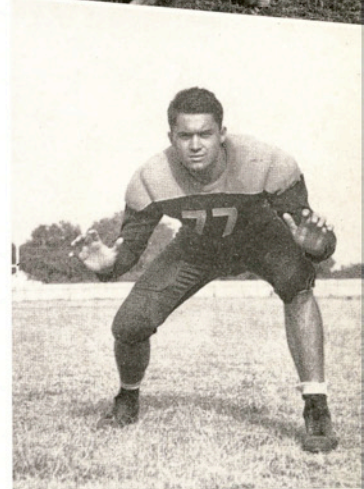

Except for the final minute of play, the Owls never had the ball in Hog territory during the fourth period. A&I came near scoring twice in that quarter. Steinke raced 38 yards and was tackled with only 19 yards of open field between him and the Rice goal. Vargo intercepted a pass and ran to the Owl's 24. Both threats bogged down, however.

A&I gained 160 yards by land to Rice's 120. First downs favored the Owls 10 to 7.

Nearly everybody is lying down, and so is Mattingly—over the goal.

A&I marched back the third period kickoff 60 yards to the visitors' five-yard line but fumbled. However, Steinke raced back a punt 35 yards to the Austin one-foot line, and Mattingly leaped over a mass of tacklers for a touchdown.

Tackle Cecil Evans and Guard Roscoe Maris sabotaged an Austin punt attempt and Mattingly did some vicious ramming to put the ball on the Austin 10-yard line early in the fourth period. Hilliard then worked an in-and-out play for another touchdown.

A slamming, twisting 24-yard run by Mattingly and two lengthy sprints by Hilliard enabled the latter to duplicate his previous scoring play, this time from the one.

Hogs Whip Rattlers 14-0

Two sparkling runs and stellar defense play featured the Javelinas' 14-0 triumph over the St. Mary's Rattlers in the annual grudge game in Alamo Stadium, San Antonio, Nov. 16. A special train carrying A&I students and the band was sent. Steinke zipped 25 yards around left end on a tricky reverse for a first-period touchdown and duplicated the same play in the second period, this time racing 53 yards untouched. Hilliard and Rucker added the extra points.

For the rest of the game except for a last-minute drive, the Hogs settled down to throwing back Rattler ball carriers. When the A&I forward wall finished with the unorthodox formations of the Rattlers, the coast-to-coast aggregation was 26 yards in the hole on rushing plays.

In the first half, the Rattlers got to the Hog 10-yard line and ended up on the 30. Late in the game they made a first down on the 10, gained to the 5, and gave over on the 8.

Yardage gained favored A&I 280 to minus 26, and the Javelinas led in first downs, 13 to 8.

Buffaloes Plus Blizzard Prove Too Much For Hogs, Lose 26-6

In one of the worst blizzards ever to hit Canyon, a great, rugged crew of West Texas Buffaloes captured the Alamo Conference championship by upsetting the Javelinas 26 to 6, November 23.

Most of the players were forced to wear gloves in the sub-freezing weather. Because of the mist and sleet which swept the field throughout, and the mud, the players were indistinguishable from the stands.

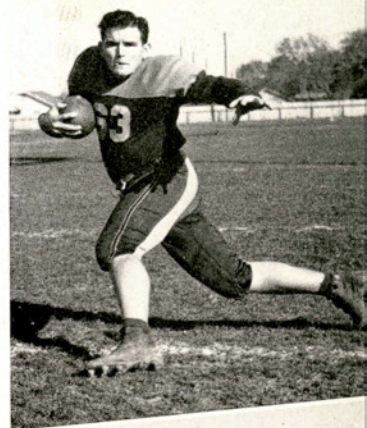

Following the opening kickoff the Buffs marched down to the A&I 24-yard line, where Ben Collins threw a touchdown pass to Eugene Brandon. In the second quarter, after a short punt against the gale, the Buffs advanced to the five and Eugene Brock plunged across.

The Hogs then finally clicked. Vargo ran back the kickoff to midfield. Mattingly then smashed his way on five tries to the Buff 34, when he was hurt and had to see the rest of the game from the sidelines along with Clarkson and Reese, who sustained early injuries.

Then Hall raced 14 yards to the 20. Leonard Hasenstab hurled two passes, and the second was complete, to Jensen, who carried the ball over from the 6-yard line.

In the second half a short run by Collins and a 77-yard dash by Larry Sanders gave the Buffs two more touchdowns.

Highlights of the Season

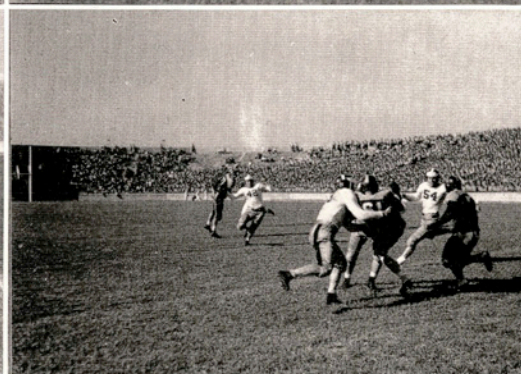

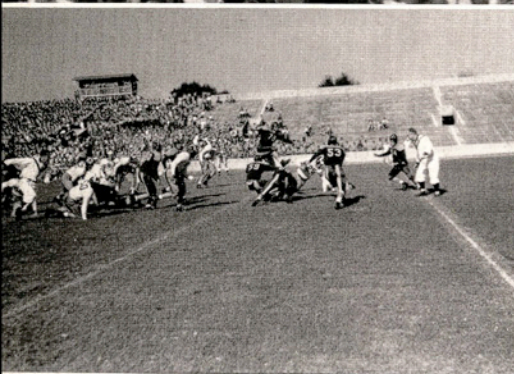

Russ Jensen getting braced to stop A&M's Marion Pugh swinging around right end . . . and Sacks drifting over just in case.

Not a breadline, even though it's just about as long . . . one of the reasons A&M didn't have to worry about wearing itself down.

Aggies complete a pass, and the Javelinas rush over to cover up . . . while J. P. dodges a downfield blocker.

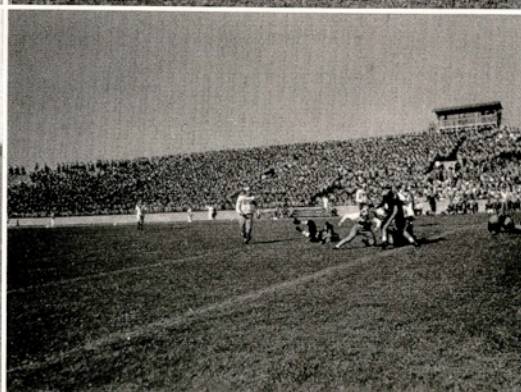

An Aggie's down after a gain around right end . . . Evans and Clarkson are coming over to make sure he doesn't get up too soon.

A&M's Spivey is through the line, but Vargo, Rucker, Clarkson, and Hilliard are assuring him he won't get any farther.

A&I completes a pass . . . to Hall . . . who's promptly surrounded.

That's Jarrin' Jawn who's been stopped . . . over the A&I goal line, unfortunately — you can get up now, Johnny.

Clarkson intercepts an A&M pass, but the Aggies don't appear any too enthusiastic about his going any place with the ball.

Highlights of the Season

There goes Elmo Hilburn on a hip-swinging journey around left end against San Marcos, while Reese—or is it Steinke?—leads interference.

Mattingly gets loose, banging a few Bobcat defense men around in the process . . . while Dick Reese looks on from the ground.

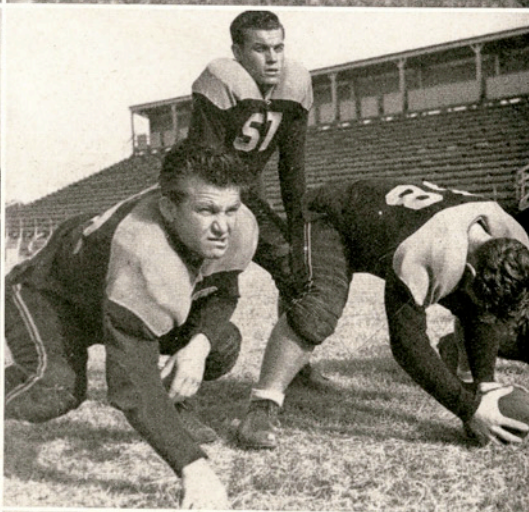

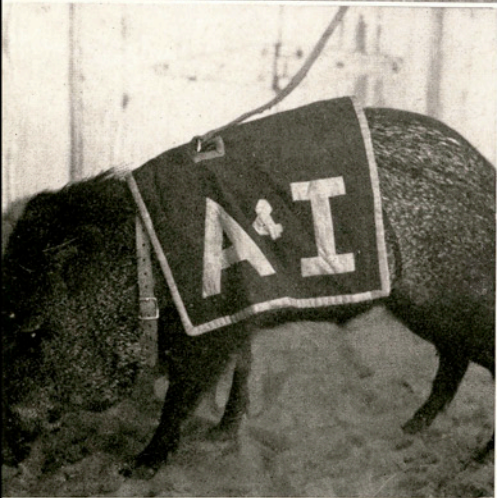

Here are those cheerleaders again . . . This time it's A&I Band that furnishes the background.

Three Bobcats are near him, but don't worry; they didn't touch him, for that's Gilbert Steinke racing 23 yards around end for a touchdown.

These three did get Red Rucker . . . but not until after he had pushed them back quite a ways.

Little scenes like this mean football games . . . as J. P.'s toe told the Sam Houston Barkats.

Highlights of the Season

They must have caught on to this one . . . they've got Steinke covered like a blanket.

Jensen's clearing the way for Hilliard's 36-yard run against the Bobcats.

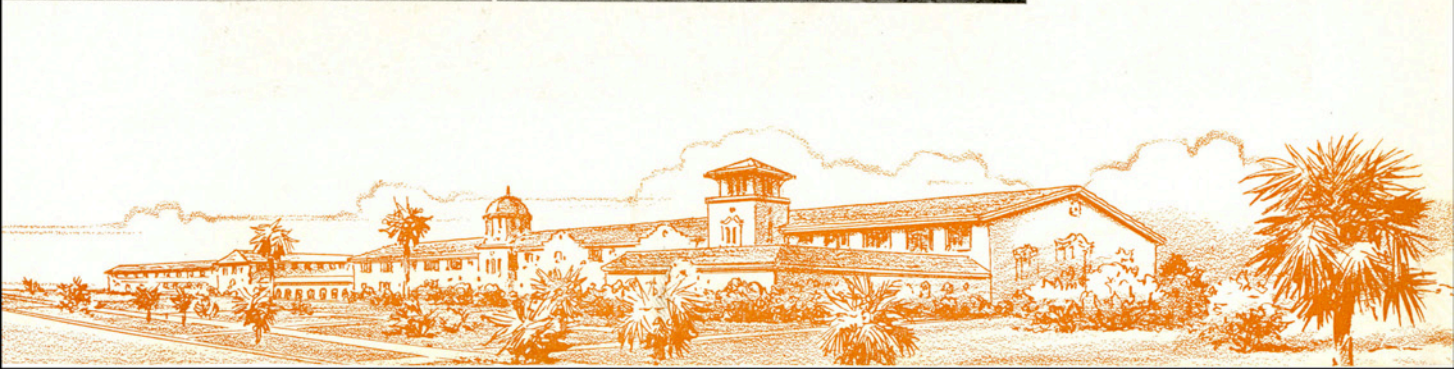

Hall gets off a pass during practice, while the Hog line and Mattingly show the second-stringers they just aren't supposed to mess things up.

Henry looks a trifle gentle in this picture, but he can become mighty riled up . . . like his namesakes.

Signals . . . Rucker over the ball, Bear calling, and Reese ready to tear into the first would-be tackler. Ooh, what a face he's making! That ought to scare them off.

Seven Rattlers are on their feet, and it looks like pretty soon J. P. won't be on his.

J. P. and Skippy just can't make up their minds what to do with the ball . . . or who is to do the doing.

Basketball 1941

Although winning only seven games as contrasted with 11 losses, the A&I Javelina basketball team compiled a better record than it did the year before and gave fans a good show of fighting spirit even when going down in defeat.

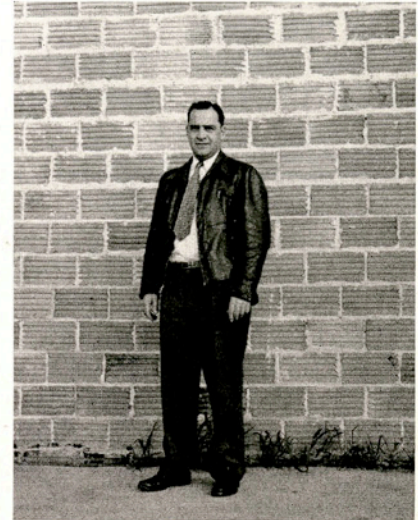

With only a week of practice, the Javelinas clashed with the Brownsville Junior College Scorpions here and came out on top 40 to 25. Stokely Holmes sank 13 points to take high point honors.

Next on the schedule were the Ingleside Humble Oilers. Last season the Oilers took the Javelinas into camp by a large margin, but this time A&I humbled the Oilers 51 to 29.

A&I entered an invitation tournament at San Antonio during the Christmas holidays, but that's about all—although they did give Stephen F. Austin, one of the state's strongest teams, a terrific battle.

Starting the new year off right, the Hogs swamped the Daniel Baker Hillbillies 41 to 19. Everyone on the squad saw action that night, and the score was rather evenly divided. Lawrence scored nine points, Elliott made eight, and Holmes and Hall accounted for six apiece.

Humble was again taken into camp—this time 59 to 49. Van Noy sank 18 points, while Thompson was close behind with 14.

Basketball . . .

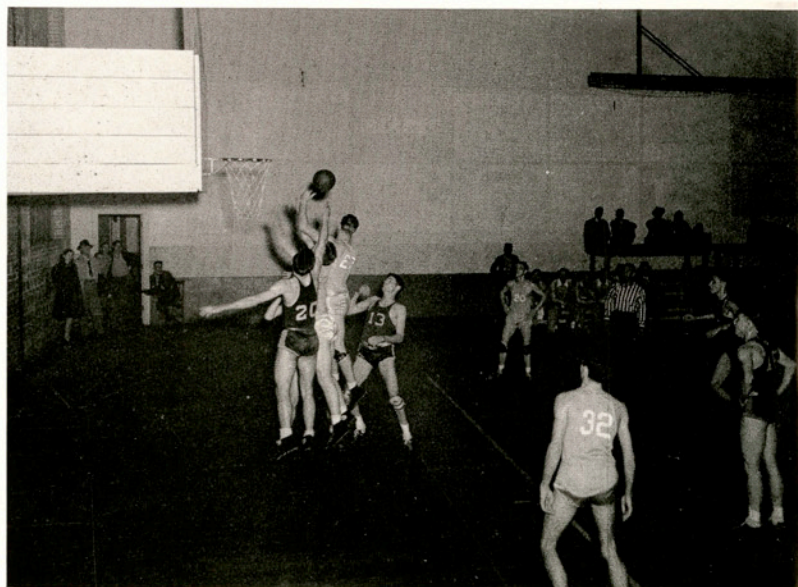

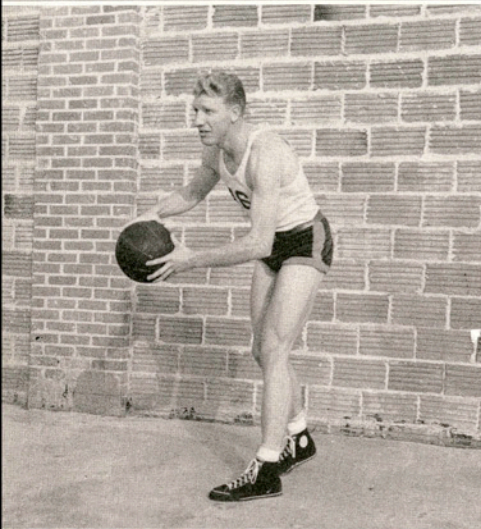

Then misfortune hit the Hogs. Two players were declared scholastically ineligible at mid-term, and Paul Elliott went out with a leg injury.

Sam Houston triumphed over the Hogs 48 to 33 here and when A&I returned the game at Huntsville it was almost a different story. The crippled Hogs battled the heavily favored Bearkats to a 40-40 tie with only seconds of play remaining, but Sam Houston sank two quick field goals to win 44 to 40. Stephen F. Austin took a 59-35 victory on the same trip.

"The tallest team in the nation," the West Texas Buffaloes, then dropped in. The Buffs were destined to win third in the national intercollegiate tournament, and, although they dealt the Hogs misery, A&I students turned out in large numbers to enjoy the finesse with which the human skyscrapers operated.

Score the first night was 73 to 26 in the Buffs' favor. Next night, however, occurred one of the most valiant and spectacular showings ever made by an A&I cage team.

Halftime score favored West Texas 31 to 17, and it looked as if the Buffs were going to march with ease right on over the Javelinas, perhaps even running up an even bigger score than the night before. Playing inspired basketball the second half, the Hogs not only held the Buffaloes scoreless for seven minutes but battled the West Texans point for point the rest of the game. Six foot three Curtis Lawrence's guarding of Charlie Halbert, 6, 10 center for West Texas, was a vital factor in the Hogs' defensive play. Each team added 19 points to its total to bring the total score to 50-36 in West Texas' favor.

Basketball . . .

A&I broke its losing streak of five games by trouncing the Edinburg All-Stars, Valley independent cage champions, 41 to 25 and beating the Freer All-Stars 53 to 48.

St. Mary's Rattlers next blew in for a series of two more Alamo Conference games. The Rattlers got off to good leads in both games, and although the Javelinas managed to tie it up late in both encounters, St. Mary's had enough strength left to win the pair—49-44 and 44-39.

A&I then began a disastrous road trip. St. Mary's was first on the list and the Hogs dropped two more games, 31-46 and 36-51. Daniel Baker had improved considerably and gave the Javelinas a good fight before the Hogs rallied to win 38 to 37.

West Texas was next. The first night the Javelinas accounted for a comparatively high number of points, 47, but the Buffs were in scoring mood themselves, chalking up 87. Next night West Texas set a new home scoring record over the Javelinas, who were perhaps still tired from the game the night before. Final score was 90-22 in the Buffs favor.

TRACK

A&I's track competition this season was rolled up into one event—the Fat Stock Show at Fort Worth, where the Javelinas attempted to defend football shuttle relay championship they captured the year before.

Being nosed out by a foot by 'Bama Smith, fleet A&M anchor man, the Javelinas finished second to the Aggies. A&I did not lose any glory in the race, since the time was 43.4 seconds, a full second under the meet record. Texas Tech finished third, and University of Texas came in fourth.

A picture of this year's championship team was not available at press time in the 1941 El Rancho, and the winning quartet is seen above. They are Maurice Henry, Tuger Hall, Manager Bill Terry, J. P. Hilliard, and Gilbert Steinke. Henry was graduated last year, and his place in the quartet was taken by Harvey Manley.

With the Racqueteers

ANDY HUNTER, BOBBY DIETZ, BOB GRIFFITHS, BRUCE KELLAM, and ROBERT BOST

Although results of the Alamo Conference tennis tournament, played here March 10, are not included because of an early deadline, A&I's racketeers set a hot pace in practice competition.

In their first two practice meets, the Javelinas dropped only two individual matches out of 13—and neither of the losses was by a player ranked above No. 3 on the squad. Texas Wesleyan fell, 6-1, in the season's first competition, in Fort Worth, and the Javelina netmen took care of the University of San Antonio, 5-1, in the Alamo City.

Rankings at the time of the San Antonio matches were Bruce Kellam, No. 1; Bob Griffiths, No. 2; Robert Bost, No. 3; Frank Whitson, No. 4; and Andy Hunter, No. 5. Rankings did not include Bill Johnson, who had just returned from his practice teaching.

Last season, the A&I team finished second to St. Mary's in the Alamo Conference.

Bobby Dietz displays his forehand.

EDWARD EADS, COACH C. WILSON RANDLE

Stymied by a deadline, El Rancho cannot list the results of the Alamo Conference golf tournament. However, at press time the A&I golfers were showing up well and gave promise of securing honors in the meet.

To start off the season, Edward Eads captured third place out of a field of 60 entered in the long drive contest at the Fort Worth Stock Show. The team finished seventh in the stock show tourney.

Then they took care of Texas Wesleyan and Stephen F. Austin. At Fort Worth the score favored A&I $9\frac{1}{2}$ to $8\frac{1}{2}$ over Wesleyan. Snow, sleet, and rain did not keep the A&I linksmen from running over S. F. Austin $15\frac{1}{2}$ to $2\frac{1}{2}$ at Nacogdoches.

Brownsville Junior College nosed out the Javelinas 10-8, but the local golfers were preparing for revenge on the Kingsville course. Oso Beach Golf Club of Corpus Christi won a match over A&I there; however, the Javelina linksmen came back to even things up here. Worthington and Randle set a course record here in the best ball match, going around in 30-32-62, 10 under par.

Last year A&I tied with St. Mary's for the conference championship.

Review of Season

Steady, easy there, now. Coach C. Wilson Randle is getting ready for one of those long drives down the fairway as his squad looks on.

There it goes. And Coach Randle says, "See, boys, you're supposed to keep your head down—like this." By the way, did you ever see such rapt attention given a prof before? Maybe they're going to have a quiz on it.

And here's A&I's No. 1 golfer, Joe "Bo" Worthington, Jr., showing his teammates how he does it. Coach Randle stands by to render aid.

Debate

JIM E. REESE, HERBERT VOGT, ANN GRIMES, WESLEY SUMERLIN, ALLEN CROCKETT, BETTY JO FRY, MORTON CURTIS, MYRTLE WOLFSHOHL, RICHARD ROWE, and MARYON WALDMAN.

Debate was organized as an accredited course at A&I last fall as the first class meeting got under way during the opening week of school with J. E. Reese, debate coach. About ten students came to the first meeting but with some additions and several substractions the regular squad consisted of twelve official members during most of the season.

The question debated by A&I and almost all other American universities and colleges was: Resolved, That the Nations of the Western Hemisphere Should Enter Into a Permanent Union.

During the year the A&I squad entered two tournaments, one at San Marcos and one at Waco, and made several trips to San Antonio and Austin and one to Edinburg. The teams engaged in more than 45 intercollegiate debates against about 25 different schools, including colleges and universities in Oklahoma and Louisiana. Besides this, of course, there were intra-squad debates almost every week.

A&I entered three boys teams in the tournament at Southwest Texas State Teachers College in San Marcos and one boys and two mixed teams at the Baylor University tournament in Waco.

The squad initiated a proposal for the formation of a Southwest Debate Conference to include A&I, Southwest Texas State Teachers College, Sam Houston State Teachers College, the University of San Antonio, St. Mary's University, Southwestern University, St. Edward's University, and the University of Houston,

Debate

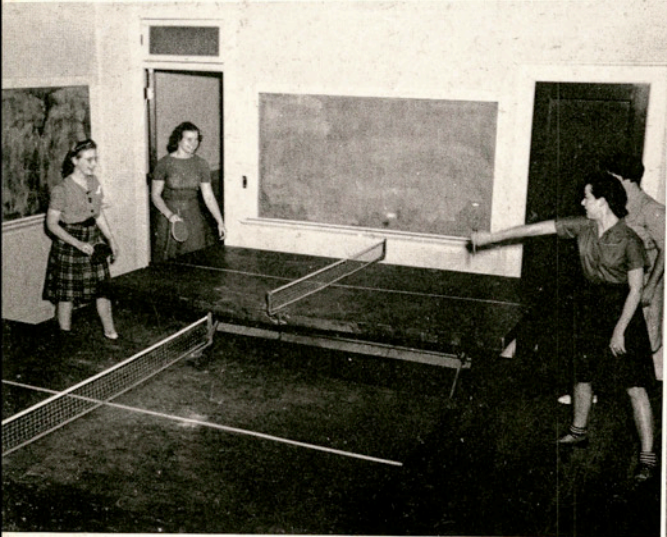

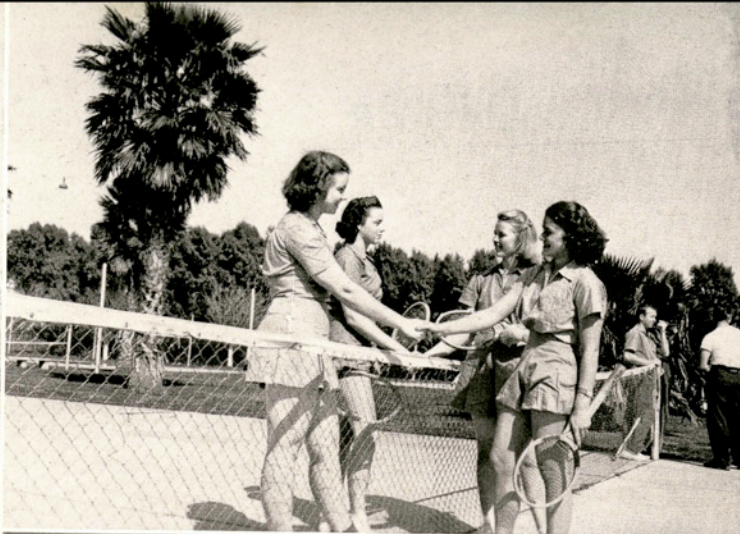

After the other colleges had expressed their interest, plans were laid for the formation of the organization next year. A constitution was drawn up and submitted to the other colleges for approval.

Members of the squad are Allen Crockett, president; Herbert Vogt, vice-president; Myrtle Wolfshohl, secretary; Richard Rowe, Morton Curtis, Bill Holmes, Wesley Sumerlin, Dave Martin, John Cadenhead, Betty Jo Fry, Maryon Waldman, and Ann Grimes.

New officers were elected in April to serve the following year. They were Myrtle Wolfshohl, president; Morton Curtis, vice-president; Bill Holmes, secretary; and Maryon Waldman, treasurer.

Eight of the twelve squad members expect to be back and working on debate next fall.

Women's Athletics

Freshman Marjorie Riley has not yet mastered archery as have upperclassmen Frances Meharg and "Red" Smith.

"Congratulations" say Marjorie Riley and Ruth Hubbert to Dorothy Steinberg and Vera Walsh.

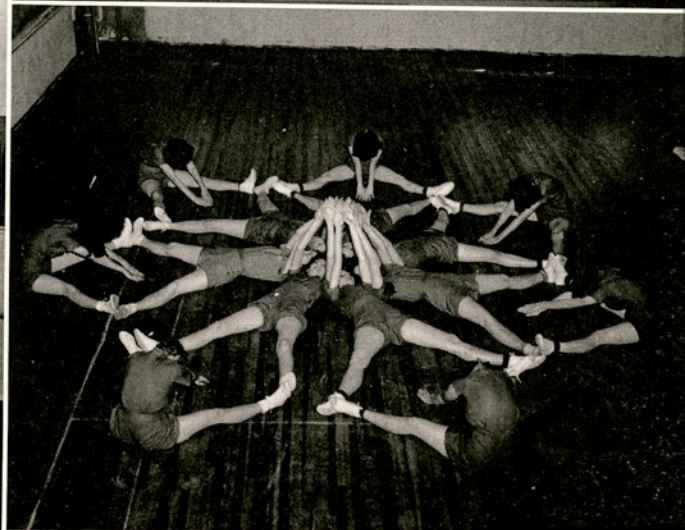

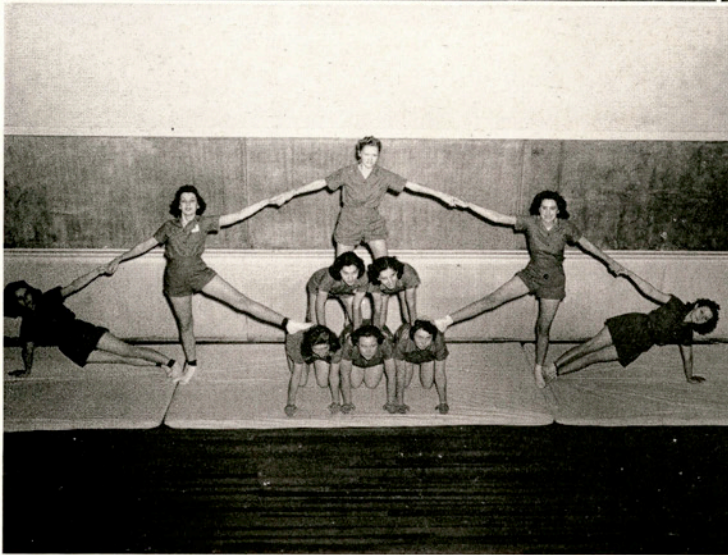

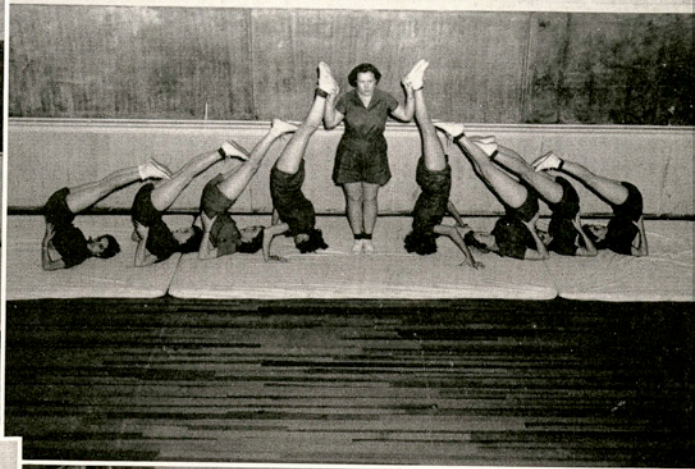

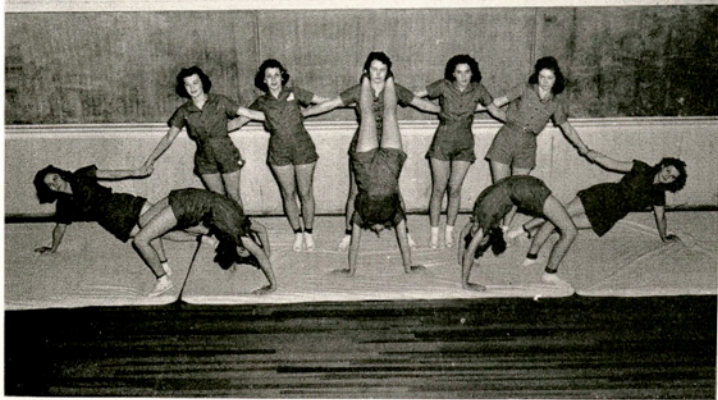

A favorite sport of the Physical Education Majors is table tennis.

Winners in a double round robin tournament in girls' intramural volley ball were the Spanish team.

The Women's Sports Association, sponsored by Miss Virginia Campbell, enjoy a variety of activities during the year—Annual Manless Dance—Christmas Party—Hay-Ride—Weekend Camp at Caroline Beach—also several hikes.

Although girls' intra-murals are open to any girls in school, the W.S.A. is sponsor of the intra-mural program including volley ball—in which 65 girls entered; table tennis—120 girls entered; darts—85 girls entered; lawn tennis—25 girls. The winners of each event received a medal.

Women's Athletics

A 4 weeks unit taught by Miss Betty Love Rugeley consisted of stunts of balance, relaxation, and strength; individual stunts; group stunts; elementary tumbling; and pyramid building—

1. "Hand" stand base—3 fan side—
2. Stunts "inverted positions"
 - (1) Headstand
 - (2) Shoulder-snail
 - (3) Snail
3. Combination "flop" and "fan"
4. Demonstration of "figure making"

Out of a field of 120 entrants, Annie Mary Beasley emerged champion of the girls table tennis.

She took a hard-fought, 8-21, 21-17, 21-19 victory from Marjorie Riley in the finals. Annie Mary vanquished the defending champion, Clara Belle Price, in the semi-finals, 21-19, 8-21, 21-16. Marjorie reached the finals by disposing of Mildred Meek, 21-17, 24-22.

1. Ruth Ballew and Grace Haertig demonstrating the "right" way to do the Schottische.

2. The "Schottische" must have been a favorite at this dance.

3. Julia Ann Hill and Janis Riggs chosen as best-dressed boy and girl—running them a close second are Miss Campbell and Miss McKenzie.

4. Lela Ruth Riggs looking them over.

After defeating their closest rivals, the McAda House and Goode House, the Spanish Club team won the intramural volley ball tournament.

Members of the winning team were Captain Lamar Gomez, Carmen Salazar, Andrea Sepulveda, Esmeralda Longoria, Odelia Alvarez, Evangelina Naranjo, Brijida Baldez, and Eva Garza.

Chosen most valuable to her team and best all-around player of the 70 girls who participated was Marjorie Riley.

Intramural

Hottest competition in the still-unfinished men's intramural athletic program at A&I, directed by Coach A. Y. McCallum, was in basketball, where the Aggies nosed out the Engineers in a thrilling playoff for the championship, three games to two.

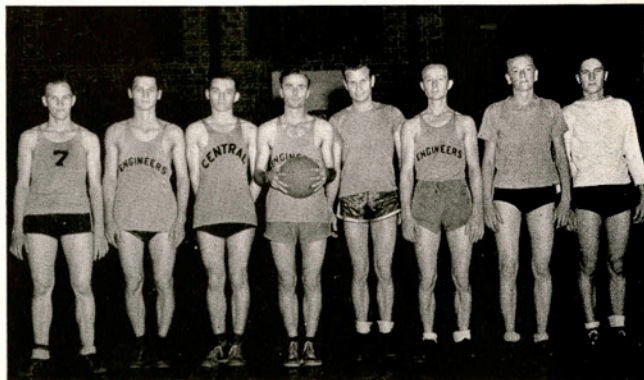

With neither team leading by more than three points, the Engineers downed the Aggies 34 to 31 in the first game of the playoffs. Kuykendall paced the winners with 12 points.

Completely reversing the tables, the Aggies swamped the Engineers 43 to 13 in the second game. Blahuta's 14 points gave him high point honors.

Twice in the deciding game the Engineers took decisive leads, but the Aggies came from behind, once overcoming a nine-point deficit, to emerge victorious, 28 to 25. Weekley sank 11 points to become high point man.

Travis Edwards of Flato House took high scoring honors for the season, nosing out Wilson of the Aggies, 123 to 121. An all-opponent team was selected. It included Edwards, Flato; Mullens, Engineers; Wilson, Aggies; Jones, Engineers; Blahuta, Aggies.

Other intramural sports included touch football, softball, table tennis, badminton, tennis, and track. Seven teams participated. They were Aggie Club, Engineer Club, Flato House, Amado Nervo Club, BBA Club, NYA, and Seale Hall.

Helen De Fratus, runner-up for Queen of the Lantana Court, has just been introduced to the student assembly.

Johnnie Ford has just said a few words about, and is now presenting Miss Elizabeth Jester to the student assembly. "Liz" is now our Queen.

Margaret and Siddie were finally snapped by a very persistent photographer. Really think that they enjoyed it.

Dick Reese is about to introduce one of the lovely young ladies behind him. It really is an honor to be one of the Lantana Ladies or the Queen of the Lantana Court.

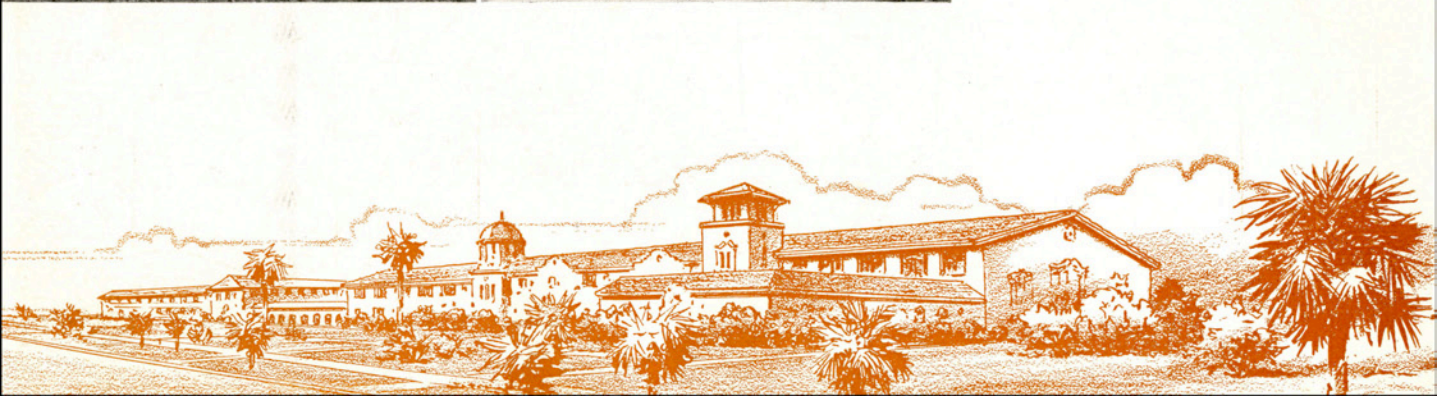

Helen Meyer and Dale Chaudoin take time out to play.

What did you say to Betty, Dick? Must have been good from the looks of the expression on her face.

More relaxin' — Bruce Kellam, Siddie Hoepfner, Bobby Dietz and Liz Jester seem to be enjoying the spring sunshine.

The night shift takes over for the forthcoming elections.

The nineteen students pictured on the next few pages represent the faculty selection of one per cent of the student body of A&I to be included in the Who's Who for American Universities and Colleges. They are chosen on the basis of scholarship, personality, extra-curricular activities, and the possibility of future usefulness to business and society.

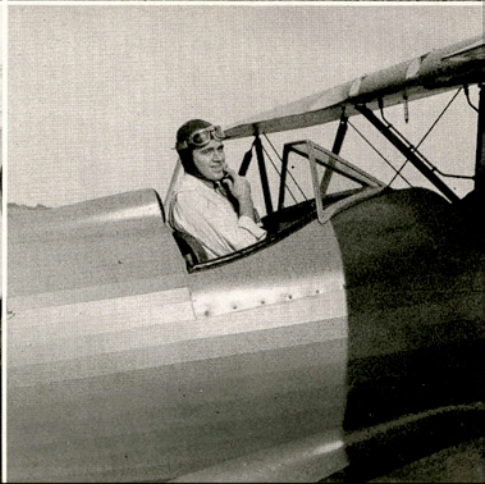

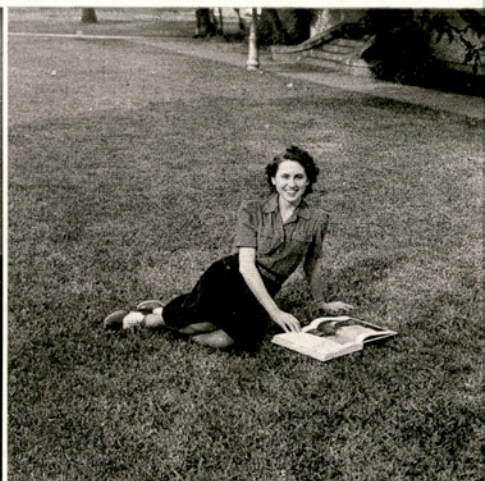

A complete list of students selected for Who's Who is as follows: Mrs. Harold L. Cook, Kingsville; Mary Felton, Corpus Christi; Vernon Freiley, Kingsville; Anita Gonzales, Robstown; Thomas Houser, Sinton; George Alice Jones, Kingsville; Helen Elizabeth Meyer, Atascosa; Charles Millikin, Beeville; Bryan Mullens, San Antonio; Clinton Murphy, Freer; Martha Neal, San Antonio; John Otto, Kingsville; Anna Lynn Porter, Freer; Robert Rasmussen, Kingsville; Janis Riggs, Skidmore; Murrell Stiegler, Hondo; Robert Sweet, San Antonio; Roberta Thomas, Corpus Christi; and Jane Thomerson, Kingsville.

Murrell Stiegler, genial jovial president of the Student Body—Aggie major and active member of Aggie Club and F. F. A.—yell leader—hails from Hondo.

Anna Lynn Porter, sincere and thoughtful—notices these two characteristics most in friends—queen of the college—a B. B. A. major by choice—drum majorette of the A&I Band—is a member of the Beta Gamma sisterhood.

Jane Thomerson, Kingsville student Home Economics major—member of Delta Sigma Nu and Kappa Omicron Phi, honorary sorority—"Loves chosen field of study and wouldn't change for the world."

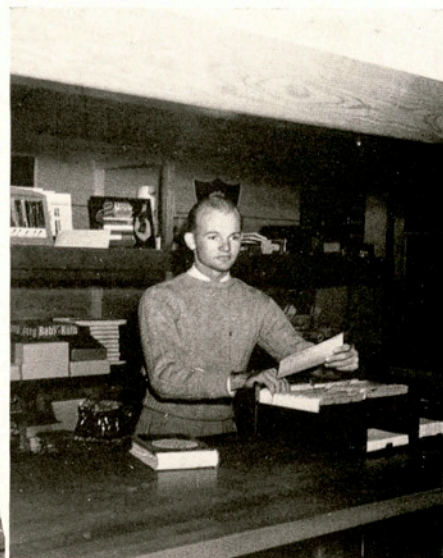

Robert Sweet, versatile general engineer—C. A. A. enthusiast—plays great part in musical organizations such as Male Chorus, A Cappella Choir, Band—is a member of Alpha Chi.

The Texas A. & I. Engineers Club was organized shortly after the engineering department was founded. Growing from its original twenty members, the club has become one of the largest and most outstanding organizations on the campus.

The primary purpose of the club is that of promoting good will and fellowship among the engineering students. Every odd Thursday during the school year, the Engineers hold their meetings which usually include some prominent speaker in the engineering field, or a motion picture showing latest developments in engineering.

The club takes an active interest in intramural sports, and this year distinguished itself in football, baseball, basketball, and track. For the past two years, the Engineers have won the highly coveted Intramural Championship Trophy.

Highlighting college activities are the annual Engineers Carnival and Banquet.

Beta Gamma

The Beta Gamma Sorority, organized in 1932 for the purposes of character building, creative living, and social development, is the youngest of the sororities in the school, yet its membership includes some of the most active leaders on the campus. This year's new members hold in their hands the future of the organization; and from the splendid cooperation and participation in all activities that the sorority has undertaken, a bright future is predicted. High as a goal for the sorority members is the established precedent in friendliness, scholarship, and leadership by members of the past years. And to the patronesses and sponsors who have helped make Beta Gamma the success that it is, we extend our sincere appreciation.

Delta Theta

The Delta Theta Sorority was organized in 1929 by a group of girls who planned to establish an organization that would supplement the social life of the girls of A&I. Specific purposes of the organization are the promotion of friendship among its members and the development of social grace. Its membership is limited to those who participate in school activities and whose qualities are scholarship, leadership and personality. Because of the high type of social events which they have sponsored and because of their thorough cooperation in college activities, the Delta Thetas have established an enviable reputation.

Voice of the Students

Texas A&I's student newspaper—published by and for the Student Body—the medium through which students express their thoughts and opinions as well as a newscast of campus affairs and matters of general interest to all. In the pages of the weekly issue are found a representation of the academic and social life of the students and faculty—written and edited by students.

Under its present editor and through the efforts of this and last year's staff, The South Texan has won wide acclaim in the field of journalism. Sponsored by Prof. O. M. Montgomery, head of A&I's journalism department and publicity director, the paper has twice been chosen as "The Best Edited Newspaper in Texas in the Class B Division," by the Texas Intercollegiate Press Association for the years 1939-'40; 1940-'41 and has in its possession two cups given for first place. Its sports editor has maintained a high level in the sports field by winning two first places in sports column and sports stories in this year's Texas Intercollegiate Press Association meeting in El Paso. Advertising by The South Texan business manager is also better than average, rating second place among the other schools of the Association. Editorial and general news column was awarded third place at the convention, proving that the staff of the paper is progressive and efficient.

It is the desire of The South Texan staff at all times to please the Student Body with the writing and editing of their newspaper. "The South Texan is your newspaper, use it," has long been the belief and attitude of the staff towards the Student Body.

And the Folks Who Worked . . .

Emphasis upon the informal, yet keeping the book very colorful and picturesque, has been our desire and the end toward which we have worked this year.

We have tried to present a very interesting, memorable, and entertaining record of the academic and social life of both the students and the faculty.

In the future years when you are reminiscing our desire will have been fulfilled if this book brings back pleasant memories of your college days.

The Editor's "Au Revoir" . . .

Having worked on the El Rancho for three years your editor must confess that a peculiar feeling, a mixture of joy and sadness, prevails as "Finis" is herein attached to this book.

I wish to at this time express my sincere appreciation and gratitude to the following individuals and companies for their help in giving you this annual.

Bill Murphree, sales manager, of Southwestern Engraving Company for his splendid cooperation, many ideas and suggestions, and the very efficient service of the company he represents.

Jack Cathey, photographer, for the excellent work done on the four-color Kodachrome pictures used as division pages, and the work done on the view and class sections of the book.

Kingsville Publishing Company and Universal Bookbindery, for their cooperation and diligent work in striving to turn out a very attractive annual.

Red Pryor, for the publicity received in The South Texan.

Mr. Montgomery and Mr. McCulley for their helpful suggestions and ideas.

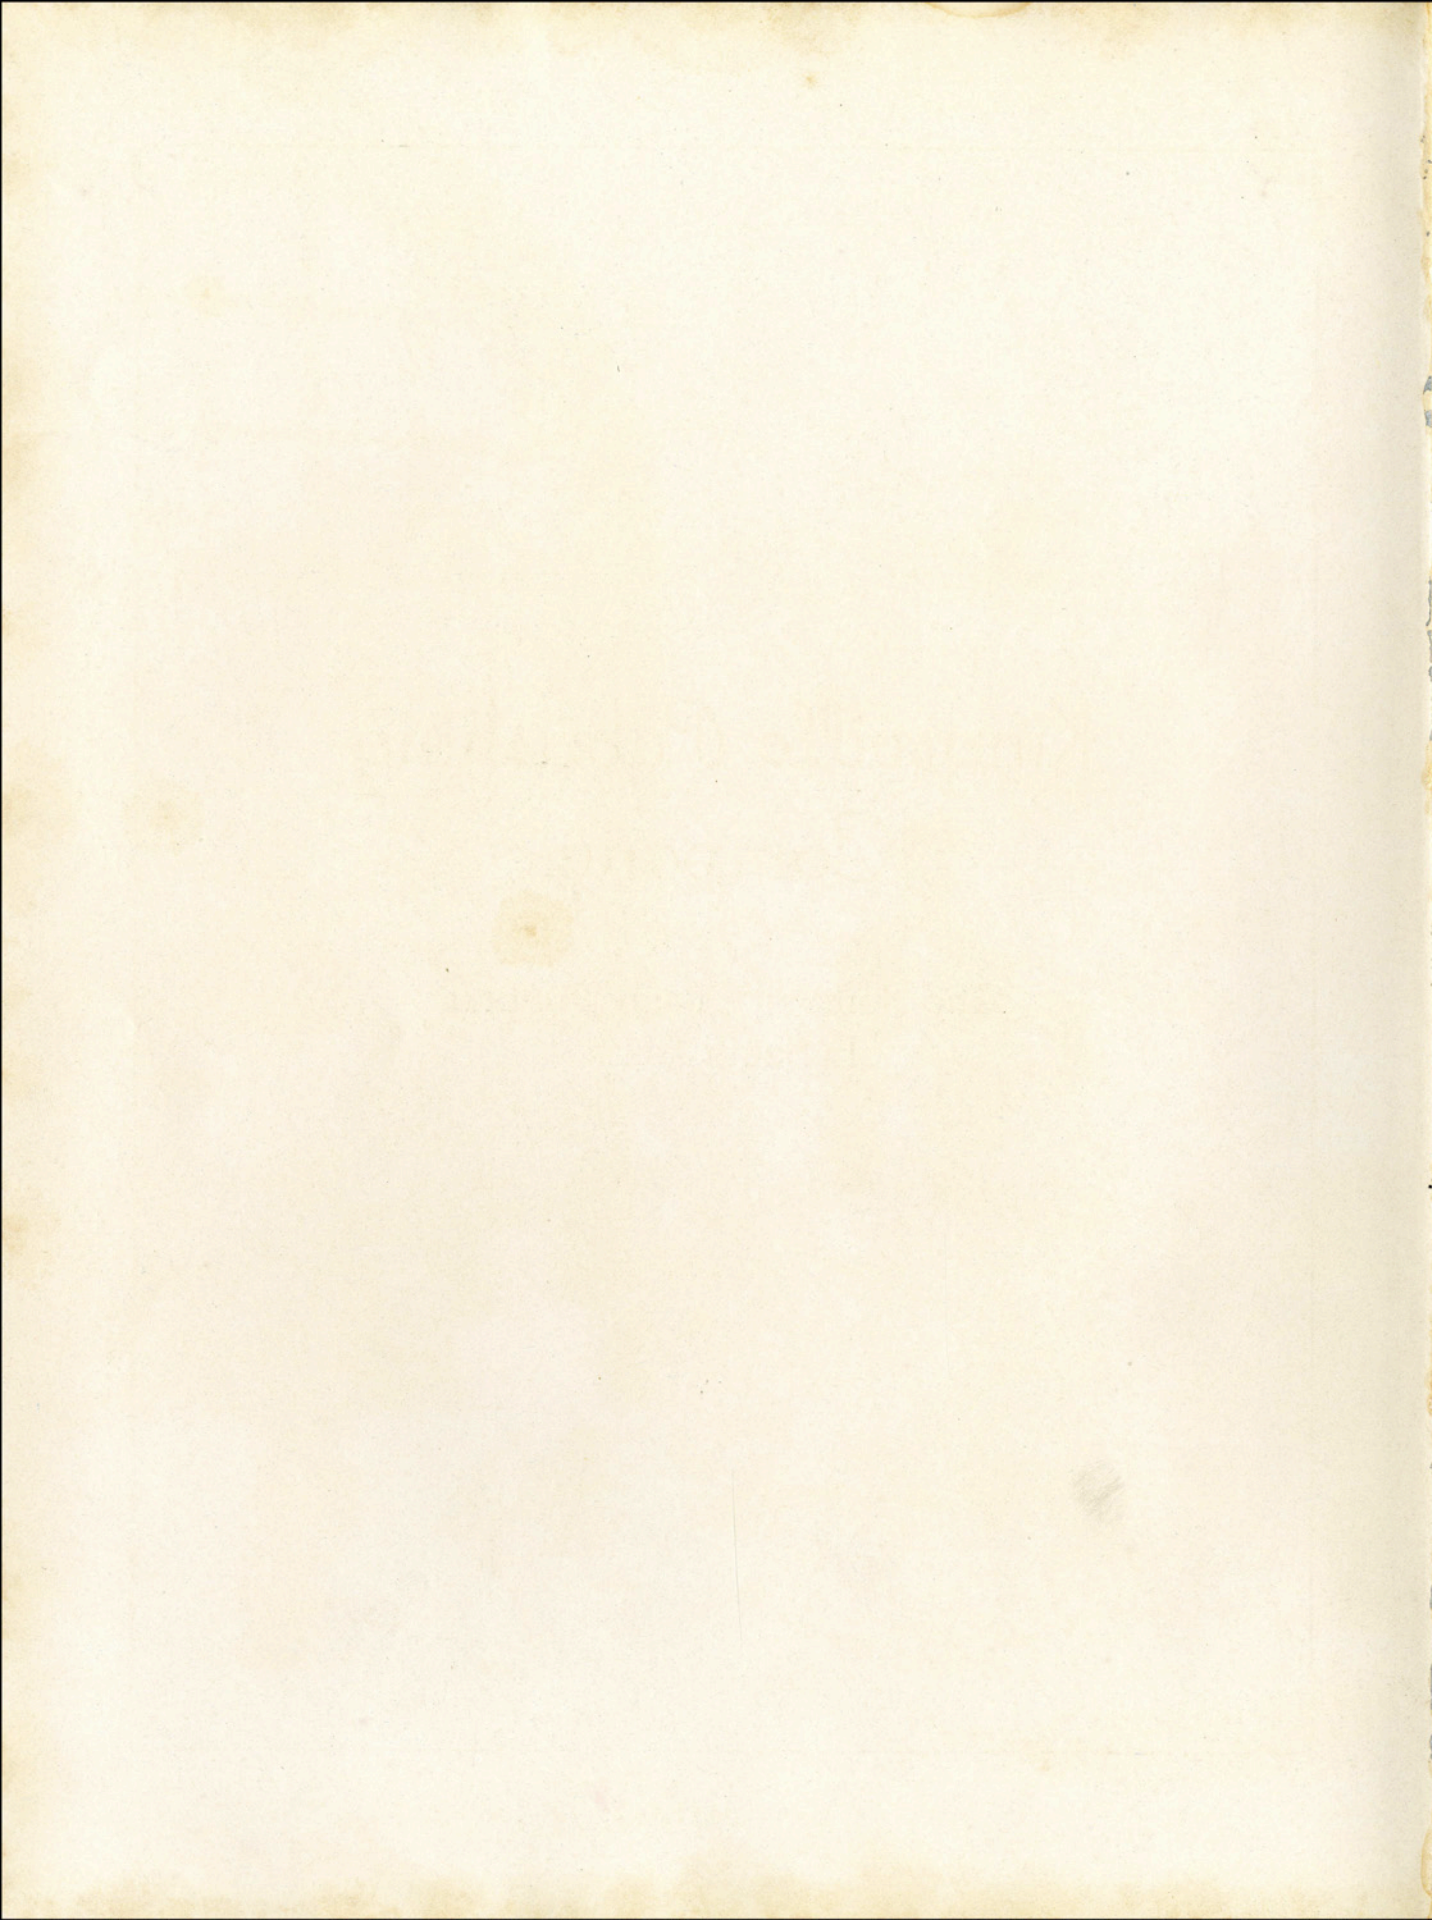

Last but by no means least, the El Rancho staff, who worked diligently and faithfully to give you this record of the past year.

What has been ours from May 1940 is now yours. If you get part of the pleasure in seeing it that we did in producing it our fondest hope and greatest desire will be realized.

DUB WILLIS.

SPEND YOUR VACATION
by the Sea . . . at Corpus Christi

This summer . . . when school work is done . . . build new energy for the fall term's work by vacationing in cool Corpus Christi. And you who live up - state — tell your family and your friends about Corpus Christi's summer vacation delights: Swimming, Sailing, Fishing.

Too, you can explore Corpus Christi's business opportunities . . . inspect its marvelous port . . . visit its chemical manufactory and oil refineries . . . see a city in the making.

Congratulations, Class of '41

Your BIG year in college is ending. You stand on the threshold of your life's work. As you leave A. & I. and enter your chosen profession, may you be happy and successful in it. These are days of tremendous responsibility, and as you assume your place as a citizen in your community, share in the responsibilities that go with being a good citizen — contribute to your community's progress and well being.

And, just as it has done behind the scenes at A. & I., let natural gas help you with the four big household jobs in your home — cooking, refrigeration, water heating, and automatic heating.

KINGSVILLE

A Spot That Is Forever

TEXAS

extends hearty Texas welcome to the young men and women of South Texas who are making A&I their college home.

For ten years before ground was broken for the first building on the campus in 1925, this organization was devoting its energies to the establishment of a college that would serve the needs of South Texas. Thousands of young men and women, who since that day have gone out from this educational institution, are today contributing mightily to the economic and cultural values of South Texas.

We feel that the establishment of the college here has been a profitable investment in citizenship and in material things, and it shall be our constant purpose to promote its growth and welfare.

REDDY KILOWATT IS HERE AGAIN

Bringing a Message to Texas A&I Class of '41

Congratulations Graduates!

I wonder if any of you realize how interested I've been in your education ever since your first day in school.

Through my company, I have not only provided good lighting for your studying and performed many other electrical services, but a goodly portion of my wages has gone to help maintain the institution from which you are graduating this year.

And now, standing on the threshold of the future, your paths of life will no doubt lead in many directions. Whether you enter the business or professional world, or engage in homemaking, I'll still be helping you to make life more enjoyable, more profitable.

So along with congratulations for the successful completion of your school activities, I extend "best wishes for the future" to you all.

CENTRAL POWER AND LIGHT COMPANY

We are grateful to Mr. Willis, Mr. Rowe, Mr. Montgomery, Mr. McCulley and members of the Publications Committee for giving us the opportunity of serving Texas College of Arts and Industries this year.
