TOM SMITH

Tom always has an appropriate remark to make, no matter what the situation. His cheery outlook makes him an asset to any group. A Who's Who member for the second year, he has made a name for himself on the campus . . . a good name, well deserved.

RUTH SMITH

At A&I, Ruth is not always seen, but almost always heard. She and her piano have offered entertainment for almost every organization on the campus, and her voice is heard in the A Cappella Choir and in the Madrigal group.

BILL WISEMAN

Bill somehow manages to be everywhere at once . . . and he's not only there, he's busy . . . a born salesman and an untiring worker.

WILLIAM PUTNAM

"Putter" has long been known for his unbelievable drive on the football field, and he has proven that his drive carries over into everything, including his office of president of the Student Council.

LUCILE HODGES

A First Lady of the A&I Theatre, Lu has many other talents—from art, to music, to campus politics—right on down to being a real fine friend to everyone.

JOAN ETHEREDGE

As editor of El Rancho, Joan has shown admirable traits of patience, endurance, and originality. A hard worker, she will go far.

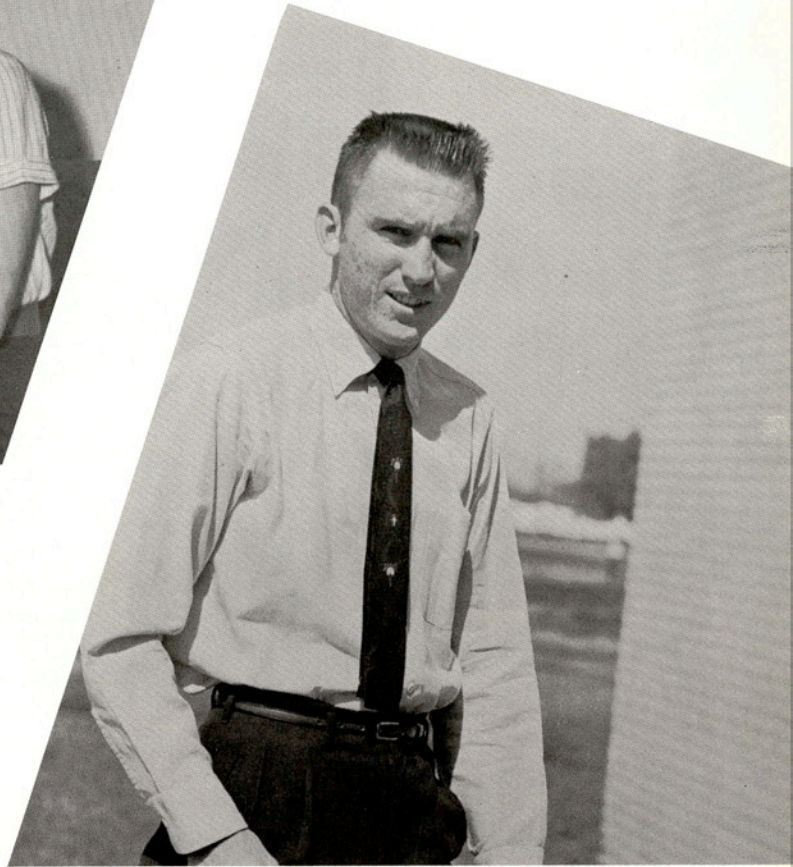

Who's Who

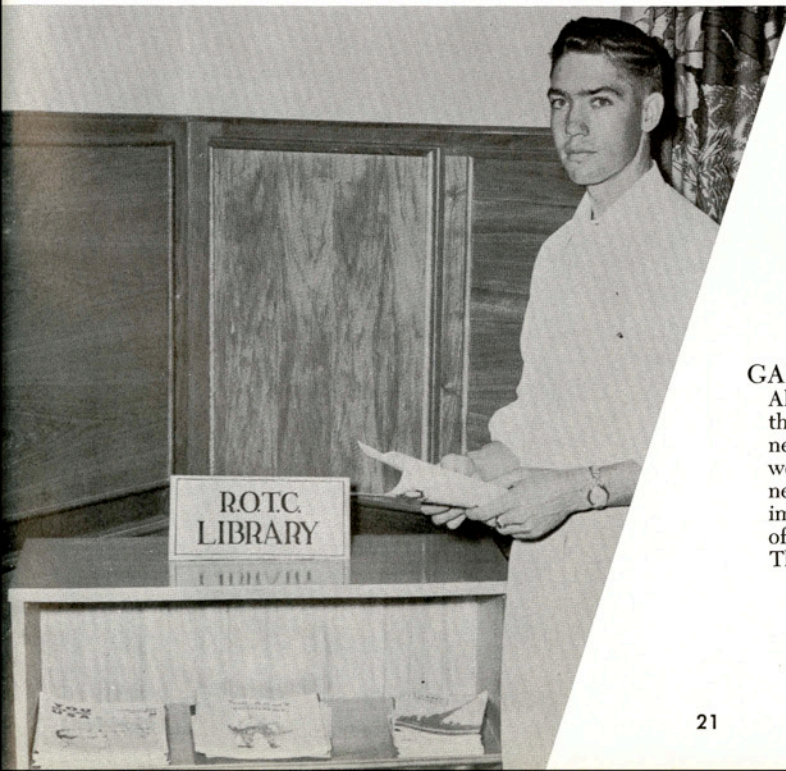

MARGARET McCLANE

Margaret has been a willing worker since the first day she arrived at A&I. It will be a real loss to the college when she graduates this year, but she will have the satisfaction of leaving behind her a stack of jobs well done.

WILLIAM TREYBIG

Bill has done a lot of work around the campus without receiving any credit for it. He is the kind of person everyone likes to see emerge a winner, and there's little doubt that he is just that.

GARNET BURGESS

Always reliable and trustworthy, the praise isn't important to Garnet as long as the results are worthwhile. Unobtrusively, Garnet slipped into a position of real importance on our campus—that of Cadet Colonel of the ROTC. The position is well filled.

MARY COOK

Her smile, as sincere and friendly as A&I itself, makes Mary a true Queen of our campus. She reigned over the Lantana Court of 1955, was voted Alpha Phi Omega sweetheart, and was president of her sorority.

BOBBIE McDOWELL

A little bit of a girl with a whole lot of everything, Bobbie is a four-year Lantana Lady, sweetheart of the Aggie Club, and a campus favorite.

Who's Who

CAROLE ALSUP

Those quiet, big, brown eyes give the impression of honesty and constant dependability . . . the impression is right.

E. T. ARVIN

"Red" Arvin has become something of a landmark around our campus. Everybody knows "Red" and has felt the warmth of that wide grin.

FRED ADLAM

"Junior" displayed a willingness to work and accept responsibility that soon gave him all the work he could handle and then some.

GERALD WAGNER

He doesn't say much, but what he does say is worth listening to. Small jobs, well done, have paved the way for Gerald to tackle bigger jobs with the same commendable results.

MORRIS KREIDEL

The presidency of the Senior Class is a hard position to fill and it's seldom a fellow like Morris can be found to fill it. He's interested in everything concerning A&I.

ROBERT REGAN

His college career was interrupted by Uncle Sam, but the interruption failed to quench the spark of energy that makes Bob one of the greatest cheerleaders A&I has had.

MILTON RUSSELL

When something happens, Milt knows about it first with all the details. He can see both sides of any situation. His understanding makes him a wonderful person to know and has served him well in his position as editor of The South Texan.

SYLVIA GARCIA

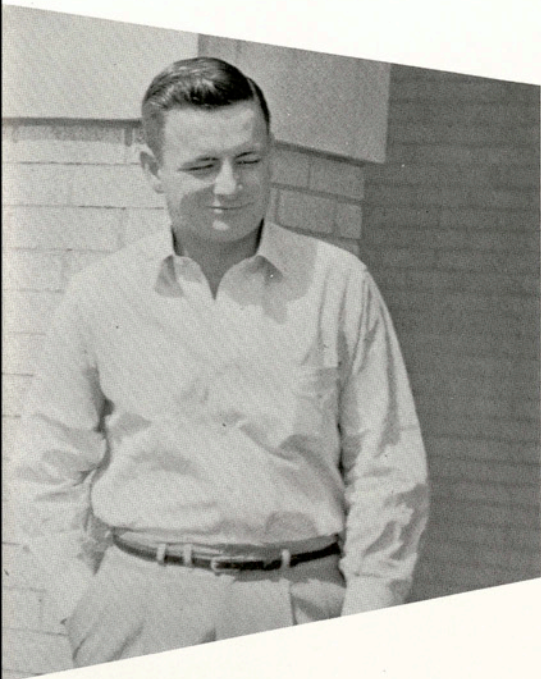

She doesn't toot her own horn, but there are always plenty of people to do the honors for her. This is because Sylvia is a hard worker and a fine person.

DON KARR

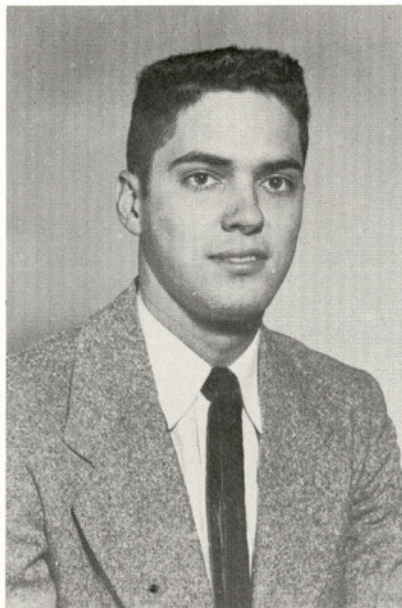

Don is always ready with a listening ear and an encouraging word. Straight and to the point, he gets things done with a minimum of talk and a maximum of work.

Who's
Who

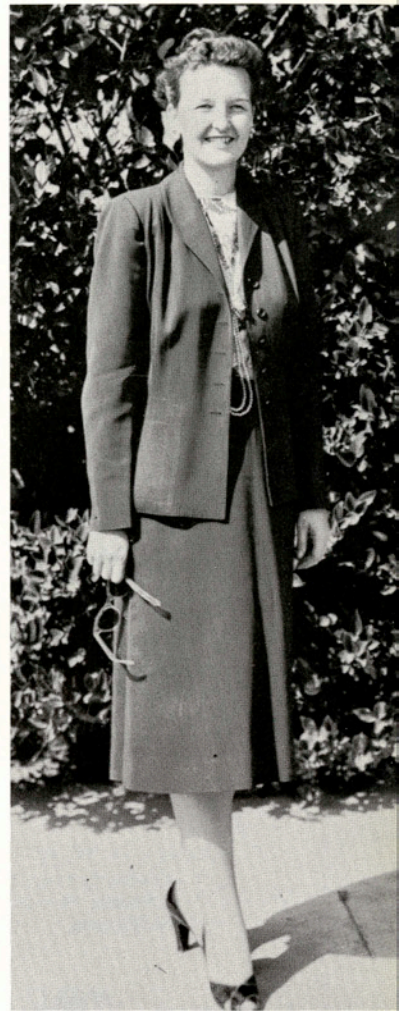

GEORGE BABCOCK

It's good to see a deserving guy receive recognition for long and devoted service. George has helped make the Student Union Governing Board an organization of which A&I can be very proud.

CHARLES ROYAL

No matter what the job, Charlie was usually about somewhere, working or offering helpful suggestions.

LOUISE MOHN

A really conscientious student, Louise Mohn could serve as a lesson to everyone as to the rewards of hard work.

Who's Who

NORMAN CLINGER

Here's one wheel who doesn't think he's the whole machine. Clinger always manages to have plenty of work to do . . . and it's always done well.

BETTY LOTT

Betty has been an integral part of life at A&I since her freshman days. She has managed to do more in three years than some co-eds accomplish in five.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

is the core of student government at A&I. Headed this year by William Putnam, the organization strives, as always, to handle problems arising among students and to keep the governmental machine well-oiled.

SOUTH TEXAN STAFF

The South Texan succeeds again this year in living up to its masthead. "The voice of the Texas A&I student body" is heard in every issue of A&I's weekly paper. Staff members put in hours that would horrify a good union . . . their job is one of blood, sweat, and not a few mental tears. Always under the pressure of looking for that news that's fit to print, finding the best way to print it, and meeting the doom of deadlines, they keep in mind the question that is top-most . . . will it please? It does.

The purpose of the INTERSORORITY COUNCIL is to promote a greater unity among the three sororities on our campus. It is composed of the president, two representatives, and one faculty sponsor from each group. Each year the council coordinates rush-week activities and conducts an inter-sorority presentation dance for the pledges.

THE RACE for Lantana Queen and Ladies of the 1955 court was held in November. Posters, banners, signs, flags, lapel pins and pictures surrounded A&I voters. An all-college campaign assembly was held with skits and stunts glorifying the candidates.

A presentation dance formally introducing the candidates was given by the A Cappella Choir. Candidates for Lady were Lillyan Ewert, Betty Lott, Pete Black, Pat Hall, Carol Lee Burgess, and Bobbie Lou McDowell. Kay Ann Lloyd, Dorothy Lindley, and Mary Cook were Lantana Queen candidates.

The dance was held in the Student Union Ballroom with music furnished by the "White Hats." Decorations carried out the Lantana flower theme. The Choir, as sponsors of this year's dance, hopes to make it an annual affair.

Ballots were cast, counted, and through the settling campaign dust came the results of the election.

Sorority life on the campus officially began with RUSH WEEK, held in October.

Beta Gamma launched the round of parties with a mythical cruise on the USS Beta Gamma. Fish nets, life-savers, and buoys decked the halls.

Delta Theta took it from there with ruffles, bows, and little girl clothes. Members and rushees reverted to childhood for a kid party, complete with balloons, water pistols, lollipops, and baby bottles.

It was a Western shindig for the Alpha Sigmas with hay on the floor and Bull Durham on the tables. Barbecued chicken with all the trimmings made up the chuck-wagon supper.

Dancing in bare feet was permitted at the Alpha Phi Omega presentation dance. Introduction of Mary Cook as sweetheart of the organization was the high point of the dance.

Spring semester Kappa Sigma Nu pledges are forbidden to smile or speak unless spoken to at Monday night fraternity meetings. Sweetheart Kaye Anne Lloyd holds the paddle.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

This building was constructed by the Baptist Church to provide a means of spiritual growth for students as they grow in other phases.

A quiet place for prayer and meditation is provided in the prayer room. Individual and prayer mates use the room daily.

The B. S. U. operates several missions. Dorothy Lindley and Leroy Harris are shown working at the Negro mission.

Credit Bible courses are offered with the religious denomination bearing all expenses. Donnal Timmons is shown here with a class.

Every Friday night, Bible discussions are conducted at the Baptist Student Center.

After each home football game, after church each Sunday night, and throughout the year the B. S. U. provides social activities.

A varied program of music, talks by students, faculty members, and other guest speakers provide inspiration for daily spiritual growth and fellowship.

SHRIMP ROOMS

It's the holiday season and Lila Baugh girls celebrate with tinsel tree and gifts.

Homework takes a back seat when competition like this presents itself.

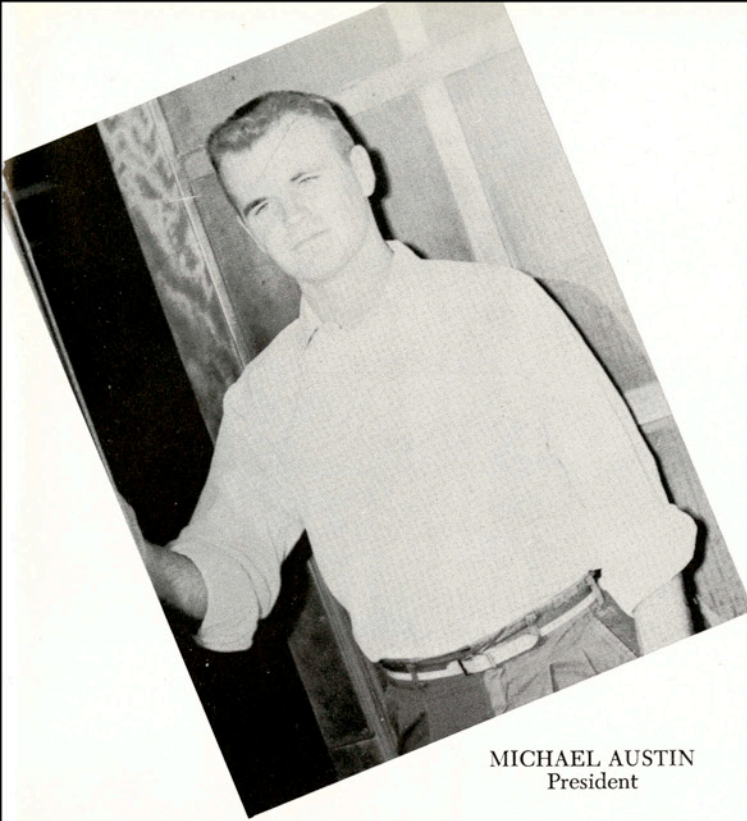

Pete Black, Yvonne McCarty, Ann Copeland and Gwyn Scheel have a gossip session.

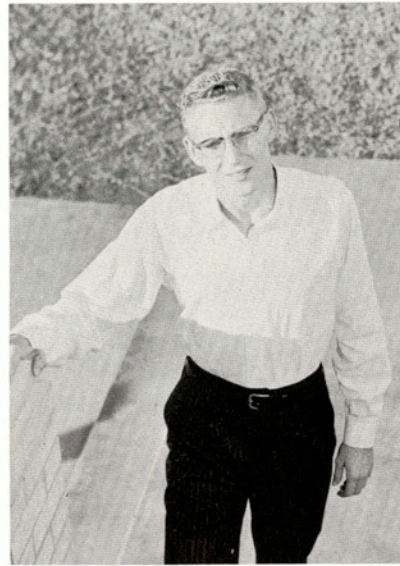

Bobbie White adds that ever-important finishing touch.

The Shirt-tail Parade is a pantless highlight of the fall semester. Shirts and jeans for the girls and shirts and no jeans for the boys are the preferred apparel for this event.

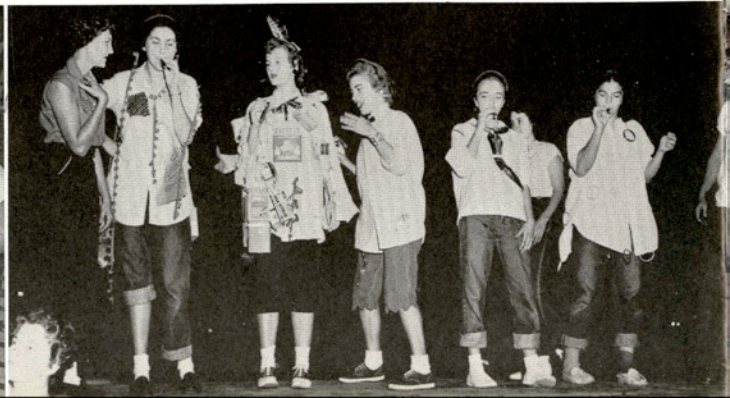

Freshmen engineer hopefuls attend the orientation week departmental conference. Here, freshmen considering engineering as their major learn of the glories and trials of that field of study.

The floor of Loftin Hall is made available to freshmen for formal dining.

Registration is a time of torment for all. .freshmen in green beanies not excluded.

The parade included cigar-smoking cuties who puffed and coughed in the contest to discover the best-smoking girl.

GILBERT E. STEINKE

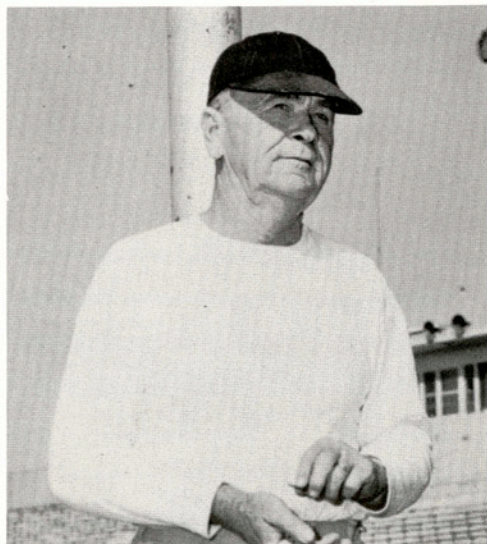

Returning to his Alma Mater, Mr. Steinke served his first year as head football coach and director of athletics. One of the Javelinas' all-time gridiron stars, Mr. Steinke graduated in 1942, played professional football, served in the Navy, and last coached at A&M before returning to A&I. Steinke did an excellent job of moulding the Javelinas, a young, relatively inexperienced bunch of boys, into a hard-fighting crew that gave every team they played a rugged battle all the way.

W. T. (TED) CARLEY

Head basketball coach and assistant football coach, Mr. Carley, a graduate of North Texas State, was another newcomer to A&I this year. Mr. Carley served a hitch in the Navy and coached several high school teams before becoming Schreiner Institute's director of athletics. He left his post at Schreiner last fall to join the A&I staff.

Student Assistant Coaches Davey Smith and Jim Martin.

DEWEY A. MAYHEW

Mr. Mayhew relinquished chief responsibility for the Javelinas last year but helped coach the 1954-55 A&I team. Mr. Mayhew graduated from Southwestern University, played professional baseball in the West Texas League, and became widely known for his success with Abilene High School teams before turning to college coaching. In their five years in the Texas Conference Mayhew's gridiron teams finished in second place twice and twice emerged in three-way ties for the crown.

The A&I Javelinas, under the direction of Coaches Steinke, Carley, and Mayhew, went into their first season in the tough Lone Star Conference and wound up the campaign in fourth place in season standings and fifth place in conference play. Showing an unconquerable fighting spirit in every contest, the Hoggies defied the experts by coming in ahead of where, in view of their youth, they were expected to finish.

JAVELINAS 20 BULLDOGS 0

In Seguin, Coach Steinke guided his young but spirited Javelinas into their first game of the 1954 grid season. The result was a 20-0 triumph over Texas Lutheran's Bulldogs. Halfback Kenneth Wilhite scored twice on dashes of 15 and 22 yards and William Putnam, halfback, plunged five yards for another Hoggie score. It was a comparatively easy game for the Javs—easy, at least, as compared with what they would meet in the future—and Mr. Steinke used reserves freely.

JAVELINAS 13 INDIANS 12

Halfback Ray Houts broke loose for a 48-yard scoring scamper with Northeastern Louisiana leading 12-7 in Monroe, Louisiana, to pull the Hoggies from the brink of defeat and net them their second win of the season September 25. The Javelinas piled up an imposing 313 yards rushing and made 16 first downs, but penalties, fumbles, and a pass interception kept them on their heels most of the game. Houts wound up with 80 yards rushing on five carries and Steve Curry, fullback, gained 77 yards on 10 thrusts to lead the Hoggies offensively. Herman Singleton, guard, and Dick Gravett, end, stood out defensively, Singleton recovering four Indian fumbles and Gravett blocking both of Northeastern's extra-point tries.

Houts begins long jaunt.

JAVELINAS 32 TARPONS 6

The Javelinas opened the 1954 home season October 2 in a renewal of their series with the University of Corpus Christi. The Tarpons brought to Kingsville a team picked by some experts to upset the Hoggies. Someone forgot to tell the Javelinas about this, and they romped and stomped a helpless Tarpon team into the ground, 32-6. Quarterback S. T. Bridges gained 103 yards on 11 carries, William Putnam, halfback, gathered 36 yards on three carries and Ray Houts again looked good, amassing 67 yards on six blasts. Houts, Bridges, Warren Anderson, Putnam, and Carl Hopkins all scored touchdowns for the Javelinas.

Hold that Tarpon!

BOBCATS 21

When Southwest Texas State came to town October 9, the Javelinas got their first taste of Lone Star Conference football. The Javs picked a tough piece of meat to bite into as a sample, but nevertheless played the Bobcats right down to the wire in one of the thrillers of the year. S. T. Bridges calmly booted a 15-yard field goal with six minutes left in the game to give the Hoggies a 16-14 lead and practically assure A&I hopefuls of an initial victory in the Lone Star Loop. However, three minutes later, Johnny Faselcer, SWTS end, blocked a Javelina punt and recovered the ball in the end zone for the winning touchdown. William Putnam and Kenneth Wilhite led the Javs offensively, Putnam gaining 56 yards on 10 carries, and Wilhite smashing for 108 yards on only four thrusts.

Putter crashes the Bobcat line.

SAM HOUSTON 14

Unable to capitalize on several scoring chances, the Javelinas dropped a 14-0 decision to Sam Houston October 16. It was the second consecutive loss in the Lone Star Loop for the Hoggies, who forgot to put glue on their fingers before going onto the field. Several fumbles were costly, and a timely pass interception by the Bearcats kept the Javelinas from crossing their opponent's goal. Despite the loss, the Javelinas were improved as they held a powerful Bearcat rushing game down to 198 yards and played good, heads-up ball.

LOBOS 0

The Hoggies met their third Lone Star Conference foe in Alpine October 23. It was a memorable game for the Javelinas, since the victory over the Sul Ross Lobos was their first win in the Lone Star competition. Quarterback S. T. Bridges guided the Javelinas beautifully to their victory as he scored the only touchdown of the game and booted a game-clinching 24-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter. Steve Curry, fullback, and Sul Ross' Norman Cash, the Lone Star Loop's total offense leader prior to the game, tangled in an offensive match, Curry winning by 40 yards over his opponent. Corky Crane, a 135-pound halfback who had seen little action, blossomed out in the game and gained himself a starting berth in the Jav backfield. Beautiful line play by the Hogs was instrumental in their victory.

Oops! Missed!

LUMBERJACKS 14

In A&I's first Dad's Day football game, the Javelinas fought bitterly in the last quarter but were unable to overcome a 14-0 lead held by Stephen F. Austin and were defeated 14-7. Corky Crane skirted end for the Hoggies' only score and S. T. Bridges booted the extra point. The loss was the third in Lone Star Conference play for the Javelinas and knocked them out of competition for a place in the upper bracket.

The scoreboard tells the story in the Javelinas' Homecoming game.

A Homecoming crowd of 5500 saw the Javelinas lose to East Texas State November 6. During the first half, the Hoggies played an inspired brand of football, spoiling everything that the Lions tried and covering East Texas pass receivers like a huge net. The Lions scored with but 1 minute and 27 seconds remaining in the second period and led at the half 6-0. Evidently appropriate words by the East Texas coach roused the Lions, and when the third quarter started they wasted no time in running over three more touchdowns to pile up a 26-0 lead. But as the gun sounded, the Hoggies were still fighting, and on the verge of adding another score to the one they had tallied early in the fourth stanza. The Hoggies were playing without the services of Fullback Steve Curry.

Stretch, Corky, stretch!

CARDINALS 14

Quarterback John Ormand, who had been out most of the season with injuries, started the game in Beaumont against Lamar Tech and performed brilliantly in leading the Javelinas to their second Lone Star victory. Ormand scored a touchdown, passed for 115 yards and another TD, and called a near-perfect game. It was one contest that the Hoggies can be said to have dominated practically all the way. The Cardinals' only real threats were two long runs by their 210-pound halfback, Raymond Meyers, who took a pass and rambled 74 yards for a touchdown and later returned a punt 90 yards for another score.

JAVELINAS 20 AZTECAS 13

November 20 the Javelinas traveled to McAllen to contest the Aztecas of Mexico City College in a game that the Hogs considered a home engagement. The Mexico City contract called for a return engagement in Mexico City for the Hoggies the following year. The Aztecas brought a well-rounded squad with them, made up mostly of players who had performed in United States colleges before going to MCC. A little scat-back by the name of Alex Esquivel kept the Javelinas alert, but several Hoggies performed well also. John Ormand turned in a good game in the man-under position and Steve Curry, playing for the first time in several games, scored one of the Hoggie touchdowns. Norman "Red" Smith, playing his first game of the season, made several beautiful pass catches.

Bridges on keeper.

JAVELINAS 6 TRINITY 41

Trinity University, unbeaten in 15 straight games before its game with the Hogs, added their sixteenth victory to the tune of 41-6 in the final game of the season for the Hogs November 26 in San Antonio. A terrific display of hard bruising ground gains proved too much for the outmanned Javs, who were playing without the services of three of their outstanding performers. Hall Whitley, Sid Douthit, and Steve Curry were all out with injuries and did not see action in the game. It was a hard pill for the Hogs to swallow—that terrific beating in the final game of the season—but we know that they played the best and hardest that they could in every game all season and we can be proud to say that we had a fightin' team and one that will cause plenty of trouble in seasons to come.

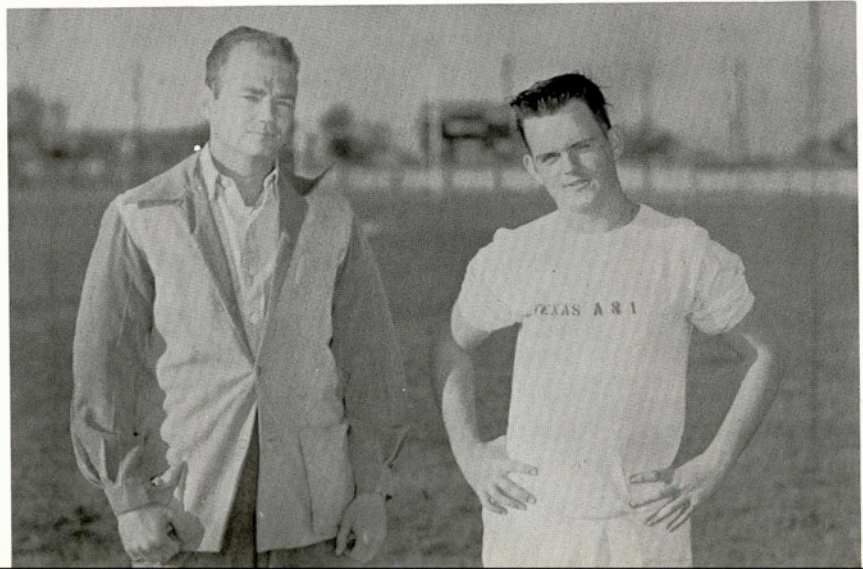

"Putter" goes for five.

TRACK

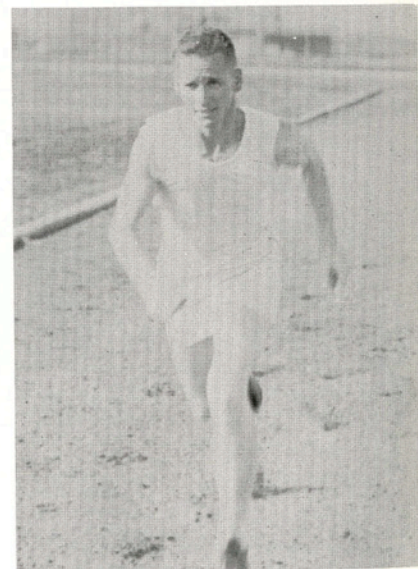

WARREN STANSBERRY, Weslaco

Since El Rancho goes to press before the track season is far advanced, no record of the Javelinas' performances can be presented here. Following a dual meet with Pan American College and participation in the Border Olympics at Laredo, the Hogs were scheduled to take part in the Texas Relays, the track meet at the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show, an All-College meet at San Marcos, and possibly a meet in Louisiana. To climax the season, the Javelinas were to be hosts at A&I to the annual Lone Star Conference meet.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

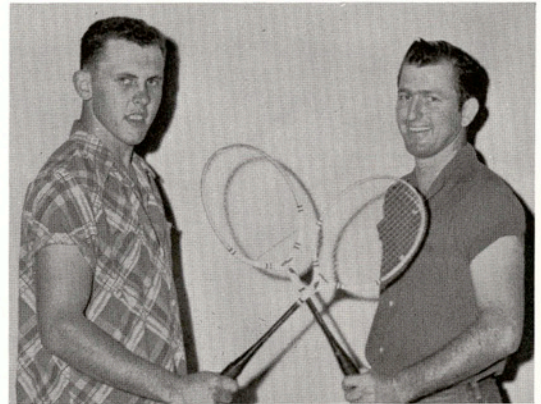

By no means all physical education at A&I takes place in varsity contests or HPE classes. Hundreds of students compete throughout the year in a well-rounded program of intramural sports ranging from touch football to archery. Presented on these pages are a few of the many competitors.

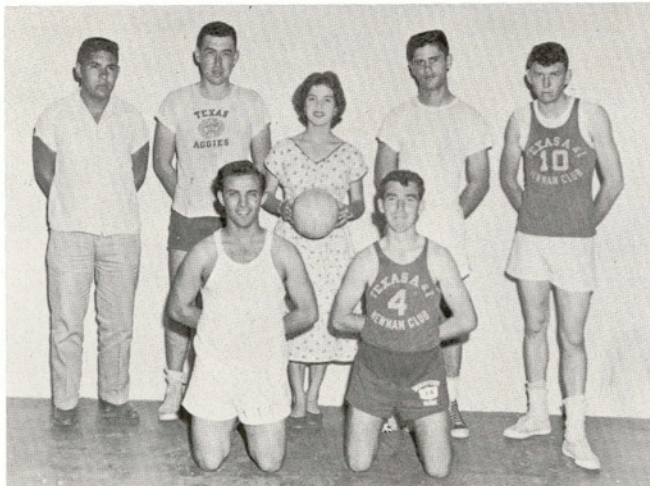

The Aggies, of the Organizational League, were all-college intramural touch football champions. From left, back row: Hicks, Pybus, Krivacka, Madden, Flinn; front: Gosling, Olsovsky, Treybig. Others: Shudde, Arnim, Love, Hix, Leggett, Beamguard, Rampmeier, Fuller, Wills, Smith, Nauman, Williams, Kinsel, Seale, Anderson, Wagner.

All-college pool doubles winners were Pete Schweikhardt (shooting) and Freddie Wilson of the Kingsville Club.

W. C. Gosling (left) and Harry Treybig, of the Aggies, were Organizational League winners in badminton doubles.

Organizational league winner in volley ball was the Newman Club. From left, standing: Duarte, J. Correa, Sara Duenas (manager), Trdla, A. Correa; kneeling: Garcia, Ramos.

Estella Reyes, of WRA, won second place in archery in girls' intramurals.

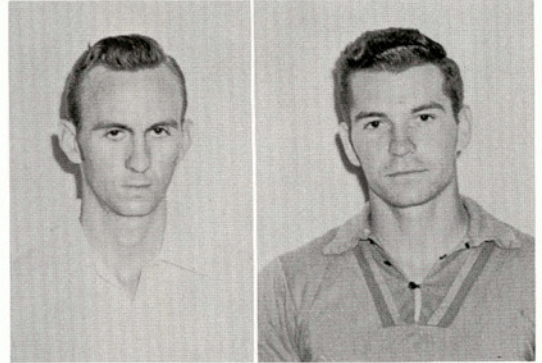

Wynonah Roe, of WRA, was first-place winner in girls' badminton singles.

Roy Dale Awbrey of the Kingsville Club, all-college badminton singles winner.

Paula Wilson and Andrea Gonzalez, of WRA, were girls' champions in badminton doubles.

This is how those WRA girls get and keep those shapely figures.

Two points for WRA—maybe.

J. Lee Conquest of the Kingsville Club, all-college table tennis singles champion.

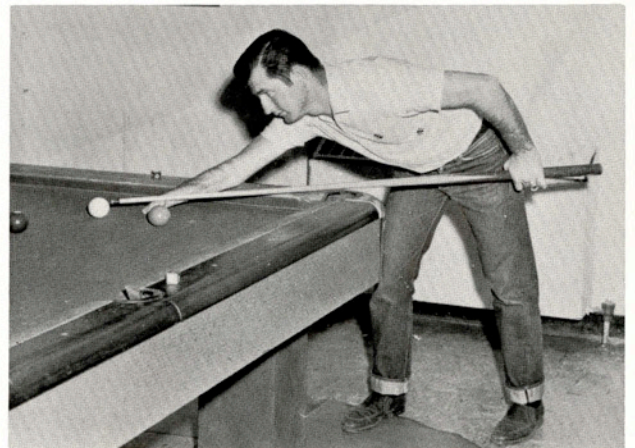

Katy Grimm, of BSU, took first place in girls' table tennis singles.

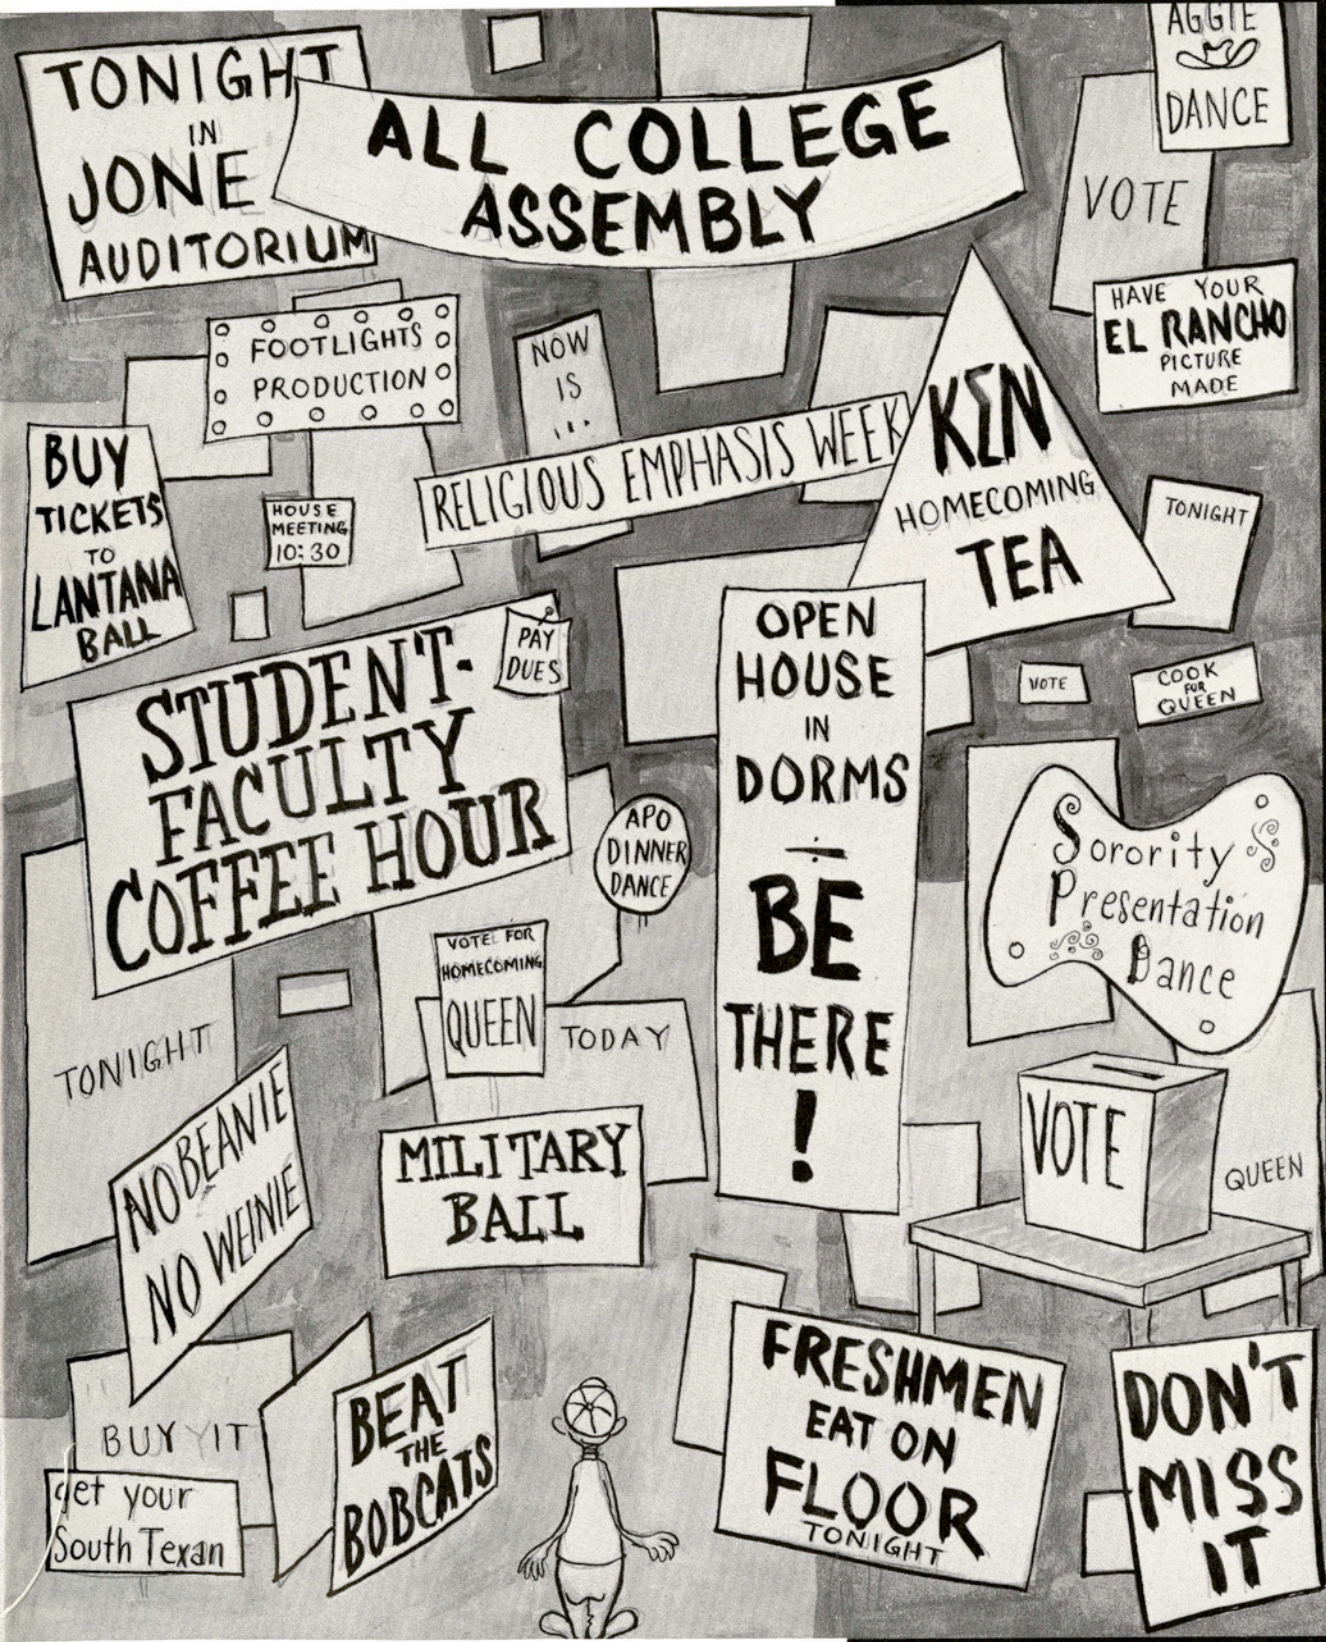

John H. Hensley, of the Gauchos, was all-college pool singles champion.

Here we go again!

Harry Treybig was winner for the Aggies in Organizational League pool singles.
