

THEY'RE IN THE ARMY—Although these two A&I exes are thousands of miles apart, they have both received recognition for outstanding ability in their different fields. Capen Simons, who was a football great while he attended here from 1936-38, won his commission as bombardier with the Army Air corps in Santa Ana, Calif. He is due to be transferred, within the next few weeks, and may soon be dropping bombs on Japs or Nazis. A more peaceful occupation is that of Offutt Francis, B.A. 1941 and graduate student here last year. Offutt plays in the army band at the Army Gunner school in Harlingen and broadcasts over the radio every Saturday from 3:30 until 4. He was inducted only last month.
