Home economics majors practice home management in the Home Economics Cottage under the direction of Miss Faye Bible. Enjoying the home-like atmosphere of the Cottage are Katherine Patton, Shirley Clark, Melba Atzenhoffer, Miss Bible, and Grace Butler.

Dr. R. S. Dale watches Tommy Harris as he convinces Mike Flynn that the saddle is a good buy.

Miss Dorothy Gaston pauses a moment during typing class to check LaRue Green's and Sharon White's keyboard exercises.

A&I CITRUS AND VEGETABLE TRAINING CENTER

The Citrus and Vegetable Training Center is located near Weslaco, in the lower Rio Grande valley. The eighty-acre site was donated to the college in 1947. Here, a laboratory has been developed for providing advanced training for students majoring in horticulture and special courses for persons interested in citrus and vegetable growing.

AMERICAN GOVERNMENT

NATIONAL CONSTITUTION

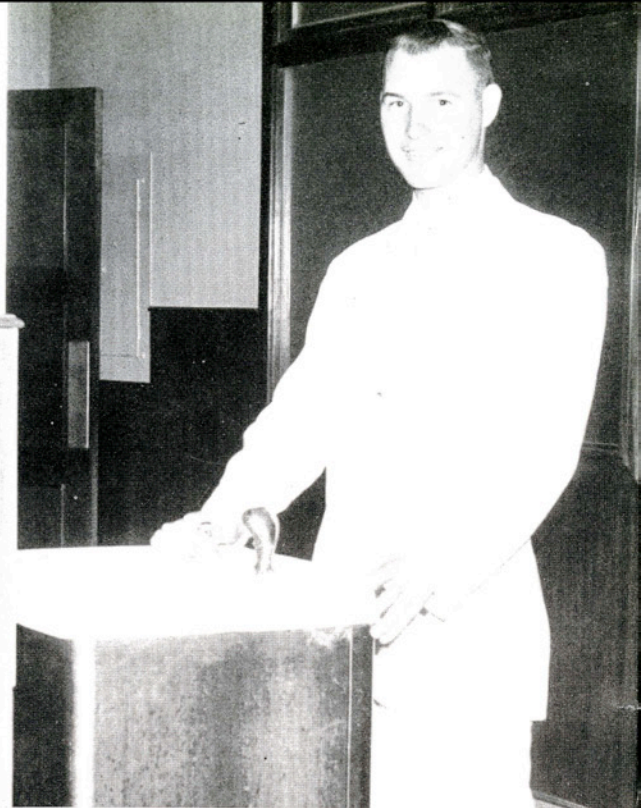

186 805

Who's Who

ELLIS WIND—Ellis has shown leadership ability as president of the Engineers Club. He is the kind of person everyone likes to see get ahead. A senior from Danevang.

JOE BLEVINS—Joe is quiet but always busy. A hard worker, he is president of the Aggie Club and vice president of the R.O.T.C. Officers Club.

Who's Who

STANLEY COLE—Stanley is always ready with a listening ear and an encouraging word. A senior Agriculture major, he is a member of Alpha Tau Alpha and president of the Baptist Student Union.

ANN COPELAND—As female representative-at-large to the Student Council, Ann has displayed a conscientious willingness to help in all phases of student activity. She has represented the B.A. club two years as Lantana Lady.

LEWIS DILLON—Lewis has shown an interest in campus activities since he entered A&I three years ago. A mainstay in the Aggie Club and FFA, this year he turned his energy toward the Student Council as male representative-at-large.

JEAN CLAIRE GARNER—A junior speech major, Jean Claire is reliable and versatile. She has been a member of the Student Council, A Cappella Choir and Footlights Club since her freshman year at A&I.

Who's Who

CHARLES NEAL—Charles has a ready smile for everyone. As vice-president of the Student Council, he handled the school elections and parliamentary details with finesse.

JAMES BUTLER—An outstanding government major, James heads the Student Council Advisory Board and ROTC Headquarters Company. He's always reliable and trustworthy.

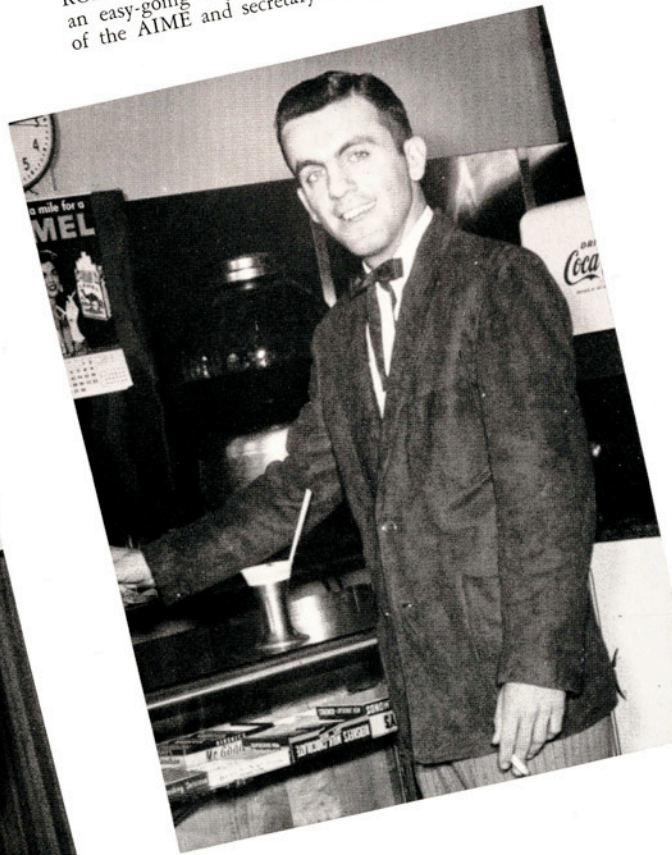

KATE CLARKSON—Kate has a special knack for mixing studies with extra-curricular activities. She manages to keep a high scholastic record along with her duties as president of the Association of Women Students.

ROBERT SCHWEBEL—An engineering major, Robert has an easy-going way of getting jobs done. He is president of the AIME and secretary of Sigma Tau.

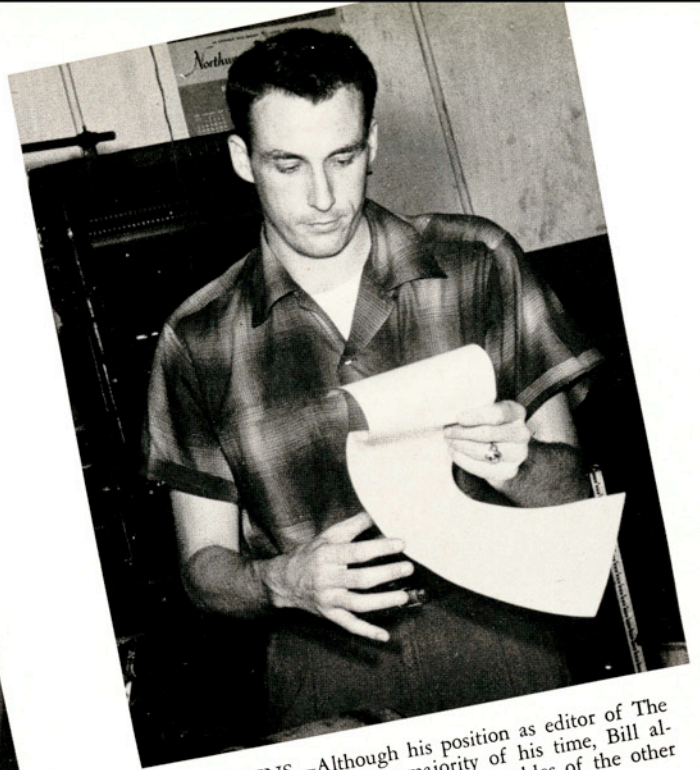

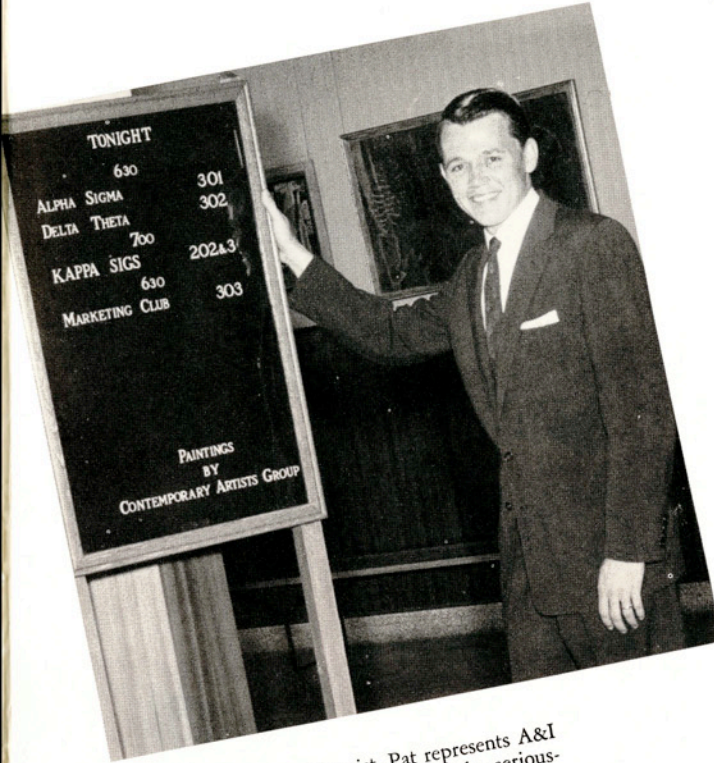

KENNETH LOWREY—A determined person yet reserved, Kenneth has earned this recognition. He is on the Student Council Advisory Board, a member of the Veterans Club and president of Sigma Tau.

DUDLEY CAMPBELL—Dudley's ability and resourcefulness inspired his classmates to elect him president of the junior class. No matter what the job, Dudley's always around to work.

Who's Who

LACY POGUE—Lacy's quiet personality has won many friendships for him at A&I. An agriculture major from Pawnee, he is president of Alpha Tau Alpha.

BILL WILKINS—Although his position as editor of The South Texan commands the majority of his time, Bill always has a moment to listen to the troubles of the other guy.

PAT CARTER—A gifted pianist, Pat represents A&I at many musical functions. She combines the seriousness with which she works and her sense of humor into a sparkling personality that is an asset to A&I.

JIM WARREN—Straight and to the point, Jim gets things done with a minimum of talk and a maximum of effort. He is president of Alpha Tau Alpha and chairman of the Lantana float committee.

NANCY RABKE—A conscientious student and member of Alpha Chi, Nancy finds time to work with many other organizations on the campus. She is president of both the Home Economics Club and Westminster Fellowship.

KENNETH WILHITE—Kenneth is well liked by everyone he meets and is known on the campus for his friendliness. He is a member of the "T" Association and active in football and track.

Who's Who

JAMES MULKEY—A second-year Who's Who, James stepped into a position calling for a lot of know-how and patience this year. As president of the Student Council, he continued his record of efficient work.

FAYE MAIVILLE—Charming and friendly, she is the queen of our campus. Faye has been Homecoming Queen and Aggie Sweetheart. This year she reigned over the Lantana Court as Queen.

Who's Who

JODIE BASSETT—Jodie has one of the highest scholastic records in the agriculture division. He is also president of the FFA and vice-president of Alpha Tau Alpha.

CAROL ANN KUESTER—as a member of the Student Union Governing Board, Carol Ann spent many hours seeing to the efficient operation of the SUB. She was also the ROTC Honorary Cadet Colonel last year.

JOHN ORMAND—John has long been known for his drive on the football field, but his drive doesn't end there as he proves as president of the "T" Association. He is also a member of Alpha Chi.

BERTHA CENTER—Bertha seems to have an endless supply of energy. She has been head cheerleader for two years. She was also this year's Homecoming Queen. When there is a job to be done, Bert can be relied upon.

MARGARET DICKENS—Quiet and reserved, "Cissy" can be depended upon to see a difficult task to completion. She has served on the AWS executive council for two years.

FLOATS—Mike Robbins, Jim Warren, Elaine Lauderbeck.

DANCE—Alan Johnston.

LANTANA CORONATION

"A Legend of Gems" was the theme of the twenty-eighth annual Lantana Coronation program. The Queen and her Ladies each represented a precious stone. Like all Lantana pageants, the 1957 edition was bigger and better than any previous one.

Notable "firsts" for this year included the introduction of formal printed invitations to the high school and college duchesses, the inauguration of an official coat-of-arms for the Queen, and elaborate exterior decorations on the Student Union Building for the Grand Coronation Ball.

PUBLICITY—Bill Kell and Caroline Hanke.

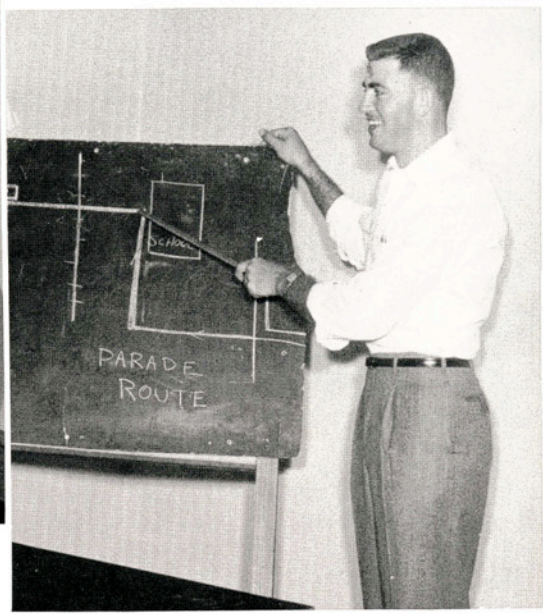

STAGE PRODUCTION—Bill Putty and Louis Weiss work on lighting effects.

STAGE PRODUCTION—Jan Ferguson, Bill Putty, Louis Weiss.

PARADE—Randy Odom, chairman.

The Baptist Student Union is a distinctive student program promoted by Baptists for students in colleges and universities. It is student-led, church-related, and Christ-centered. The objective is to promote spiritual and moral growth of the individual student. Activities are open to all A&I students.

Planning of activities is done by the executive council and its committees.

A bewildered guest on the campus before the homecoming bonfire was this Lumberjack from Stephen F. Austin.

Fried melon was on the menu for the morning watch at the bonfire. Randy Odom can hardly wait to eat.

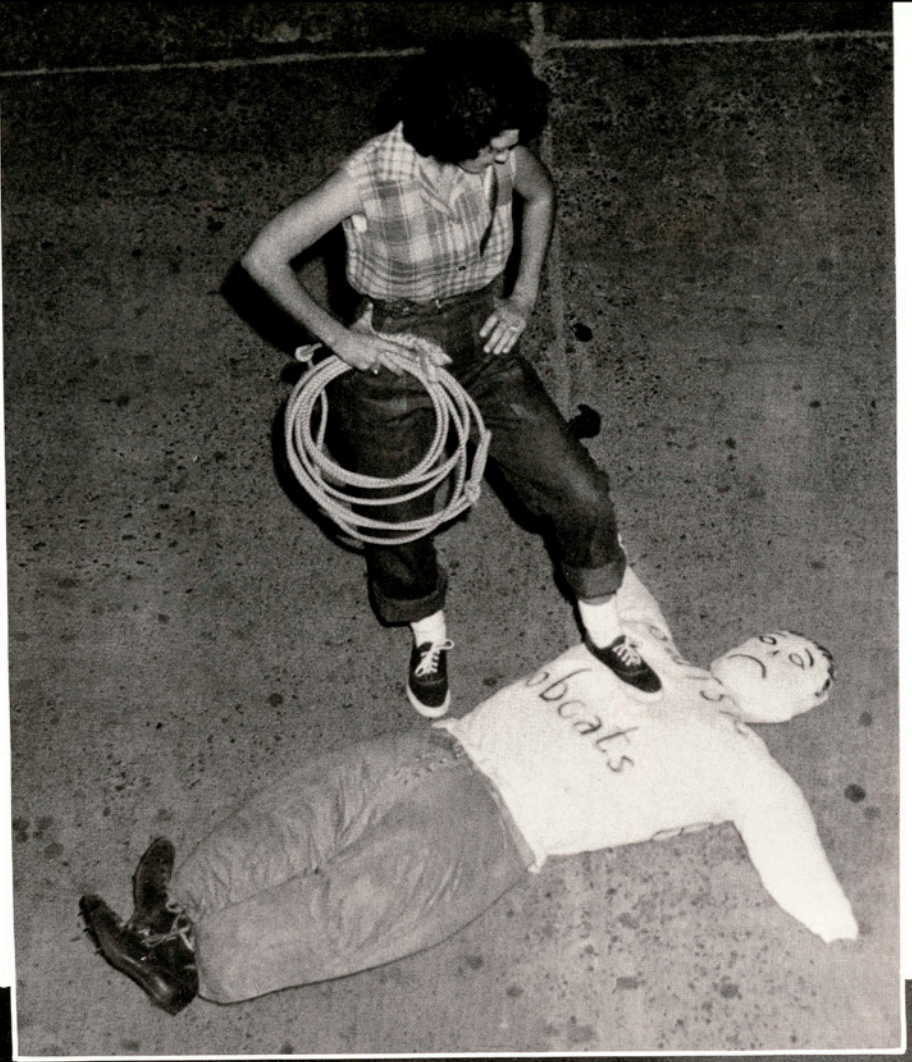

Many a good man and girl were lost at sea in the pit. The construction crew is shown looking over their work.

Bert has the best of this poor misguided Bobcat from San Marcos. A&I also got the best of them in the ball game.

The product of a lot of hard work was this year's bonfire, said by many to have been the best ever at A&I.

Mina Williams was elected the "T" Association Sweetheart for 1956. She is shown being presented at halftime of the Texas A&I-Southwest Texas State football game. Mina is being escorted by Wally Mayer and John Ormand. John is the president of the "T" Association.

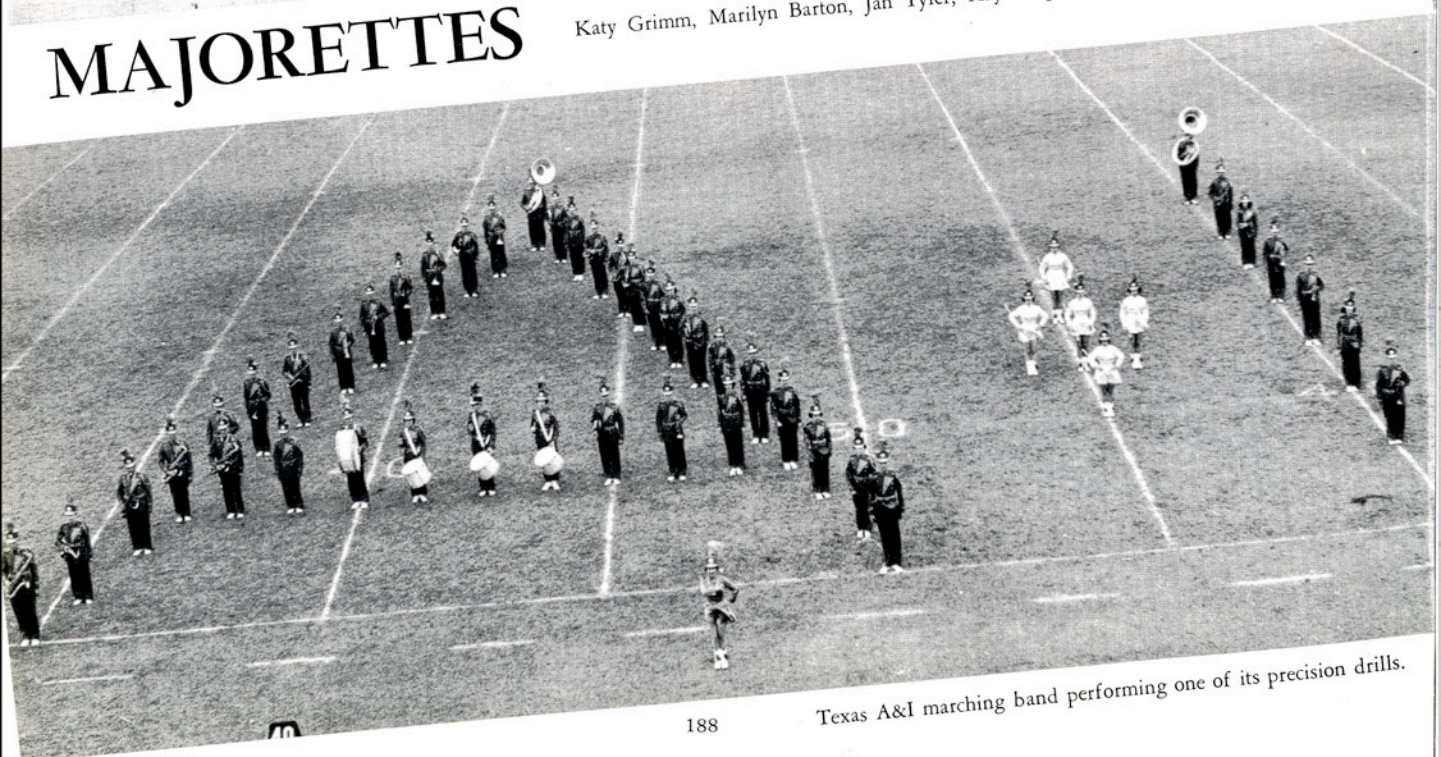

Bertha Center, senior from Alice, was elected by the student body as the 1956 Homecoming Queen. This was the first time in the history of Texas A&I that the queen has been selected in this manner. Bertha was presented at the A&I-Stephen F. Austin game. James Mulkey, president of the student body, is shown presenting roses to Bertha.

Activities

1957 was a big year for A&I, as is shown in the big crowd around the Biology Department's table during fall registration.

Freshmen Carolyn Couch, Jimmie Grant, and Ann Lewis are trying to decide what to do first, now that they are enrolled at A&I.

Six freshmen boys tried out for cheerleader at the variety show held at the Union Ballroom, the winner being Kay Kanipe, Corpus Christi.

The Hoggie cheerleaders lead the student body in some yells at the first pep rally of the year.

Pantless Sammy Bishop gives one of the Frosh a free shave while the cheerleaders look on.

This is a part of the crowd that gathered in front of the Texas Theatre to watch the climax of the Shirt-Tail parade.

Something new this year was the before-game poster parties. Here Mrs. Bishop, Bertha Center, Frank McAllister, Tommy Chutz, and Sammy Bishop are at work.

"JULIUS CAESAR"

The Footlights Club's presentation of this Shakespearean play was witnessed by thousands in its five-night run. It was the first of several major productions of the year.

Portia (Kay Ashworth) pleads with Brutus (Larry Biddison) to share his grief with her.

Brutus and Cassius (Sherry Hartsal) discuss the plot to assassinate Caesar.

The soothsayer warns Caesar to beware the Ides of March.

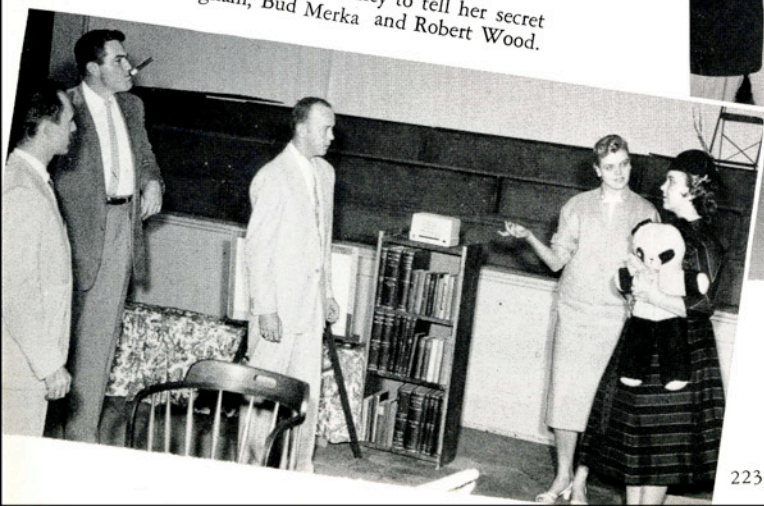

Lea Danley throws a dart at her target to the merriment of Carol Sparks, Elsa Trevino, and Guy Bazaar.

Jean Claire Garner is quite upset as Barbara O'Neal, Carol Sparks, and Jean McCoy look on.

Jean McCoy appeals to Lea Danley to tell her secret to Phil Cunningham, Bud Merka and Robert Wood.

"THE CURIOUS SAVAGE"

"The Curious Savage" was the first arena production of the year. The play concerned life at the Cloisters, a home for the mentally unbalanced.

Ted Davenport entertains Barbara O'Neal, Lea Danley and others with his "Artistry" as a violinist.

The good shepherds, portrayed by Gilbert Burrell and Larry Biddison, have just found that the not-so-good shepherd (Darrell Vaughter) has stolen their sheep.

The three Good Shepherds, Larry Biddison, Roland T. Norris, T. Gilbert Burrell, discuss the night's activities.

"THE SECOND SHEPHERDS' PLAY"

This play was the highlight of the Christmas season for the dramatics department. A medieval English play, it was the second such play presented by the Footlights Club. After the play, a light supper was given in honor of a portion of the faculty.

The final scene of the play finds Barbara Petry, Darrell Vaughter, Joanlee Smith, Faye Maiville, Gilbert Burrell, Larry Biddison, Ronnie Norris all on stage.

FRESHMAN FOLLIES 1956

This annual event was presented in Jones Auditorium December 6. This year the follies were presented in the form of a television program. The event was a success.

Patty King and Kathy Davenport did a singing (?) commercial.

Seven delightful models presented what the well dressed girl should wear this year.

Al Hunter stole the show with his rendition of several popular songs.

The Freshmen had their own version of "Elvis Presley". The talented young man is Eddie Giese.

Dr. Glock tries his hand

. at submerging Dr. McCrocklin.

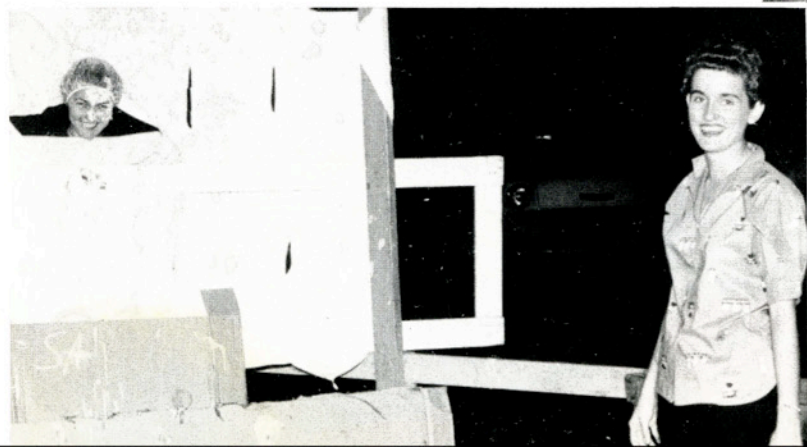

The B. A. Club sponsored a penny pitch at this year's S.U.B. Carnival. Attendants are Louie Korenek and Charles Stewart.

"Only 15c a throw" says Barbara Rasco, trying to talk someone into throwing a pie at one of her Beta Gamma sisters.

Helen Shultz was the turnkey for the WRA Jail.

S. U. B. CARNIVAL

Dr. and Mrs. McCrocklin give the Kiss-O-Meter a workout.

Paula Baldwin was crowned "Miss Hotlips" by Bill Kell.

James Butler and Kathryn Elias won a string of pearls and a lighter for having the best corsage.

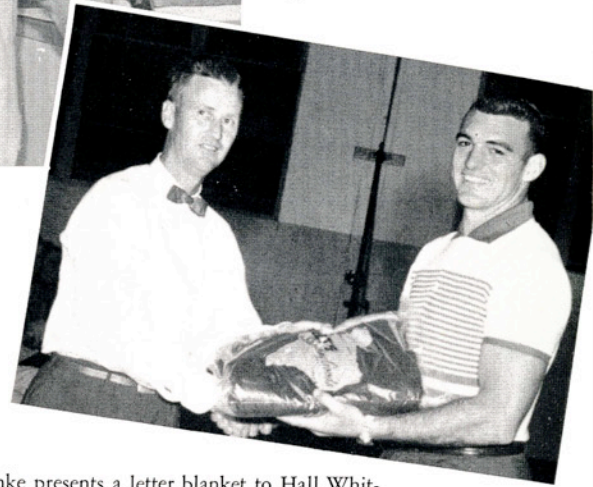

PRESS CLUB DANCE

Several couples gather up balloons at the Press Club Backward Dance, one of the best dances of the year by reason of ingenious entertainment provided.

No happy faces here. This is where every student must pay his fees

Coach Steinke presents a letter blanket to Hall Whitley, A&T's second team Little All-American.

Larry Hickham buys a magazine from "Pop" Lanier, owner of one of the landmarks around the campus, the "T-Jac."

Sul Ross couldn't stop the Hoggies, but a flat tire did. The incident happened on their way back from Alpine.

The free dance sponsored by the A.W.S. was a gala affair and a fine time was had by all.

The twelve freshmen calendar girls were the high point of the Variety Show.

The annual Dad's Day celebration was highly successful this year. Here, several of the Dads are shown at the barbecue given in their honor at the King Ranch.

Karl McKinney, baritone, and Kay Kanipe, tenor, in one of the Opera Workshop productions.

Lunch time at the Goode Boarding House.

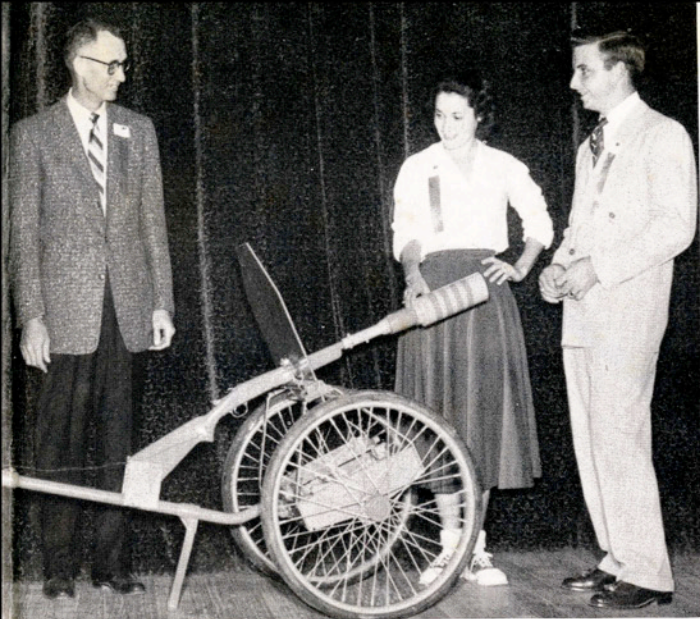

Freshman boys are having "fun" in the lounge of May Hall.

The 1956-57 edition of the Blue Notes, under the direction of James May, played for important campus functions.
