ACTIVITIES

Lady Sharon Hill, escorted by Phil Jackson, wore a gown of poppy glow peau-de-soie, and the empire waist and bodice were covered with gold bugle beads. The gown was topped with a square neckline and tiny shoulder straps and oyster-shade gloves completed her attire.

LADY SHARON Infinity

Lady Sharon depicted her realm with a solo and dance number. Irma Montemayor sang and George Montemayor, Leslie Sklorenko, and Karen McMillan were the dancers.

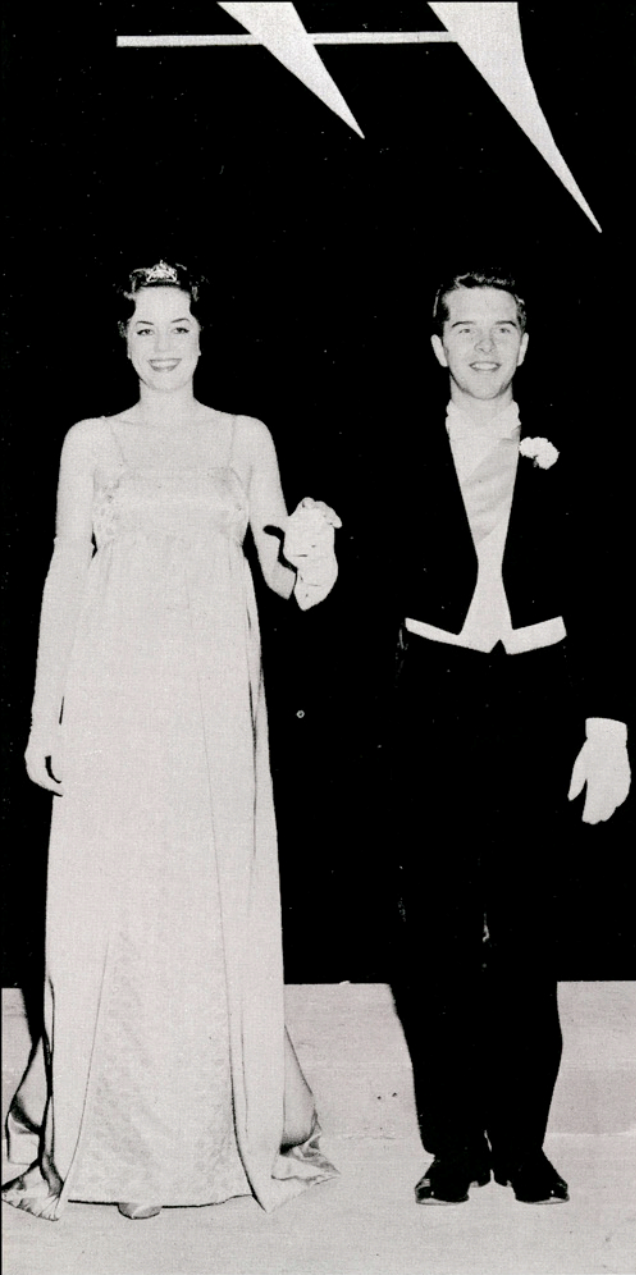

Lady Mary Loyce presented light rays through a dance entitled "Heat Wave." Margot Ortegon, Suzanne Holmes, Lillie Garcia, Carolyn Gossett, Karen McMillan, and Becky Goodwin danced.

LADY MARY JOYCE Light Rays

Escorted by Farron Camp, Lady Mary Joyce Beck, wore a gown of deep violet satin. Lace-framed, inverted pleats in the front and back of the A-line skirt were set off by a round neckline and bell sleeves. White lace gloves complemented the picture.

Lady Mary Ann Borchers, escorted by Bobby Nedbalek, wore a straight gown of gold glittered brocade with a square neckline and tiny shoulder straps. Attached to the empire waistline was a draping of gold satin, and gold gloves complemented her ensemble.

LADY MARY ANN Perpetual Motion

Lady Mary Ann exhibited perpetual motion in a comic dance which featured Jane Lewis and Maddie Pellegrino. Also dancing were Margot Ortegon, Suzanne Holmes, and Carolyn Gossett.

Lady Sharlot showed motion through music by "Saints in Three-D." The A&I Singers sang "When the Saints go Marching In" in various styles as they followed it through the history of time.

LADY SHARLOT Motion Through Music

Lady Sharlot Shelton, escorted by Monte Rouquette, wore a red satin gown with a square neckline and a high waistline framed by panels of red lace. The lace held sequins outlining its floral design, and her gloves were of red satin and lace.

LADY VICKI Timelessness

Escorted by Gerald Jurica, Lady Vicki Vandermeer wore a strapless sheath gown of burnt orange brocade. A floor-length drape of coca chiffon fell from the shoulder, and white leather gloves finished the effect.

Lady Viki brought timelessness to the Land of Lantana through a satire titled "That Were the Week That Weren't." Joe Gomez and Nina Jackel were the performers.

Lady Carole offered a dramatic reading, "A las Cinco de la Tarde." Judith Short did the reading backed by a male chorus. It was adapted from the original by Kemper Stewart.

LADY CAROLE Moment in Time

Lady Carole Meyer, escorted by Leo Womack, wore a Teal blue satin gown with a bodice covered with chandelier crystal drops. The A-line skirt dropped to add an overskirt illusion, and matching gloves added the finishing touch.

Queen Madis Smith, escorted by Woody Hagen, wore a gown of heavy white satin covered with pale lemon chiffon. At the high empire waist she had a cluster of jewels, and the cape was of white brocade satin with a back panel in jewel design. The ensemble was completed by long white opera gloves. Queen Madis' Ladies in Waiting wore dresses of pale yellow satin decorated with pale yellow lace and iridescent sequins. Long yellow gloves completed their attire.

QUEEN MADIS

Unsubstantial Nonexistence

Queen Madis brought the ultimate of the fourth dimension, unsubstantial nonexistence, as exhibited by "Jazz Incubus," an abstract dance describing this abstract concept. Karen McMillan, Margot Ortegon, Suzanne Holmes, Blanca Abrego, Maddie Pellegrino, Beck y Goodwin, Jane Lewis, Carolyn Gossett, Lillie Garcia, Rogelio Rodriquez, Leslie Sklorenko, and George Montemayor danced in the finale.

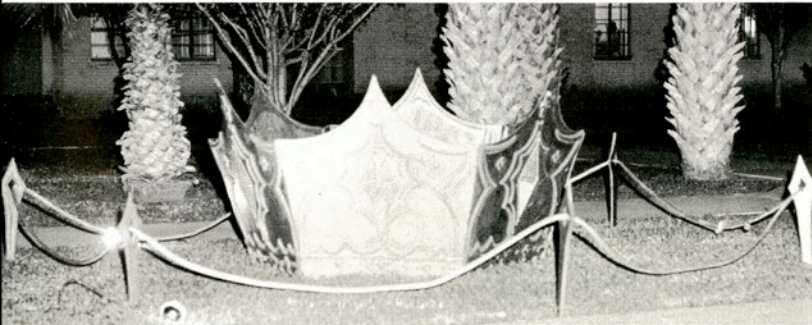

Lady Carole Meyer and her escort bow low to the queen as they are presented.

Queen Regent Wanda Lehman surrendered her crown to Queen Madis. She is shown here with her husband as they are presented to the audience.

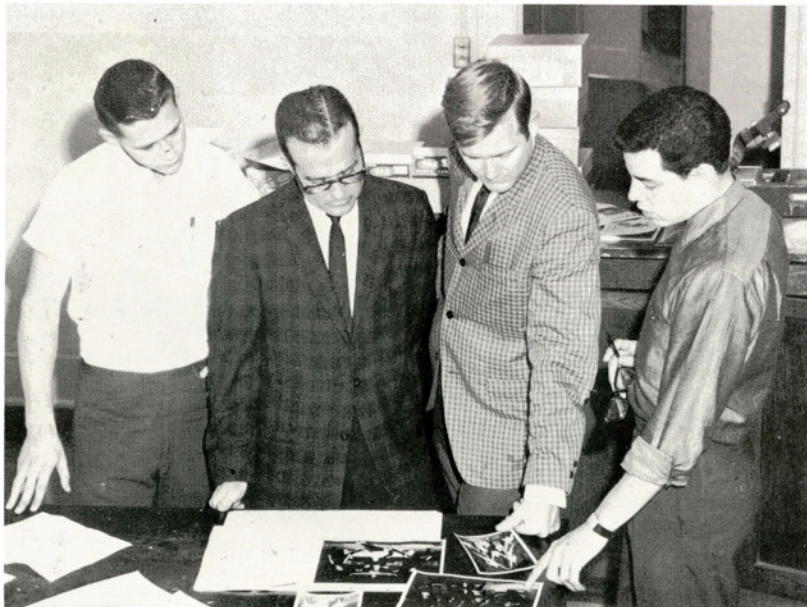

The crown of Lantana adorns the SUB lawn.

MASTER OF CEREMONIES
Kemper Stewart

The Lantana committee, H. F. Warns, Dr. William Hall, Mr. James Hobbs, and George Montemayor review pictures of the dancers for the coronation.

Queen Regent Wanda Waddell Lehman crowns the new queen, Madis Smith, in the 35th Annual Lantana celebration.

MISTRESS OF CEREMONIES

The 1963 season was a year of growth and frustration for the Blue and Gold gridders. Well-played, hard-fought games early in the season seemed to fulfill the pre-season predictions, but three straight losses toward the end of the year dampened the spirits of the dauntless Hogs.

A strong Sam Houston State squad downed the Javs in Huntsville for the first blemish on the slate. Prior to that the Hogs piled up four straight victories in relatively easy fashion.

A huge Homecoming crowd of 10,000, largest ever to witness a game in Javelina Stadium, gazed on as Blanks, Johnson, and Company turned on the offensive power, and the stout-hearted defense stopped the Lions scoring thrusts cold.

Two of the bitterest defeats were to Stephen F. Austin and Lamar Tech. In Nacog-

GILBERT STEINKE
Head Coach

GENE GREENE
Back Coach

BILL PURSER
Line Coach

Football Coaching Staff

These are the men who guide the fortunes of the A&I gridiron team.

Gil Steinke, head coach and director of athletics, is the man who is responsible for the win-loss record of the Javelinas. Steinke is an ex-A&I star, who played professional football with the Eagles before returning to A&I to coach.

Since coming to A&I, he has molded championship teams which have dominated the Lone Star Conference. In the past four years he has compiled an outstanding 69-31-4 record.

Coach Greene also is an ex-A&I gridder. He coached at Boling before coming back to A&I in 1959. Since then he has coached some of the most power-packed explosive backfields in the state of Texas. Greene has trained several Little All-Americans, including Sid Blanks.

Bill Purser came to A&I in 1962 from HPC where he was line coach for two years. While at HPC he developed a reputation for rugged defensive lines. Coming to A&I, he wasted little time in proving his ability as the 1962 Jav line gave up fewer points per game than any other conference team.

Ronnie Hunt is the man who keeps the Hoggie players on the field in spite of their injuries. Ronnie was appointed athletic trainer for the college in the fall.

This hard-rushing Hoggie back is finally halted by a horde of Tigers.

Hoggies Trounce Tigers in Season Opener

Leading Jav pass receiver Sid Blanks snares this pass in the first game of the season.

TRINITY

The Javelines opened the 1963 season in fine style by bludgeoning the Trinity Tigers 27-0. A capacity crowd watched as the Javelinas wheeled and dealed, romped and stomped making the San Antonions look like paper mache Bengals.

Bear Brown pierced the Trinity defense for the first six points of the season. Blanks then scored twice with Unbehagen receiving in the end zone for one conversion. With one minute remaining, Mike Ellis took a pass in the end zone from Randy Johnson, and Mario Meno converted to round out the scoring.

Bear Brown scampers past fallen Tarpons into the end zone to roll up the score for A&I.

Tarpons Fall 'neath Javelina Onslaught

Mike Ellis, Hoggie halfback, clutches the ball fiercely as he is determined to score.

UNIVERSITY OF CORPUS CHRISTI

Eight thousand, one hundred fans gazed on in amazement as Bear Brown pulverized the Tarpons.

Brown rushed for 81 yards and three scores to lead all players in these categories. Unbehagen, Blanks, and Engram also added scores. Pyszen, Rolf and Johnson all scored 2-point conversions, and Richard King booted 3 between the uprights to complete the scoring.

Fumbles and interceptions hampered the Corpus Christi unit all evening as the Javelinas made their finest showing of the season. Randy Johnson had a field day, completing seven out of nine passes for 91 yards.

HOWARD PAYNE COLLEGE

The Hoggies traveled to Brownwood and broke a long-standing jinx by beating the Paynemen on their home turf for the first time since 1953. A high-powered offense and a stout defense were combined to turn the tables.

Blanks crossed the magic line twice, with Bain plunging over for a tally and Unbehagen hauling in a Johnson aerial for the final tally. Richard King thrice separated the uprights on point-after conversions to complete the victor's scoring.

Ace passer Randy Johnson tries his luck at running, only to be rudely side-tracked.

A&I Breaks Brownwood Jinx

Sharp blocking provides the impetus for dazzling runs like this one by Bear Brown.

Aerial antics such as this pass reception excited Hoggie crowds throughout the season.

Javs Get Revenge for '62 Tie

All-American Sid Blanks leaves bodies strewn across the field when he displays the fancy footwork.

EAST TEXAS STATE

Victory was especially sweet for the Javelinas when they met the East Texas State Lions. A 17-0 final tally was partial compensation for the tie suffered in Commerce last season.

Before a Homecoming crowd of 10,000 the blue and gold warriors put on an awesome second half showing to outclass the Lions.

Randy Johnson was the star of the aerial circus with 13 completions in 22 tries for 185 yards and one touchdown. Brown gained 110 yards on 18 carries and returned a punt 28 yards to supply the ground punch.

Blanks and Johnson scored once each on the ground, and King booted a 45-yard field goal to add luster to the tallies. Danny McQuay and King completed the scoring with a one-point conversion each.

SAM HOUSTON STATE

The Hogs proved human after all by bowing down to a strong Sam Houston State team in Huntsville. After taking their first two conference games, Steink's minions ran into one quarterback named Peterson and his cohort Villerreal, who proceeded to pluck at the seams of the vaunted Javelina defense.

Peterson stuck his thumb in the scoring pie by tossing two scoring passes and legging it for the remaining tallies. Black converted on one out of four tries to down the Javelinas.

The Hoggies crossed the mark but once on a pass to L. J. Rolf from Johnson. King converted to finish the scoring.

Javelina linemen attempt to box in a Lion halfback.

Hoggies Fall in Third Loop Contest

Opposition linemen treat the Javelina backs with less than kindness when they are caught encroaching on enemy territory.

Too many Axemen are on the scene for fullback Louis Landry to fight his way through.

Javelinas Drop Second in a Row

Sid Blanks brings down his counterpart on the Lumberjack squad.

STEPHEN F. AUSTIN

The Javelinas again took the axe from the Lumberjacks of Stephen F. Austin. For the second week in a row the Hoggie offense stayed at home and the opposing defense took full advantage.

Shoddy ball handling was a contributing factor as the nimble-fingered south Texans lost the ball four times on fumbles and three times on wayward passes.

Late in the first half Frank Bain drove two yards for the only A&I score of the night. Stephen F. Austin managed two touchdowns, two extra points, and a safety in defeating the Hoggies.

LAMAR TECH

Bad ball handling again took its toll when the Redbirds from Beaumont migrated to south Texas. For the first time since October, 1958, the Javelina fans witnessed a Hoggie defeat in Javelina stadium. A field goal with only 41 seconds remaining in the game spoiled an otherwise perfect Dad's Day weekend.

It was a seesaw battle, with each team scoring twice. A&I had a one-point margin going into the final seconds, when a 25-yard field goal stunned the partisan crowd.

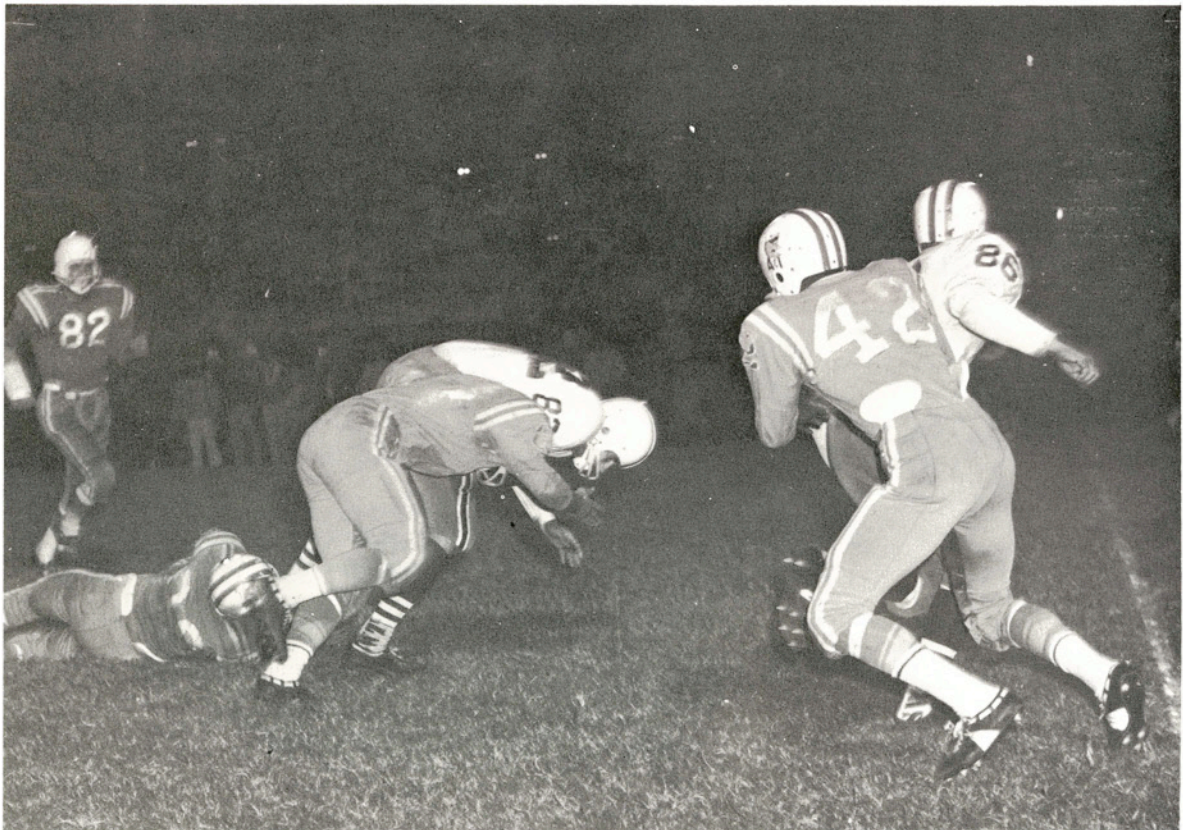

Weldon Wilson and Sid Blanks provided the scoring punch for the hometowners, with Richard King converting twice.

Sharp tackling was the key to much of the Hoggies success this year.

Last Minute Field Goal Gives LT Edge

Javelina defenders encircle an enemy back to halt his progress toward the A&I goal.

Randy Johnson scampers into the end zone, his pursuers unable to stop him.

Javs Break Three-Game Losing Skein

L. J. Rolf leaps in exuberance for a Johnson pass as an amazed official observes.

SUL ROSS

Leaving their supply base far behind them, the Javelinas went on a wolf-hunting expedition to Alpine. Not wanting to return empty handed, they took the Lobos in hand and gave them a thorough thrashing.

In spite of a few bad breaks, the Hoggies managed to tally four times before Coach Steinke turned the game over to the reserves early in the fourth quarter.

Unbehagen, Blanks, Johnson, and Brown were all able to cross the stripe, contributing to the fifth victory of the season.

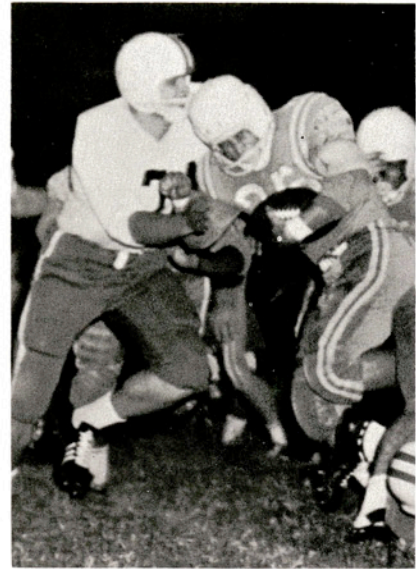

SOUTHWEST TEXAS STATE

In the final game of the season, the Javelinas took the field against the mighty Bobcats, who had their own bit of revenge planned. With memories of the 1962 defeat still fresh in the minds of the Bobcats, there was intense feeling concerning the outcome of this game.

The Bobcats exhibited their championship quality as they heartily feasted on barbequed Javelina to the turn of 20-6.

Randy Johnson was the only Hoggie able to hit paydirt on a night filled with great horror for local Javelina fans.

Beonarski scored once and Leinneweber twice to power the Bobcats to their victory. Rex Turner converted twice.

A Hoggie back is set down again after a valiant effort.

1963-64 JAVELINA CAGERS

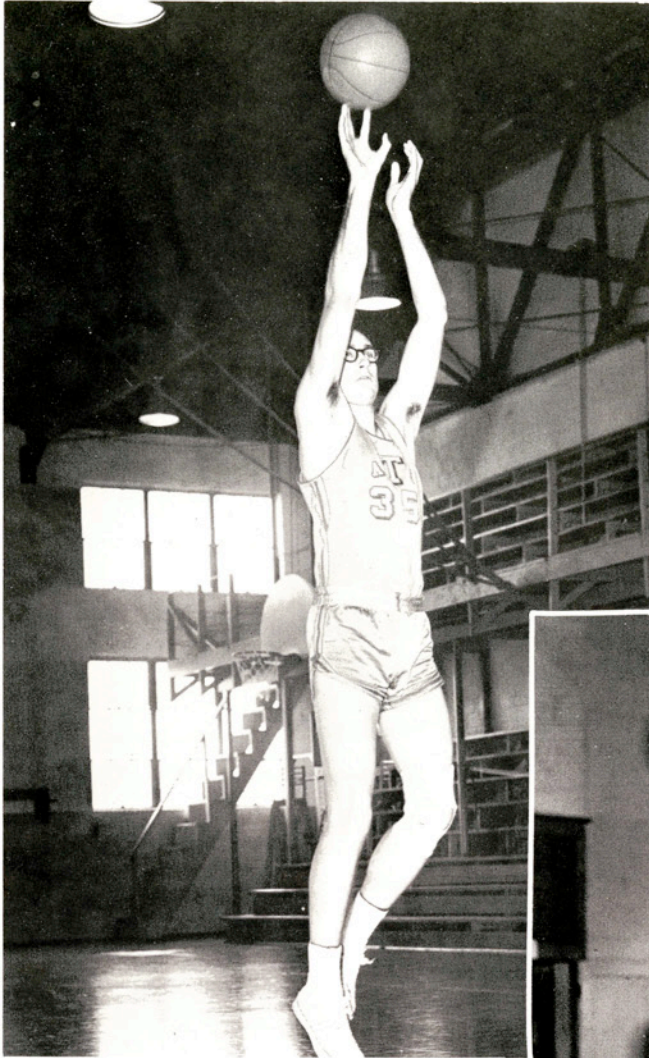

TED CARLEY
Basketball Coach

The 1963-64 edition of Coach Carley's well-oiled basketball machine included a nucleus of four seniors plus junior All-Conference performer Jim Koerner and a large group of experienced squadmen, which provided the depth that has been sorely lacking in previous years. Not since 1934 has there been a Jav team of equal caliber.

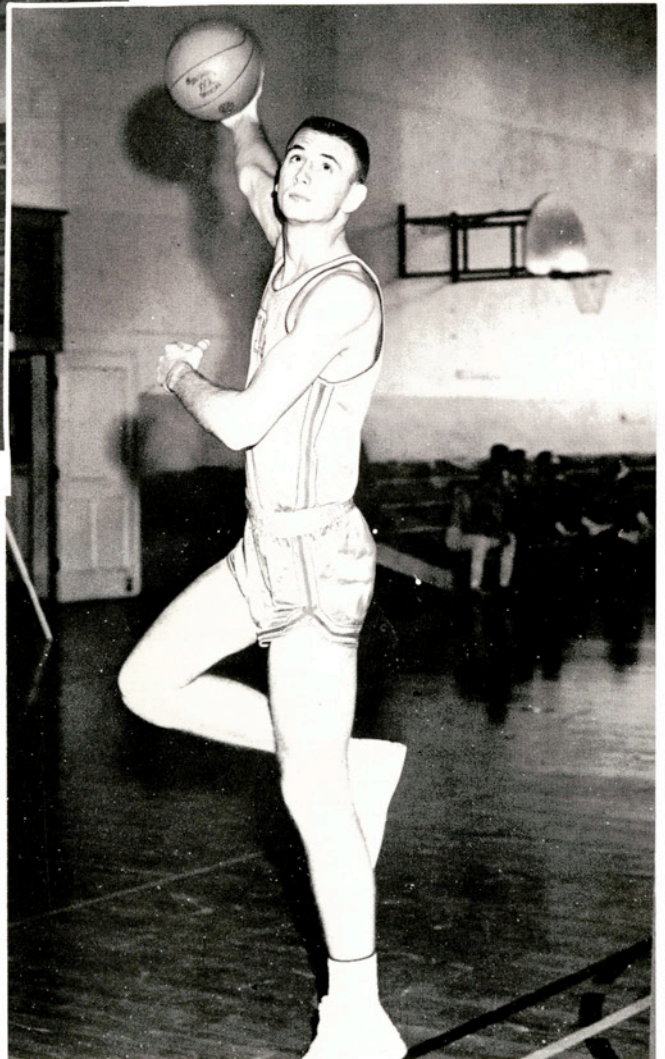

With All-American Phil Shirk and his companion-forward Charles Cothran, playmaker-guard Jerry Daniel, and sky-scraping center Jim Love leading the way, the Hoggie team forged to an impressive 16-8 record.

In non-loop play, they were set down only by perennial basketball powers Lamar Tech, Georgetown, and Emporia. In conference standing, A&I finished second to pre-season favorite East Texas State. Highlight of the conference season was the impressive win over ETS and the dynamic last-minute victories, Javelina trademarks, over Sul Ross, Howard Payne, and Southwest Texas State.

CHARLES COTHRAN
Houston
Three Letters

Injuries have plagued Cothran for the past two years. Charles is a highly accurate shooter with an intense desire to excel. In the 1963-64 season he boasted one of the finest field goal percentages in the conference, 54 percent. His overall percentage for four years was 66.6 percent. Charles is also the third leading rebounder on the team and his outstanding clutch plays, both offensively and defensively, provided the winning margin in a number of Hoggie victories.

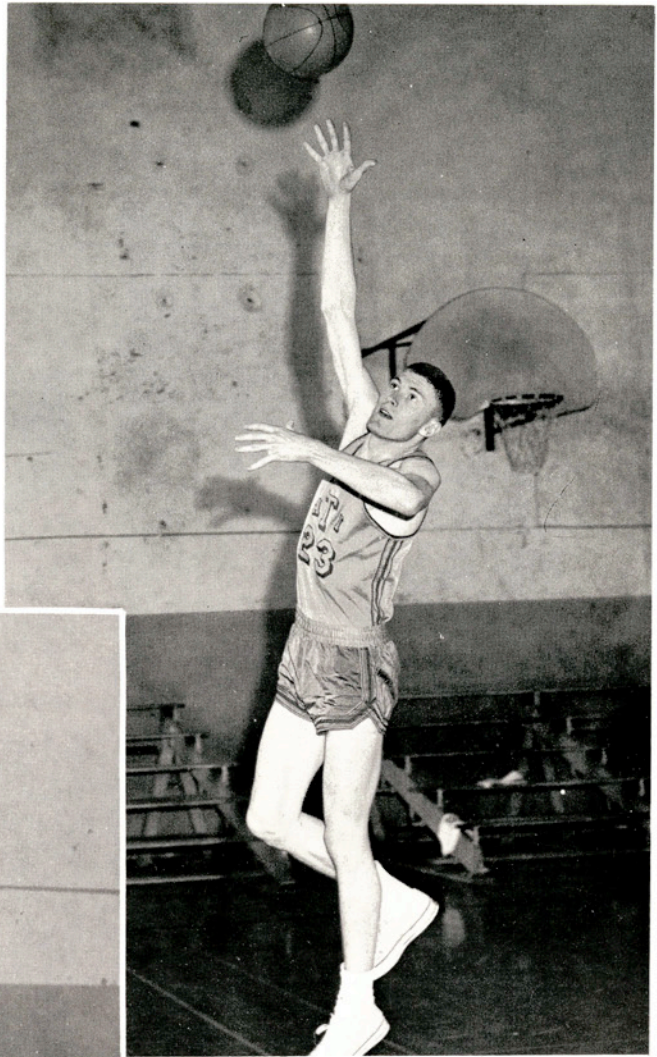

JOHN LOWE
Pasadena
Three Letters

Lowe, big man of the senior group, provides the rebound punch for the Hoggies. John came into his own last year as he became a dependable scorer and a top-notch defensive ball player. During his seniors year, John became a highly accurate shooter, posting a .448 field goal percentage. Only his fouling problem kept him from attaining a higher scoring average.

JERRY DANIEL
Muncie, Ind.
Four Letters

Daniel, captain of the Hoggies for two years, has been the undisputed leader of the Javelina quintet. Last season, Jerry spent more time on the court than any other player ever has. Due to several overtime games, he played 14 minutes more than a full season of regulation conference games. Jerry is known for his consistent shooting and free-throw average and is one of Carley's most inspirational players.

PHIL SHIRK
Middlefork, Ind.
Four Letters

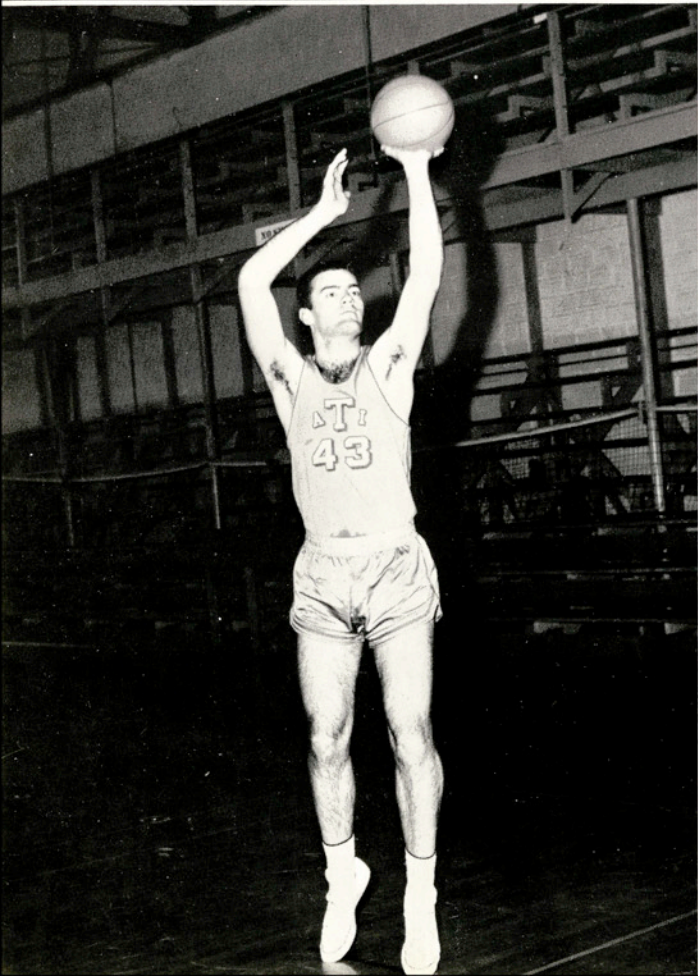

Little All-American Phil Shirk, backbone of the Hoggie Cagers for four years, again led the conference in scoring for 1963-64. The injury which kept him from participating in the last seven ball games of the 1962-63 season did not appear to hamper the effectiveness of one of the finest athletes to don the Blue and Gold. Besides being a champion shooter, Phil is one of the strongest rebounders for his size in the conference. Also Shirk is one of the top defensive players around.

A&I 81 TLC 80
A&I 63 TLC 60

In the season opener, the Javelinas treated the fans to a squeaker which saw a 75-75 final score and overtime which helped the Hoggies come out on top. Frosh Julius Farris dunked the ball with only seconds remaining to tie the score, then Charles Cot-hran stole the pass-in under the A&I goal with seconds to go in the overtime and hooked the ball in for the winning two points. In the second contest the Javelinas had to stave off a last minute surge by the TLC team to maintain their small lead. Shirk and Farris were the only players able to break into double figures with 17 and 10 respectively.

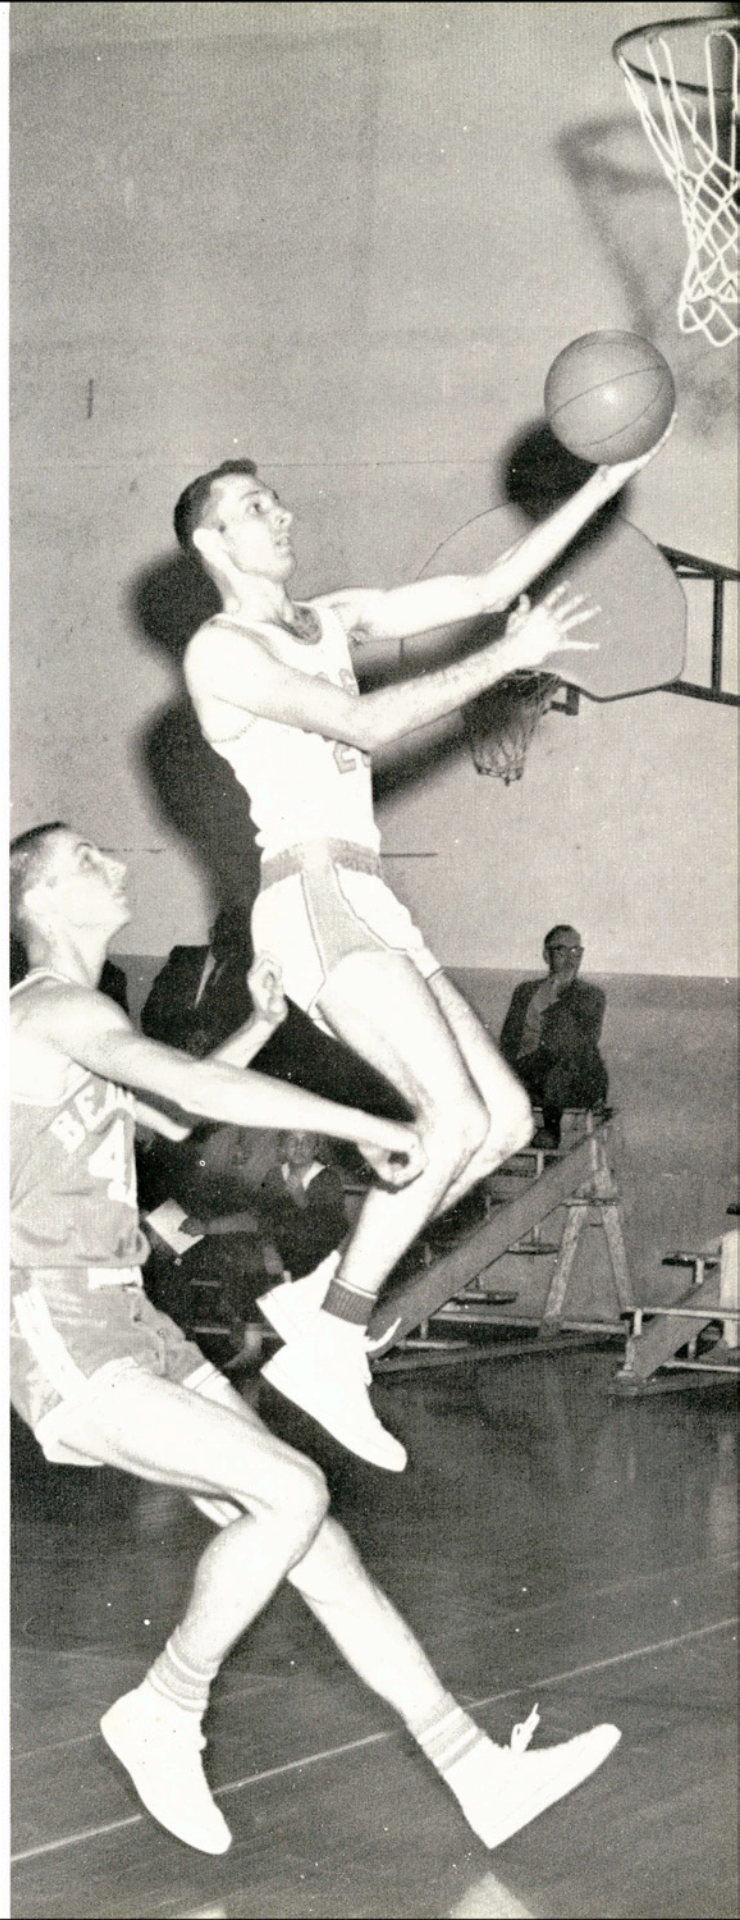

A&I 71 LT 70
A&I 78 LT 89

The Cardinals and the Javelinas swapped home court victories with A&I taking the first game in their hair-raising style. Gay Lee, who could muster only one point during the night, sank the winning free throw in the final seconds. Shirk again led the Hogs with 22 points. Lack of rebounding and a deficit in the free throw column contributed to the downfall of the Hoggies when they journeyed to Beaumont. Shirk and Koerner hit for double figures, but lack of depth in the scoring and a hometown edge gave LT the victory.

Javs Get Three And Drop One

Jim Koerner lays one up for two points.

Little All-American Phil Shirk hooks for the basket.

A&I 86 St. Mary's 83

A&I 69 St. Mary's 62

The Hoggies milked the Rattlers in their own hole to bring their total to four wins against no losses. Jim Koerner led the well rounded scoring with 20 points as Shirk, Laemmrich, and Daniel supplied double figure scores. One week later, the Snakes ventured out of their domain and once again were beaten by the Javelinas. Torrid shooting from both the floor and the foul line highlighted the Hoggie victory which saw Shirk and Koerner tickle the twine for 20 points each while Lowe garnered 16.

A&I 59 Emporia 64

A&I 75 Georgetown 80

In the Pan Am tournament the Javelinas were hampered by poor shooting and unnecessary awe of their opponents which led to two five point defeats. A weak 38 per-cent from the field in both games and poor free throw averages made the invaders' task easier. Farris topped the scoring column with 23 points in the first game, while Shirk dunked in 20 in the second. The low total scores indicate the number of players in the upper scoring brackets.

Javs Break Even

High-jumping Gus Laemmrich leaps for the ceiling to shoot over the defenders.

Jerry Daniels sticks his hand bravely into the face of a Rattler.

A&I 83 Trinity 62

Gunner Shirk blasted out 24 points as the Javelinas gunned down the Tigers. Koerner, Cothran and Daniel also hit double figures as A&I poured in a blazing 47.8 per-cent floor average.

A&I 74 SWT 70

A&I 70 UCC 60

A&I 109 UCC 77

A&I 80 UCC 61

The Hogs first ventured to Corpus Christi to tangle with the Tarpons. Shirk and Koerner led the team with 21 and 19 points each as A&I pulled off their third victory of the season. Next, the UCC gang came to Kingsville to try and redeem themselves. Fate was not with them as they bowed down to a Javelina onslaught which saw the Blue and Gold team tie their all-time high point record. Shirk hit for 32 while five others hit double figures. In their final get-together, the Tarpons' hopes went down the drain as they floundered under a flood of Hoggie baskets.

Hogs Blast Trinity, UCC

John Lowe makes an easy two over Trinity defense.

Koerner goes deep into the corner for high-flying jump shot.

A&I 70 SWT 82

A run-away decision in the first conference game at San Marcos was reversed by a spine-tingling thriller in Kingsville to close out the season. In the first game, A&I fell prey to a blistering bunch of Bobcats who shot 55 per-cent from the field. Shirk was high-point man for the night with 24 points, while Daniel tossed in 15 and Koerner added 12. The Kingsville bout was a seesaw affair that went right down to the final seconds with the outcome in doubt. Charles Cothran scored the final four points in the game and in his career to provide the winning margin. John Lowe was Top Hog of the night with 23 points with Phil Shirk following close behind with 18. The second SWT game, the last of the season, was also the last for four A&I seniors. Phil Shirk, Jerry Daniel, Charles Cothran and John Lowe, who have provided the nucleus of the team for three years, appeared for the last time in the Blue and Gold.

A&I, SWT Split Pair

John Lowe goes up for a high-flying rebound.

Gus Laemmrich reaches high over a towering defense.

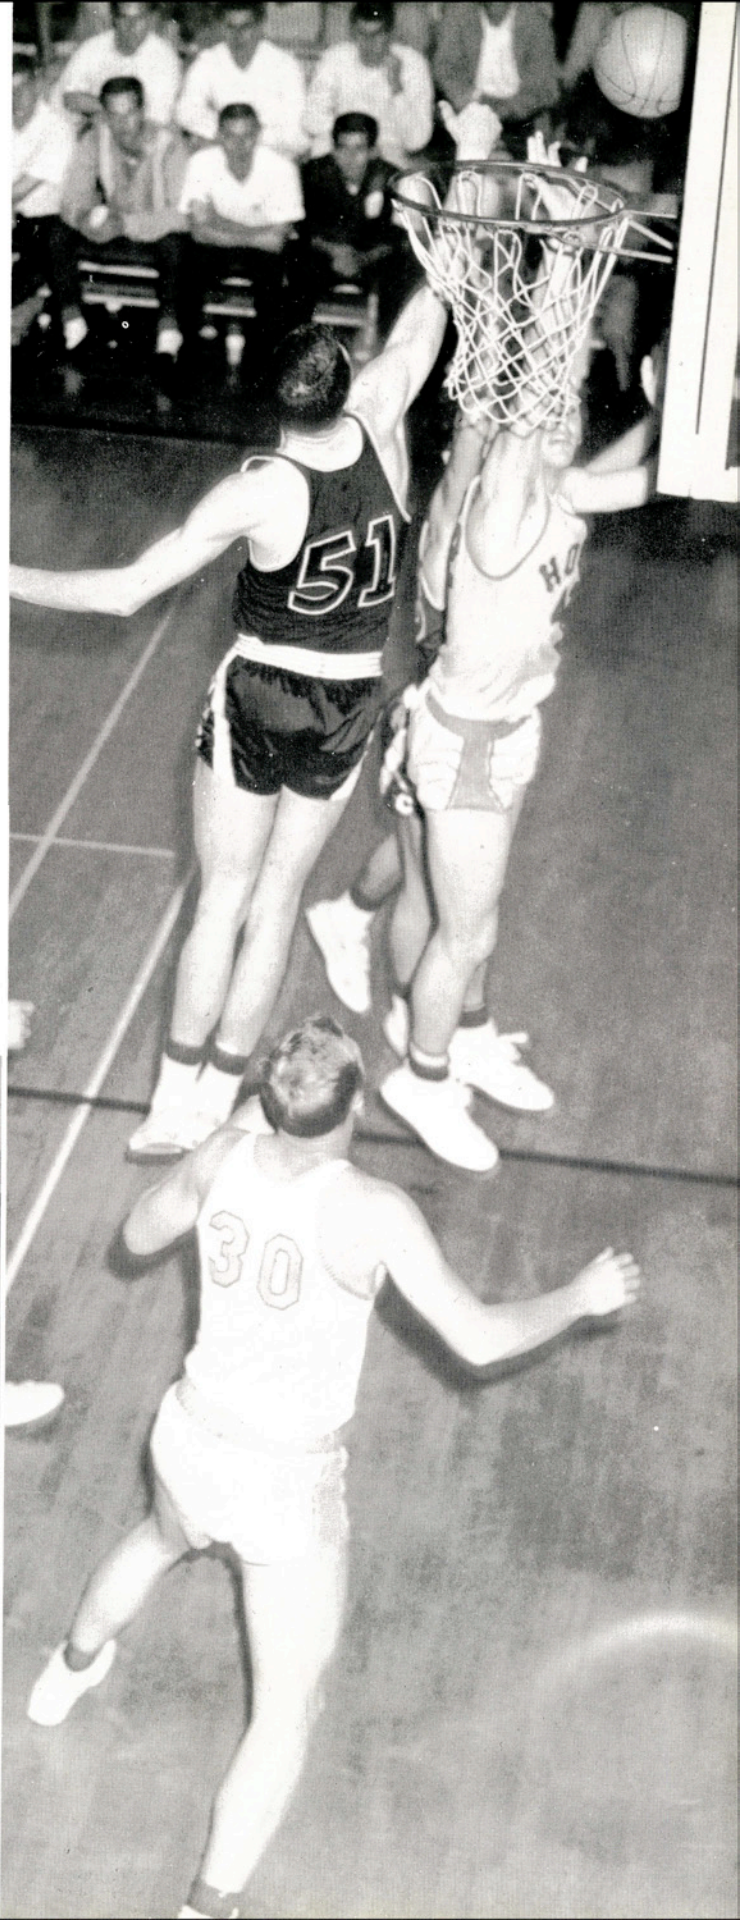

A&I 63 SFA 79
A&I 86 SFA 89

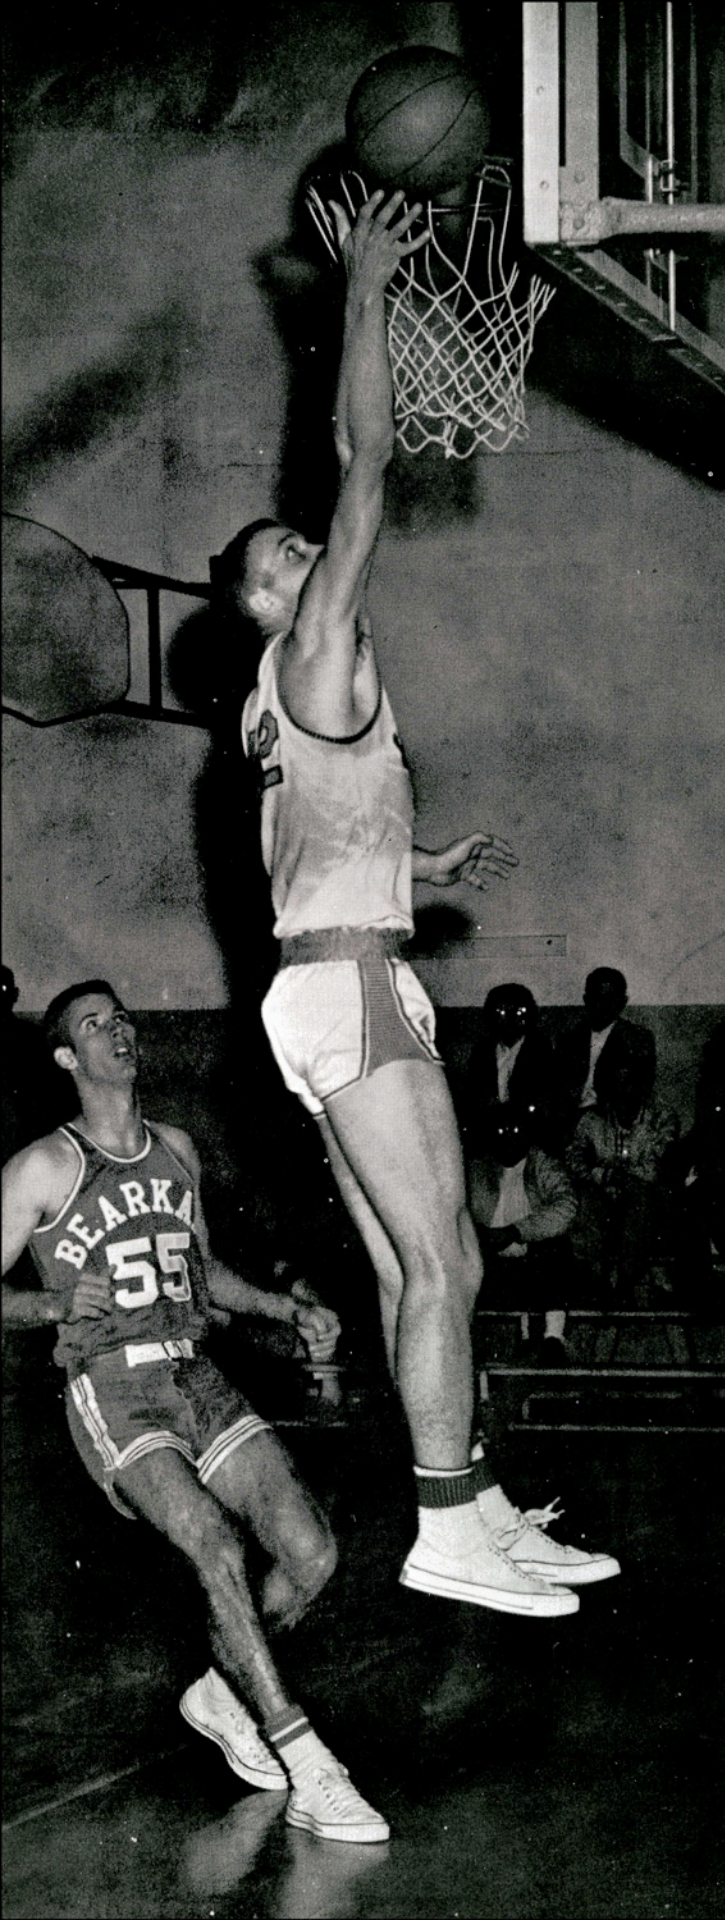

The Javelinas dropped their only double decision to a surprisingly strong SFA team. The Hoggies took the axe from the Woodchoppers to the tune of 63-79 in the opening round of play and later were felled on their home territory by a close three point margin. Cothran high-pointed the Hogs with 16 points, and Shirk followed with 13. They were the only bright spots in an otherwise gloomy evening. The death blow was felled at the charity line as the Axemen outdid the Hogs by 16 tallies. The free-throw line again defeated the mighty Blue and Gold, as SFA flipped in 11 more markers from the 15-foot strip than the Hoggies could muster. Lowe was the big man of the night with 20 points, with Koerner and Daniel up close with 16 each. Shirk and Farris also hit in double figures.

SFA Costs Hogs Crown

Driving through two defenders, Shirk tickles the twine for two.

All-American Shirk hooks for two more.

A&I 82 SHS 62

A&I 69 SHS 55

The Javelinas redeemed themselves in conference play by skinning the Bearkats twice. The runaway, which was the Hoggies' largest margin of victory in conference play in the first game at Kingsville, was only slightly diminished in the journey to Huntsville. In the first outing, Koerner was the leading Hog with 25 points. Cothran, Daniel, and Shirk also flipped in double figure counters. Lowe and Shirk snared 13 and 12 rebounds respectively to give the high-flying Hogs a decisive edge from the backboard. The Huntsville mauling was almost a repeat as Koerner dropped in 26 points to lead the way. Daniel and Shirk again hit above the ten level.

A&I Beats

SHS Twice

Shirk lays up two against the Bearkats.

Jim Koerner fast-breaks past Bearkat defense.

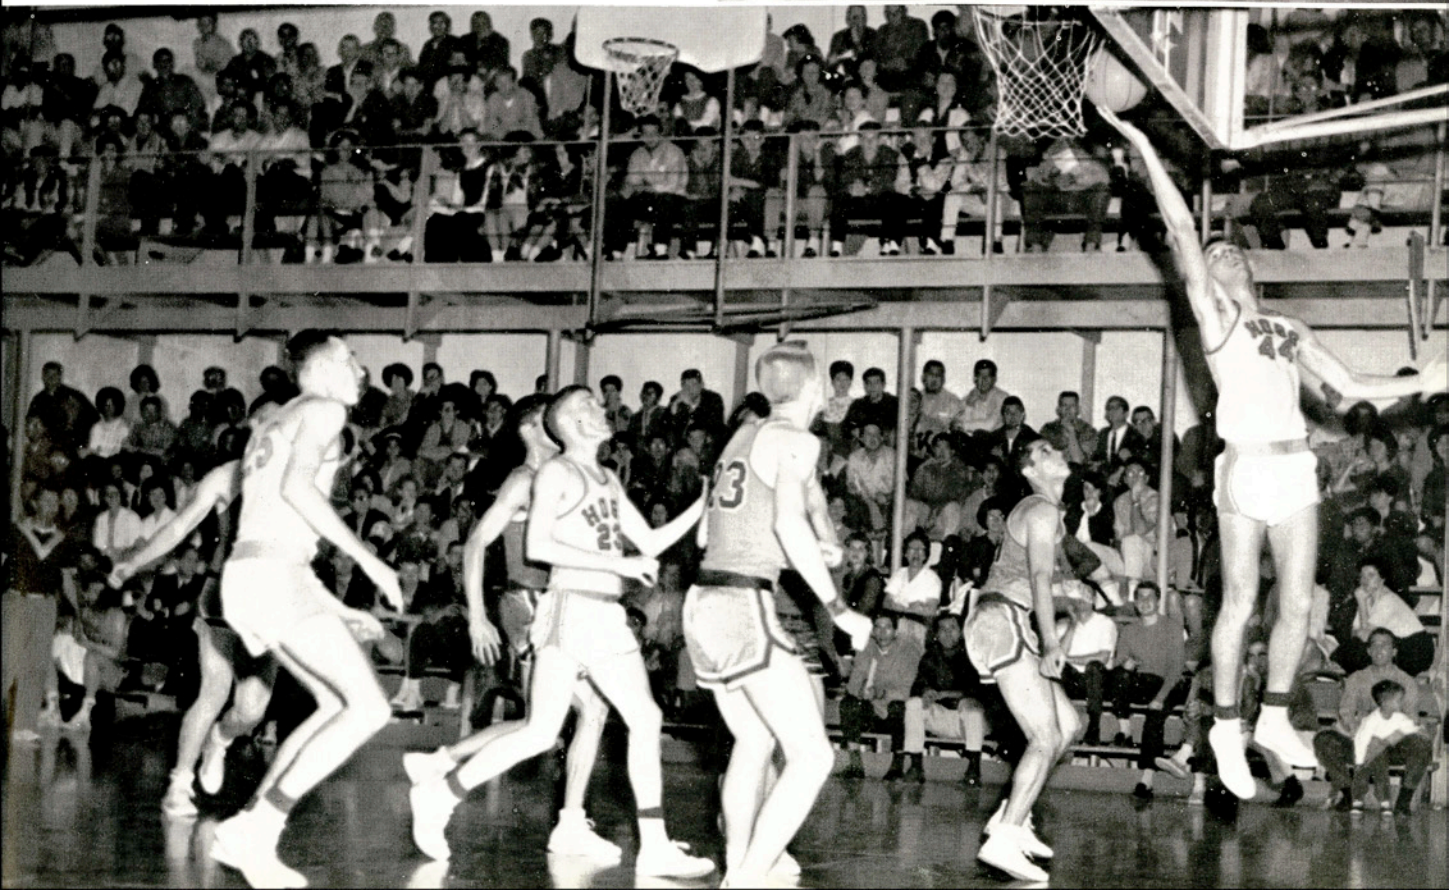

A&I 71 ETS 58
A&I 62 ETS 67

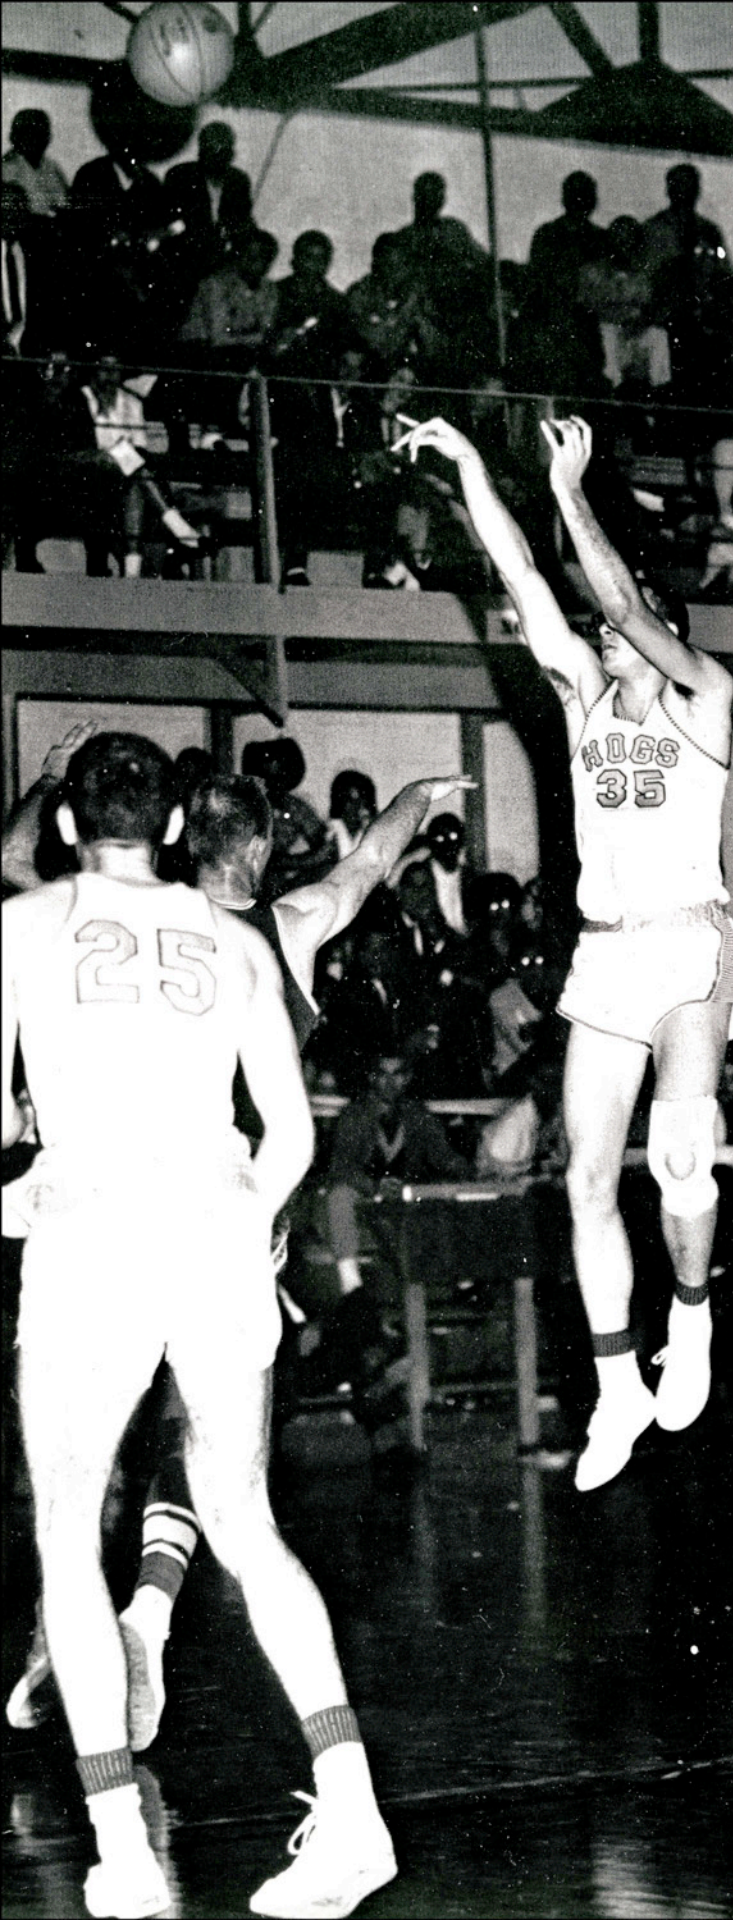

The Hogs split two decisions with league-champ East Texas, faring better than most conference games. In Kingsville the Javs gave the ETS Lions their worst mauling in conference play. However, travelling to the Lions' den proved to be a different story as East Texas squeaked past the scrambling Hog team. In the first outing, Shirk topped out the Javelinas with 23 points, while captain Jerry Daniel chipped in his share by adding 17 to race past the Lions. In the Lions' territory, the best that could be mustered was Jim Koerner's 15 points. Daniel and Shirk also hit in the double brackets, but their share was not enough to bring the Javs out on top.

Hogs Split With LSC Champs

A&I 89 SR 82
A&I 62 SR 60

The high-flying Javs conquered the Lobos in two hotly contested engagements. In the first game at Alpine, the Hogs used a blazing second-half shooting spree to burn up the Wolves. They amassed a terrifying accurate 72 per-cent in the second half to completely run away from Sul Ross. Jim Koerner, playing his finest game of the season, scored 28 points; Phil Shirk, Jerry Daniel, and John Lowe also marked up double tallies. In the Kingsville tussle, which went down to the wire, Phil Shirk sank the final basket to give A&I its two-point winning margin. Koerner paced the Hogs with 20 points; Daniel and Shirk also scored in double figures.

A&I Takes Two From Sul Ross

Charles Cothran — Up, up, up and away!

Coming from behind the backboard, Shirk racks up two.

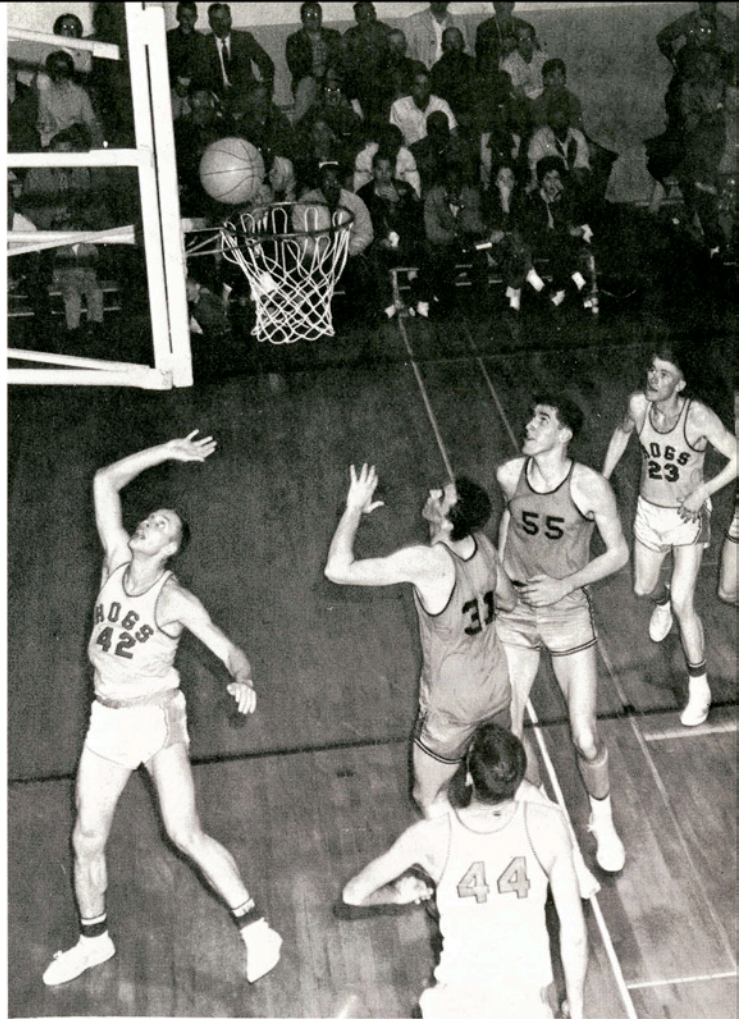

A&I 61 HP 69
A&I 62 HP 61

As usual, Howard Payne won in Brownwood; the Javelinas managed to eke out a hair-raising victory on the home court. Lack of depth seriously handicapped the Hogs in their invasion of Brownwood. A hot-shooting Yellow Jacket team cancelled the A&I supremacy on the backboards. Shirk and Schultz scored 14 apiece, and Daniel tossed in 11 for the Hoggies' scoring. In a spine-tingling clash at Javelina gymnasium with crowd enthusiasm running rampant, Phil Shirk led his teammates in a thrilling come-from-behind victory. In the best defensive battle of the season, the Hogs limited the high-scoring Jackets, while Shirk provided the offensive punch with 21 points. Jerry Daniel was the only other Javelina in double figures, scoring 13 points.

TEXAS SOCIETY OF PROFESSIONAL ENGINEERS

The student branch of the Texas Society of Professional Engineers, now in its eighth year on the A&I campus, is a professional organization open to all engineering students. Its purpose is to bring students closer to professional members in the field and to function as a unit in various campus activities.

WOMEN'S RECREATIONAL ASSOCIATION

The Women's Recreational Association was organized for the purpose of providing recreational activities for the women on the campus. It has attempted to attain this objective by sponsoring the women's intramural program and various other activities throughout the year.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS

The purpose of this organization is to promote the ideas and platform of the National Democratic Party on the A&I campus and to instruct the students with the form of government in the United States.
