6. The South Texas Archives & Special Collections, Texas A&M University-Kingsville does not assume any responsibility for infringement of copyright. Responsibility for making an independent legal assessment and securing any necessary permission rests with user desiring to use particular items in the context of the intended use. All users assume full responsibility for any infringement of copyright and publication rights of reproduced materials.

COPYRIGHT WARNING:

The Copyright Law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the creation of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, archives and libraries are authorized to furnish a photocopy or reproduction. One of these conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse a copying order if in its judgment; fulfillment of that order would violate copyright law.

I hereby agree to the conditions outlined above.
