El Rancho

On these pages you will find A&I as we saw it. Its hours of triumph, moments of sorrow, and just plain everyday living. It isn't perfect, but then is perfection attainable, or even desired?

IN MEMORIAM

We will remember her friendly smile,
As it danced in eyes of gay laughter,
The way she spoke as she passed us by.
These and other traits we loved her for.
Every person was a friend to her,
And as we, in our own special way,
Remember her in our hearts and minds,
We are thankful to have been her friend.
We, each in silent prayer, give our love —
In dedication to Marianne.

Who's Who

Jane Laney

"Good Samaritan Jane!" Patience and determination make for success. Jane is successful. Everyone feels her hospitable and warm heart going out to them — especially during the "Coffee Hour," of which Jane is hostess. Jane has an admirable quality of seeing truth and beauty in everything.

WHO'S

Among Students
Universities

Guillermo Barrera

It's always heartening to see a fellow enthusiastically accept responsibilities. That's Guillermo. He is quiet and reserved. There's efficiency and thoroughness in all his work. Actions and results reflect extraordinary capabilities and intelligence.

Jenell Pinson

Jenell plays a major role in the student activities of A&I. Her willingness to work is reflected in assuming the job as editor of the annual. A desire for a "good old time" is reflected in her job as chairman of the dateless dances. In addition to the part she takes in the many activities of the college, Jenell always finds time for others.

Joe Schutz

The days of chivalry have returned when Joe Schutz is in the presence of a lady — his quiet, polite, and thoughtful attitude is remembered. Joe seems to spend time in study, but his occasional witty remarks are tops in fun and in hitting the nail on the head.

WHO

In American and Colleges

Margaret Goerner

Margaret, even though she is always busy, always has time to stop and chat with a friend. Margaret doesn't have to seek the spotlight. It just naturally finds her.

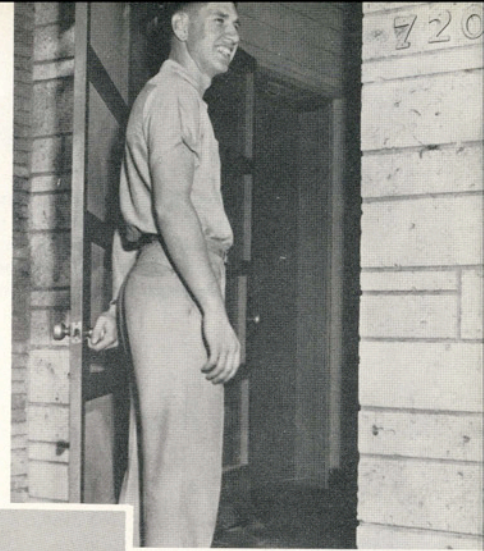

Bob Brandt

The fellow that believes in coming a long way for an education — Bob Brandt from Appleton, Wisconsin. He's an all-round athlete. Well-known and well-liked, Bob has made a conspicuous place for himself at A&I.

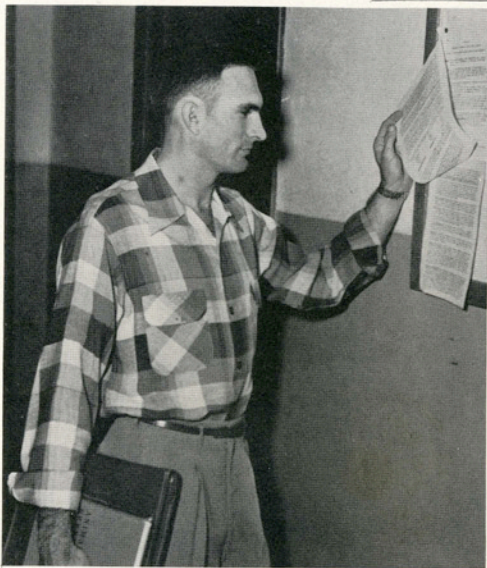

Don McNeely

Don's appearance reflects his personality—serious and hard working. His chief interest lies in the religious activities of the school. Don is chairman of the Religious Council and president of the Baptist Student Union. He works diligently to promote activities on the campus.

Margaret Johnson

Margaret is one of the greatest promoters on the A&I campus. There is "Margaret's own way" of "getting in there and getting things done." Her hard work and school spirit are appreciated throughout the student body.

Milam Simons

A smile in the voice, and a smile that says words that are full of meaning. That is Milam. He's a leader among leaders. His quiet and forceful advice is accepted by those who know him.

Marlene Bluntzer

For a bright and witty atmosphere just look up Marlene. For someone who is dependable and hard working, just look up Marlene. For someone who is an all-round fine person, just look up Marlene.

Arthur Knaggs

"Bill" Knaggs' excellent spirit of loyalty to A&I has been felt throughout the campus. His excellent grooming from head to toe, his spirit of friendliness, and his hard-working attitude make him an asset to the college.

Carolyn Stromberger

A mischievous grin on Carolyn's face displays her pleasing personality. Everyone likes Carolyn's own technique of sharpening her wits on the wits of others. She has many admirable qualities — neat grooming, a spirit of fun, and dependability.

Tom Smith

"Just plain Tom!" Any place is home to Tom. Quiet and easy-going, he is always ready with a helping hand for anyone. Everything done by Tom is a "bang-up" job.

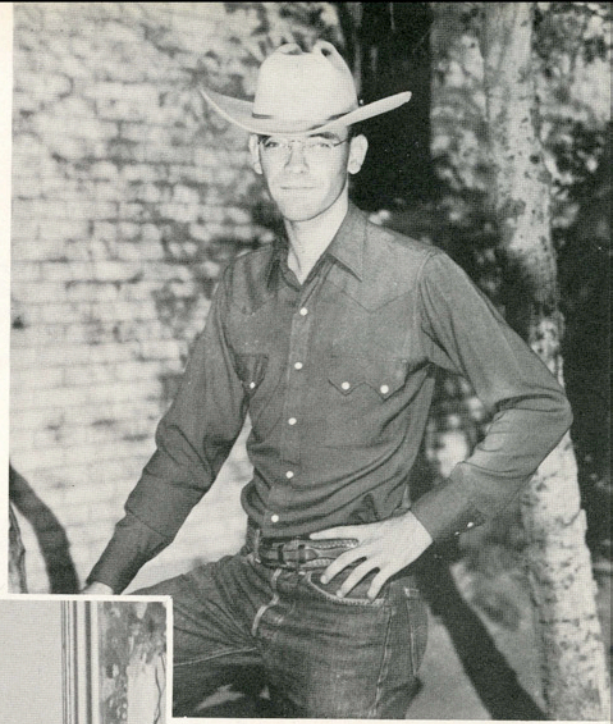

Sue Elsik

Quiet and reserved, Susie stays one jump ahead all the time. Her witty remarks are full of meaning. Determination and hard work, along with extraordinary intelligence, have taken her through school in a short time.

Billy Cowart

Billy's warm friendliness and wide variety of activities make him a well known figure on the A&I campus. He has exhibited an extraordinary ability in leadership by topping the list of his accomplishments with the office of Student Council president. He works diligently at any task which he undertakes and performs it well.

Pat Lemley

Both quiet and reserved, Pat goes about her work with a conscientious attitude. Her little smile and fairy-like sense of humor make her a lovely lady. Pat is capable, interesting and intelligent.

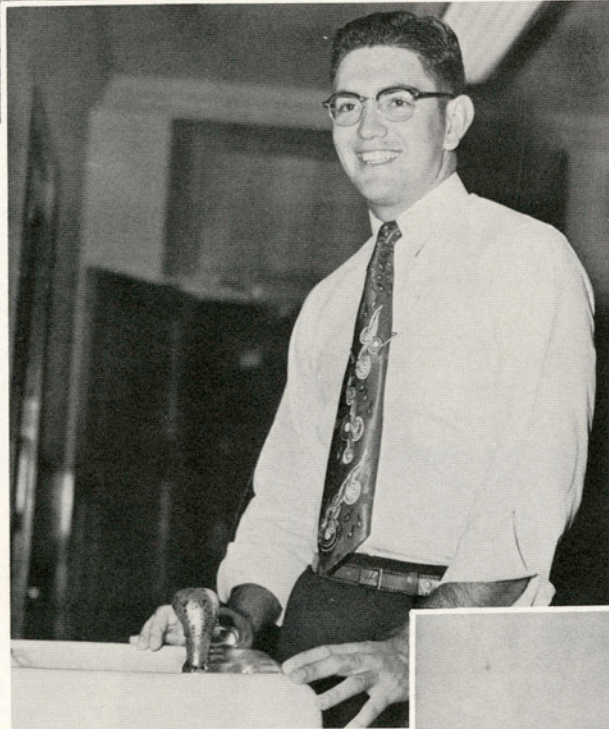

Jodie Hardage

Jodie, as he goes quietly about his work, makes his influence felt over the campus. He is conscientious and dependable. The seniors expressed their faith in Jodie by electing him president of the Senior Class.

Pat Graham

Pat, head cheerleader, exercises an important role in turning the wheels of the activities of A&I. Because of her versatility, Pat has "a finger in many pies." The student body paid tribute to Pat by electing her as the 1953-54 Lantana Queen.

Al Hornung

Whether you know him or not, you know that friendly smile. The student body has confidence in his leadership as shown by his election to numerous positions. This is his second year to be in "Who's Who" and he is worthy of the honor.

Margaret McClane

"Good, dependable Margaret!" A smile and a helping hand for everyone seems to be her motto. By serving on a committee here and a committee there, Margaret helps in a big way to promote student activities.

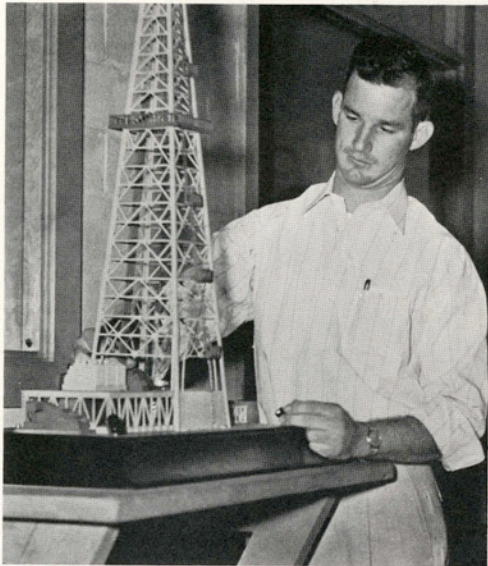

William Putnam

"Putter" is a whiz on the football field and he carries his drive over to student activities. Everyone thinks he's "a good guy."

Margie Lipe

It's work and business for Margie. She's enthusiastic and studious. She is to be commended for her dependability and diligence.

Richard Martin

Warmness and sincerity impress persons when they are in the presence of Richard Martin. Dick assumes his responsibilities seriously and conscientiously.

Barbara Behrend

Everything is fun for Barbara. Her constant search for knowledge makes Barbara a stimulating person. With an intent interest in people, she often inclines a listening ear to the "ups and downs" of the day.

Bob Franks

Bob Franks, the typical journalist, always manages to be in the center of interesting and exciting activities both on and off the campus. His chief interest and his major is journalism. His sense of humor lends flavor to his articles in The South Texan.

Marian Frances Callaway

"Good old M. F.!" She'll tackle any job and see it through. She has a particularly admirable trait of giving credit where credit is due — everyone can do something fine in M. F.'s eyes. She's a good sport.

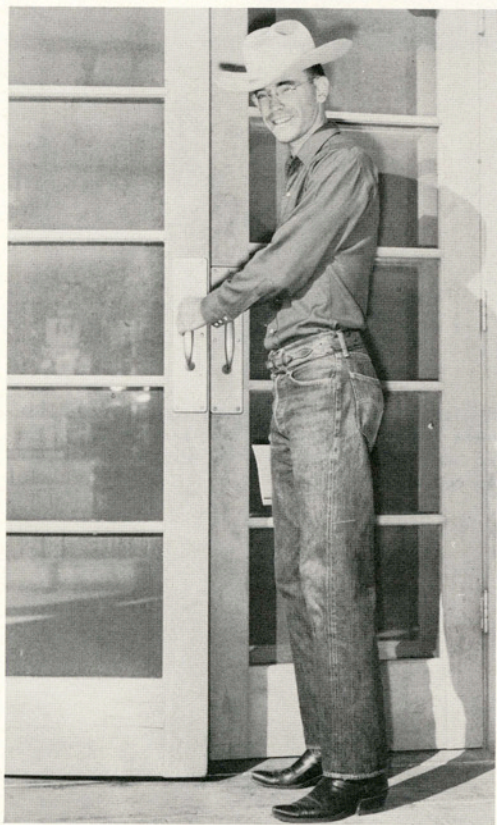

Al Mechler

Al's conscientiousness makes every task which he undertakes result in success. He is determined to complete everything down to the last thread. He's a person worth knowing.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council was organized in 1925 when A&I was founded. It has grown just as A&I has grown. Its purpose is to handle problems arising among the students, and to make A&I a better place in which to study and play.

Billy Cowart, president of the Student Council, is a senior agriculture major from San Benito. In keeping with his office as head of the student body, he is familiar to everyone on the campus as being a hard worker and an active participant in all phases of A&I activities.

ADVISORY BOARD

The Student Council Advisory Board is made up of all the presidents of the various clubs and organizations on the campus. The Board's chief function is to hear the suggestions of various groups and to report any plan or suggestion to the Student Council which they feel should be acted upon by that group.

STUDENT UNION GOVERNING BOARD

The Student Union Governing Board's duty is to provide recreational activities of both cultural and social interest for the students of A&I. The Board is composed of six students, two members of the faculty, the president of A&I, and a representative from the Ex-Students Association.

Religious Council

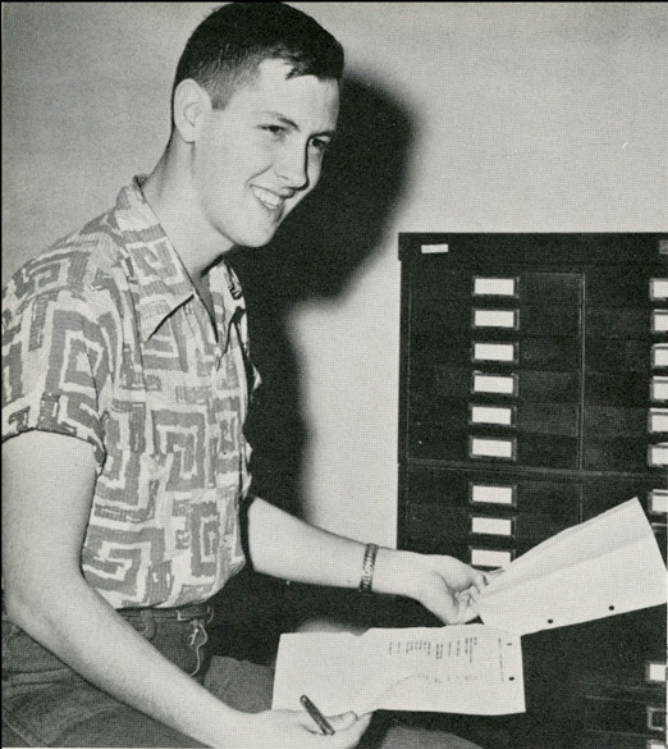

To promote better understanding between different denominations on the A&I campus, two representatives are chosen from each church group to form this council.

The South Texan is the "Voice of the Texas A&I Student Body." To live up to this slogan which appears in the masthead of the student newspaper is the ambition of Editor Franks and his staff. To that end, they devote a great deal of time to gleaming information and finding new ways to serve while not neglecting the old ways.

Duane Crews swings his loop high as he takes after his calf full speed ahead.

Rodeo Club at work

Same boy, but different calf. Here, Crews is shown tying up his calf with the expert speed which makes a truly fine calf roper.

Practice makes perfect, so most afternoons at about five you can always find several "cow-boys" working hard. Watching a fellow club member below are: Scott, Coleman, May, Allen, Taylor, and Leonard.

As Richard Scott's calf comes out of the pen it cuts sharply in front of the rider and horse. Of course, he may have simply been dodging the photographer.

A. W. S.

The Association of Women Students, a branch of the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students, was founded at A&I in 1941. All girls enrolled at A&I automatically become members. Its purpose is to develop cooperation, friendliness, and leadership among all women students. Each fall AWS sponsors the "Big-Little Sister" party honoring freshman girls and also the Hallowe'en Carnival.

A grinning guest at the AWS Hallowe'en party entertains himself by throwing darts.

B. B. A. Club

The Business Administration Club is an organization designed for the specific interests of those students who intend to enter the field of business upon graduation. The club provides important business contacts that may later be utilized by the students participating.

The BBA Club entertained ex-students with a tea during the Homecoming festivities. The tea was held in the Student Union Building.

COUSINS HALL COUNCIL

Each year the residents of Cousins Hall elect a house council charged with the duty of fostering good will and harmonious living among the dormitory residents. Two representatives are elected from each wing in the dormitory to form this council.

Janet Brown entertains Cousins Hall residents and guest Marvin Leggett with a little "hot jazz."

Electrical Engineers' Club

Electrical engineering students on the A&I campus may join this organization, which specializes in the interests of electrical engineering. Members are required to have at least sophomore standing and be majoring in electrical engineering.

The Natural Gas Engineering Association is open to all natural gas engineering students of junior level or above. The Association devotes itself to affairs of the profession for which its members are preparing and provides an organization whereby both graduates and undergraduates may cooperate in maintaining a high standard of engineering study at A&I.

Gas Engineers seem to know what they're doing in the laboratory experiment. At least they have intelligent expressions.

PRESS CLUB

The Press Club Backward Dance, held February 13, gave the girls a chance to date the boy of their dreams, if only for one night. All expenses were paid by the feminine set, with the girls playing host right down to the after-the-dance trip to Skee's.

1954 Sweetheart, Jenell Pinson, receives roses from Press Club President A. W. Green.

Girls must give their dates a kiss at the door or pay a 25¢ fine. There were more kisses than fines. Joy McKim is shown saving her money.

WOMEN'S RECREATIONAL ASSOCIATION

The Women's Recreational Association is an organization bringing together girls who are physical education majors and others who are interested in sports and physical betterment of women students. These girls participate in intramural sports throughout the school year.

"A Midsummer Night's Dream"

Bottom's friends are astounded by his transformation.

The Footlights Club held audiences spellbound as the Shakespearean drama was enacted in Jones Auditorium.

Lysander (Bob Snyder) makes love to Hermia (Nancy Atteberry) in one of play's tender scenes.

Titania (Sue Bishop), the Fairy Queen, makes love to Bottom (Vere Wilson) to the amusement of everyone.

"Blithe Spirit"

A theater-in-the-round production, "Blithe Spirit" played four nights to the applause of capacity crowds.

Madame Arcati conducts a seance for the Condomines and Bradmans.

The Condomines (Eddie Scholls and Nancy Bentley) entertain Madam Arcati and the Bradmans (Lloyd Graham and Ruth Carlisle).

Elvira (Jackie Burroughs), Charles' first wife, returns to haunt him as a result of the seance.

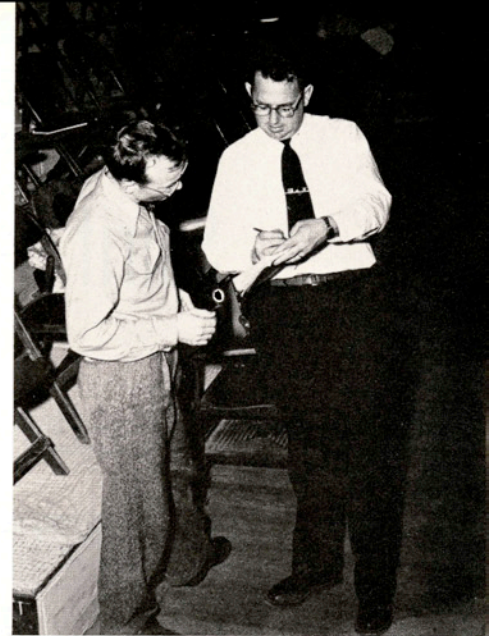

Double trouble assails Charles as both wives return from the "other place."

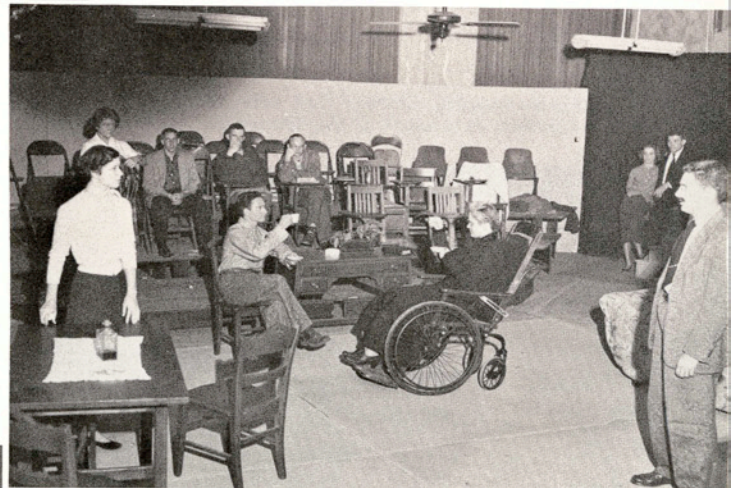

Lou Hodges saw many things when she looked out the window. Some were real . . .

Budge Threlkeld, director of the play, tells his helpers exactly how he wants it done.

This is one of the dramatic scenes between Lou and Frank Talley. In contrast to Lou's portrayal of a plain, uncomplicated, confused girl was that of Frank as a psychopathic killer.

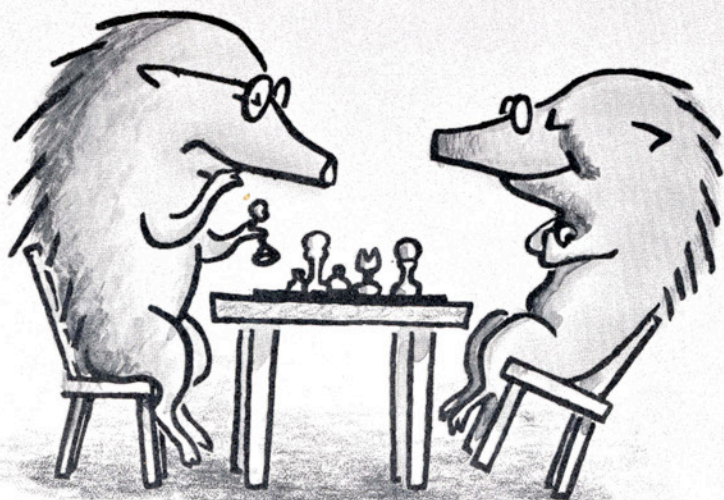

"Night Must Fall"

"PORKY" Javelina Mascot ...

Always to be found at each football game was "Porky," the team's mascot. "Porky" was in for a bit of a surprise this year, as surely he did not expect to have so many rival mascots as his guests.

A and I 7 Stephen F. Austin 6

In the opening game of the season, the Javelinas edged out Stephen F. Austin 7 to 6 in a hard-fought game. This game was a thriller right down to the last play of the game when the Lumberjacks had a first down on the Hogs' ten yard line, but did not make a score. An unidentified Javelina is stopped by the Lumberjacks in the picture at left.

A and I 20 Southwest Texas State 34

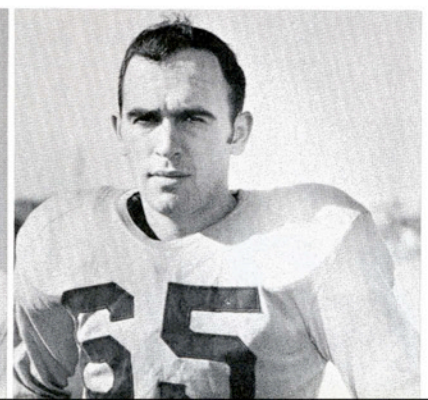

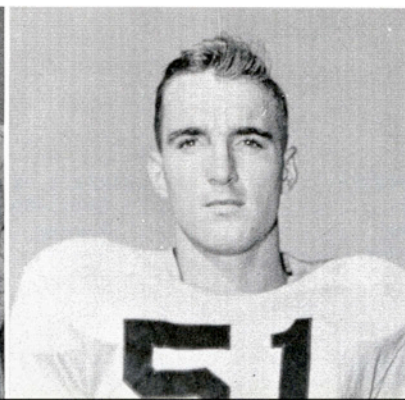

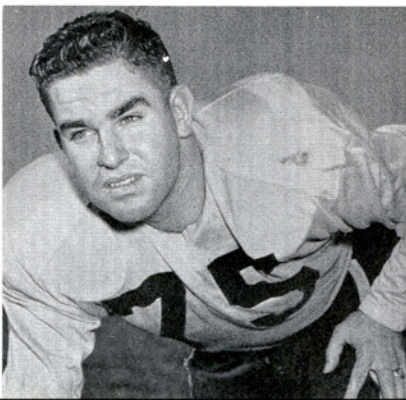

The Hogs went on the road for their second game, but were followed to San Marcos by most of the student body. The crowd there witnessed a passing duel between Javelina Tommy Hudspeth and Bobcat Pence Dacus. In the final quarter the Bobcats took the lead by scoring twice and beat the Hoggies.

A and I 25 Sam Houston State 49

This game turned out to be one of the biggest surprises to many A&I fans. With the regular quarterback out with a broken back and a freshman quarterback in charge, the Hogs made the strong Trinity eleven really work for their win. Pictured at left is Kenneth Wilhite charging around end.

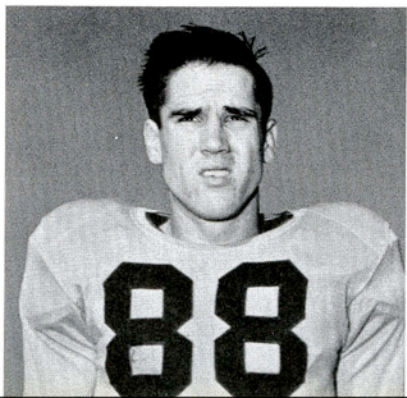

Many students from a university 160 miles north of Kingsville were overly amazed to hear one night that their 600 pound Bengal Tiger had been escorted to Kingsville to become the second honored mascot guest of A&I. Leroy did not seem to mind at all.

A and I 26 Abilene Christian College 13

The Javelinas went into this game a two-touchdown "underdog" but by means of an excellent rushing game lead by Sug Sanders, who ground out 105 yards, beat the favored Wildcats 26 to 13. This win put the Javelinas at the head of the Texas Conference. Oscar Gonzales has the ball in picture at right.

A and I 0 Sul Ross 38

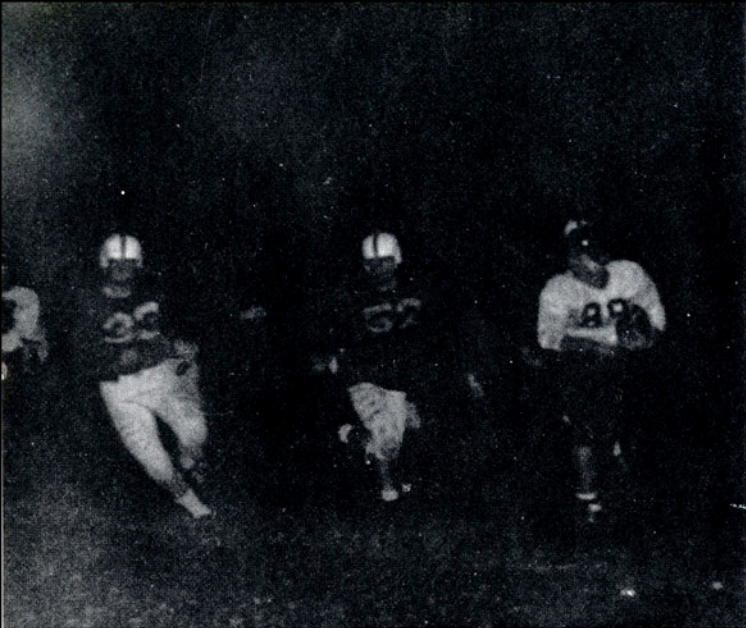

Riddled with injuries, the Javelinas traveled to Alpine to take on the Sul Ross Lobos. Much to the satisfaction of the Sul Ross fans, the Lobos handed the Hogs their worst defeat since the two teams began their rivalry. In the picture at left, an unidentified Hoggie carries the ball as Putter leads the way.

It was a bitter cold night, but the Hogs played sizzling hot football against the Howard Payne Yellow Jackets. Ken Wilhite won starring honors for this game by covering a fumble on the Yellow Jackets' three-yard line which set up the only score of the game. Billy Skipworth is pictured as he carried the ball down field.

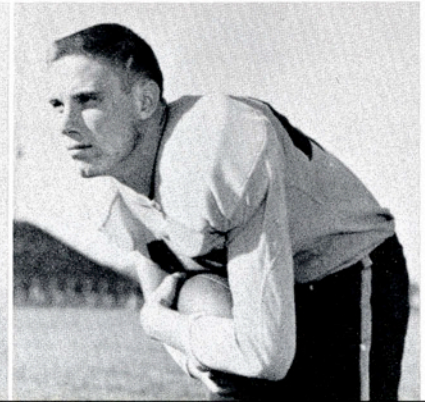

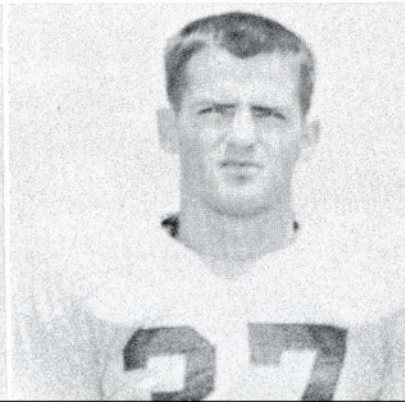

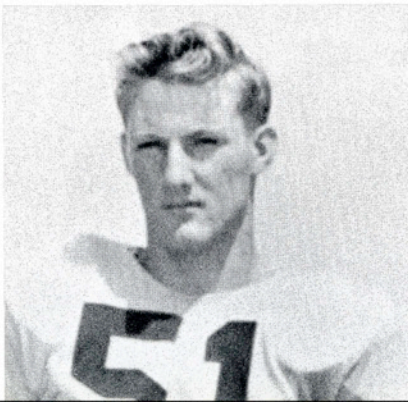

Homecoming always is the highlight of football season. The night before the big game exes, students, faculty, and friends join together at the annual bonfire to cheer the team on to victory. Pictured here is the bonfire just after the cheerleaders set fire to it.

The Homecoming crowd of 7,000 cheered wildly as Putter caught the pass and raced across the goal line in the fading minutes of the game to insure at least a tie score. Then Kenneth Wilhite, under pressure, booted the ball straight between the uprights to win the game. Not in many a year has there been so thrilling an ending to a Homecoming game. Putter is pictured as he made his way across the goal line for that needed six points.

Playing in sub-freezing weather and without the services of many of their regular mainstays, the Hogs put up a good fight, but were nevertheless beaten by the McMurry Indians in the last game of the season. Oscar Gonzales is pictured as he pulls in a pass.
