Life at Texas A&I is stimulating because of the varied contributions of many persons and many organizations. Education, the goal of college life, is attained in greater degree because of activities which flourish on the campus. The staff of the 1961 El Rancho has labored earnestly to bring you a record of both classroom and extra-classroom activities. We hope you will find this record one that will evoke many pleasant memories in the years ahead.

Enjoying a game of table tennis are Betty Williams and Woody Wright and Bobbie Berry and Bobby Killough.

Wayne Gidden and Bobbie Berry stand at a door that is open to all students.

The piano is a favorite with many students; here Nancy Gidden and David Glazener enjoy playing it.

Troy Roseman, Wayne Gidden, Bobby Killough, Jack Collis and other BSUs attend vesper services, which are conducted each school day.

Wayne Gidden and Roger Berry share a magazine in the Center.

Betty Williams and Jack Collis chat at the BSU.

Donnal Timmons teaches a credit course in Bible in the BSU.

Jack Collis, Bobbye Burnam, Wayne Gidden, and Karen Wheeler do some of their studying in the BSU.

A & I JAVELINA MARCHING BAND

The A&I marching band presented many halftime performances for the Hoggie fans. The band and choir combined to present a special performance at halftime of the Homecoming football game. Numerous late afternoon practice sessions were necessary to work out to perfection the intricate drills and formations used in the band's gridiron appearances.

The Cheerleaders lead the football team through the victory line at one of the games.

Here are the men who have guided the Javelinas to championship honors and bowl victories two consecutive years, Gil Steinke, head football coach and director of athletics, is an all-time Javelina star who played professional ball with the Philadelphia Eagles before turning to coaching. During his seven years as head coach at A&I, his teams have compiled a record of 49 wins, 25 losses, and 2 ties. Jack Little, line coach, was an All-

American at Texas A&M and a professional football player with the Baltimore Colts before coming to Texas A&I. Gene Greene, backfield coach, was an outstanding Javelina halfback in 1949. He coached at Boling before joining the A&I staff in 1959. Ted Carley, head basketball coach and football scout, is a former North Texas State athlete who was director of athletics at Schreiner Institute before becoming a Javelina mentor.

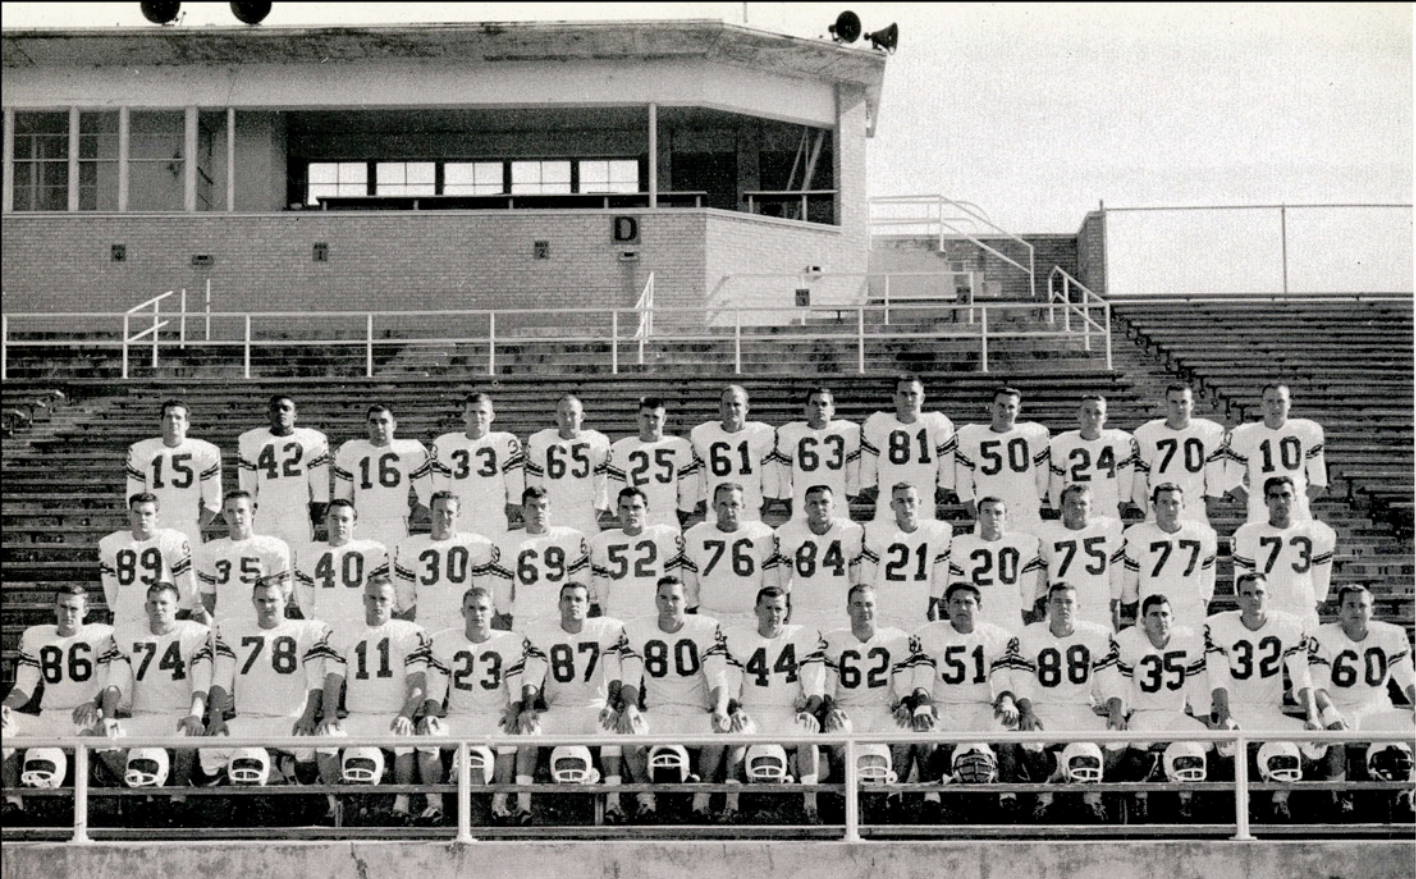

JAVELINA COACHES

Gerald Lambert, student coach, for A&I, was a three-year letterman for A&I, and won NAIA Little All-American honors as co-captain of the 1959 team.

Dick Watson, student coach, is an outstanding track star for A&I and also figured prominently in last year's Holiday Bowl gridiron victory.

BASKETBALL

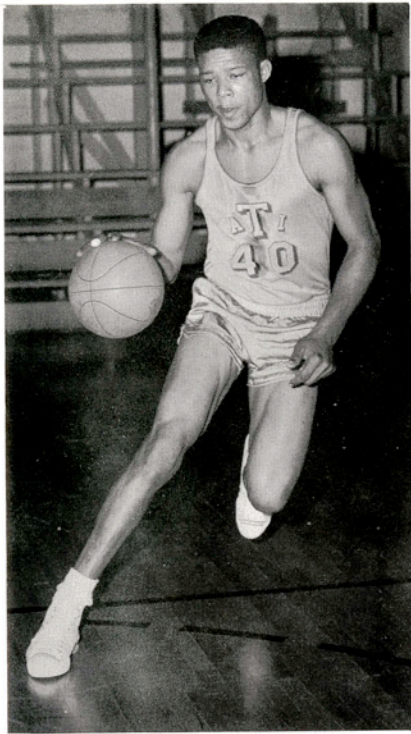

Hoggies in the huddle before the game for last minute instructions.

A hustling bunch of Hoggies overcame a lack of experience and height to give A&I its first winning season since the 1957-58 campaign. The Jav cagers, with only 4 seniors on the 11-man team, compiled a 12-11 season record to triple last year's 4-19 mark. The Javs found the going a lot rougher in conference competition and were able to win only 4 out of 14 loop games played.

Following the season's end, Hank Allen, Phil Shirk, and Leonard Anderson were named to the Lone Star Conference honorable mention list. Anderson was also elected honorary captain for the year. Shirk and Allen led the team in both the rebounding and scoring departments.

Shirk, as did all the freshmen, improved as the season progressed and gave promise of a bright future to A&I's basketball scene.

Although the El Rancho deadline came before the Javelina cindermen competed in any major meet, hopes were high for a successful year.

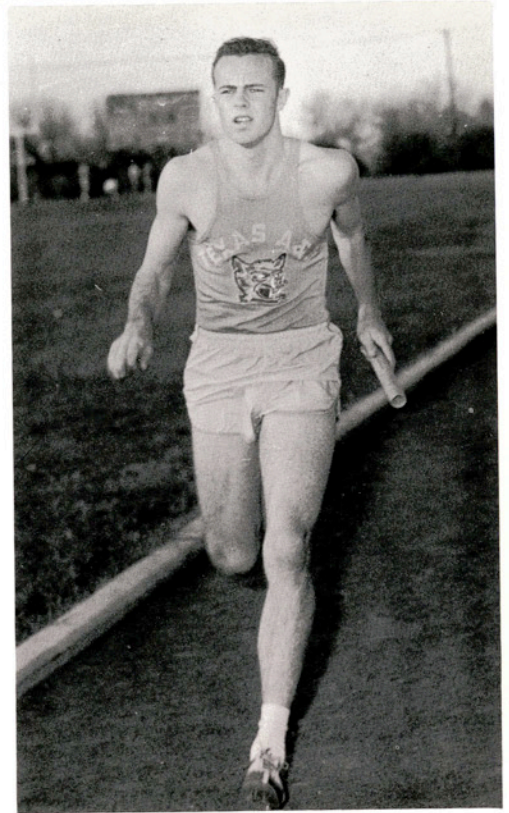

While the team had a nucleus of seven lettermen, including hurdle, relay and distance star Dick Watson, depth posed a problem for the Hog thin-clads.

The Javs have scheduled several major meets, ending the season at the conference meet in Commerce during early May, and, barring injuries, the Hoggies might well turn out to be the surprise team of the conference.
